A. B. STITU. AGENT, COMMISSION MERCHANT, AND

DRY GOODS AND GROCERY BROKER, NO. SO BROAD WAY, NEW-YORK.

B, STITH tenders his services to the Mer-A chants, Planters, and Citizens of North Carolina, and to Southern Merchants generally, as Agent, Commission Merchant, and Dry Goode and Grocery Broker, in the City of New-York; and will attend to any business in his line-either in The sale of Produce or Merchandise,

OR THE PURCHASE OF Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Shoes, Hals, Furniture, Carriages, Musical and Agricultural Instruments, Bagging, Rope, Drugs, Medicines, &c. &c.

He flitters himself, as a purchaser of Goods for the Southern Trade, his experience—having been engaged for the just sixteen years in the retail trade in the middle and lower part of North Carolina and in the city of Raleigh-will enable him to give en-tire satisfaction to the Merchants who may entrust to him their orders. Unconnected with any establishment in New-York, and devoting his whole time to acquaint himself with the value of Goods of every description, attending the auction sales, and being present to improve every opportunity to benefit his customers, he can save more than his comand expense of a trip to New-York.

The fact that Goods are constantly varying in prices and styles, and always decline as the season advances, is known to all in the habit of buying Goods in New-York. A great advantage will therefore be afforded to the Southern Merghants in having a competent agent, whose interest it will be to avail himself of every apportunity for their benefit, and who can, through him, keep up their stocks by get ting goods as their business may require, and avoid the necessity of laving in at one time a heavy stock for the season; and the inconvenience of a large amo at of bills falling due about the same time. He can also get his goods more frequently, and of later and more desirable styles, and at lower rates, and thereby keep up a constant excitement and attraction. Marchauts, and other persons disposed to employ him, will please forward with their orders their references, or the names of firms with whom they usually deal in New-York, and in all instances h will give them the preference, unless he can fill their orders on better terms elsewhere. He asks but one trial of his taste and judgment to insure future orders. His commissions will be two and a half per cent Address A. B. STITH, New-York. REFER TO
