OR THE PURCHASE OF Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Shoes, Hats, Furniture, Carriages, Musical and Agricultural Instruments, Bagging, Rope, Drugs, Medicines, &c. &c.

He flatters himself, as a purchaser of Goods for the Southern Trade, his experience—having been engaged for the last sixteen years in the retail trade in the middle and lower part of North Carelina and in the ci y of Raleigh-will enable him to give entire satisfaction to the Merchants who may entrust blishment in New-York, and devoting his whole time to acquaint himself with the value of Goods of every description, attending the auction sales, and being present to improve every opportunity to benefit his rustomers, he can save more than his commissions to the Merchant, and the inconvenience and expense of a trip to New-York. The fact that Goods are constantly varying in prices and styles, and always decline us the season advances, is known to all in the habit of buying Goods in New-York. A great advantage will therefore be afforded to the Southern Merchants in having a competent agent, whose interest it will be to avail himself of every opportunity for their benefit, and who can, through him. keep up their stocks by get ting goods as their business may require, and avoid the necessity of laying in at one time a heavy stock for the season; and the inconvenience of a large amo 'nt of hills falling due about the same time. He can also get his goods more frequently, and of later and more destrable styles, and at lower rates, and thereby keep up a constant excitement and attraction.

Marchants, and other persons disposed to employ him, will please forward with their orders their references, or the names of firms with whom they usually deal in New-York, and in all instances h will give them the preference, unless he can fill their 4 50 orders on better terms elsewhere.
