be following testimony:-Dr. J. C. Ayer-Dear Sir :- I enclose you a cerficate from Mrs. Catherine K. Cady, a highly re-sectable lady of this village, wife of Mr. Seth Cady eputy Sheriff, Windham Co. Conn. The cure in her case was very prompt, and has attracted general attention. W. A. BREWSTER, M. D. WEST KILLINGLY, Ct., Sept. 28, 1848.

This may certify that I was afflicted with a very severe cough in the winter of 47-8, which threatened to terminate in Consumption. I had tried many medicines in vain, and was cured by the use of 'AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL." In the CATHARINE K. CADY.

Dr. J. Ager, Lowell-Dear Sir :- Feeling under ebligations to you for the restoration of my health I send you a report of my ease, which you are at liberty to publish for the benefit of others. Last autunn I took a bad cold, accompanied by a severe cough and made use of many medicines without obtaining relief I was obliged to give up business, frequently raised blood, and could get no sleep at night. A friend gave me a bottle of your CHER-RY PECTORAL the use of which I immediately commenced according to directions. I have just purchased the fifth bottle, and am nearly recovered I now sleep well, my cough has ceased, and all by the use of your valuable medicine E S. STONE, A. M.

DR. HASTINGS PREPARATION.
It has been thoroughly tried, not only in the Hospital under the charge of Dr. Hastings, in Lendon, but also by all the first physicians of England, and all have fully endorsed it as an unrivalled remedy in Consumption, and all other diseases of the lungs. The following are a few of the opinions expressed by the Medical Faculty of England. Dr. Williamson, of Mancheser, thus writes : "UNDER ITS INFLUENCE I have seen the emeciated being, on whose brow death had seemed to have set his seal, acquire hivigoration and strength-and exchange his early nornings of intense suffering and distressing cough for the sound repose which atone accompanies sound

The nedical faculty of Europe, and the United States are unanimous in their recommendations of the Lucina ture of the maladies relieved by the Lucina Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of cures out of the question, or the proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great reputation which it enjoys was not accidental y obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive, and apparently miraculous virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy off-pring, who would not have been so, but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is engally potent in the many diseases for which it is recommended Objection has been naturally made to the price of the Lucina Cordial; above, for fifty such. because the trash that has been thrown into the market in opposition to it, is sold cheaper; but the fact is that the cordial cannot be afforded less, and ought to be much dearer, as many of the ingredients which compose it are among the costliest things in nature; whereas the others are made up of cheup drugs worth but little in money, and less in merit and it is a fact, that at least one of the getter- up of these same mixtures, makes it a point to add one bottle of the Lucina Cordial to a given number of gallons of his compound, so as to give it some little tone and virtue and thus solace his conscience.
