He flatters himself, as a purchaser of Goods for the Southern Trade, his experience—having been engaged for the last sixteen years in the retail trade in the middle and lower part of North Carolina and in theci y of Raleigh-will enable him to give onire esticiaction to the Merchants who may entrust to him their orders. Unconnected with any esta-blishment in New-York, and devoting his whole time to acquaint himself with the value of Goods of every description, attending the auction sales, and peing present to improve every opportunity to benefit his customers, he can save more then his commissions to the Merchant, and the inconvenience and expense of a trip to New-York. The fact that Goods are constantly varying it prices and styles, and always decline as the season dvances, is known to all in the basic of buying Goods n New-York. A great advantage will therefore be afforded to the Southern Merchants in having a competent agent, whose interest it will be to avail himself of every opportunity for their benefit, and who can, through him, keep up their stocks by get ing goods as their business may require, and avoid the necessity of laying in at one time a heavy stock for the season; and the inconvenience of a large ame nt of bills falling due about the same time. He can also get his goods more frequently, and of later and more destrable styles, and at lower rates, and thereby keep up a constant excitement and attraction.

Marchants, and other persons disposed to employ him, will please forward with their orders their rebrences, or the names of firms with whom they usually deal in New-York, and in all instances h will give them the preference, unless he can fill their orders on better terms elsewhere.
