The sale of Produce or Merchandise, OR THE PURCHASE OF Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery Shoes Hate, Purniture, Carriages, Musical and Agricultural Instruments. Bagging, Rope, Drugs, Medicines, &c. &c.

He flatters himself, as a purchaser of Goods fo the Southern Trade, his esperience-having been gaged for the lest sixteen years in the retail trade in the middle and lower part of North Caroline and in the ci y of Raleigh - will enable him to give suto him their orders. Unconnected with any establishment in New York, and devoting his whole time to acquaint himself with the value of ticods of every description, attending the auction sales, and being present to improve every opportunity to benefit his customers, he can save more than his com-missions to the Merchant, and the inconvenience and expense of a trip to New-York. The fact that Goods are constantly varying in rices and styles, and always decline as the season advances, is known to all in the habit of buying Goods in New-York. A great advantage will therefore be afforded to the Southern Merchants in having a competent agent, whose integest it will be to avail himself of every opportunity for their benefit, and who can, through him, keep up their stocks by get ing goods as their business may require, and avoid the necessity of laying in at one time a heavy stock for the season; and the inconvenience of a large amo nt of bills falling due about the same time. He can also get his goods more frequently, and of later and more desirable styles, and at lower rates, and thereby keep up a constant excitement and attraction. Marchants, and other persons disposed: to employ him, will please forward with their orders their refprences, or the names of firms with whom they will give them the preference, unless he can fill their orders on better terms elsewhere. He asks but one trial of his taste and judgment to insure future orders.
