HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT, Charleston, S. C., July 19th, 1867. The following appointments of Registrars are announced. The persons named will be assigned to duty by Post Commanders as members of Boards of Registration for the several Registration Districts they may establish within their command. Commanding Officers of Posts will organize and report their action to these Headquarters for confirmation. Two Boards of Registration will be organized for each County in North Carolina having more than six election precincts, except the Counties of Beaufort, Cumberland, Currituck, Edgecombe, Granville, Halifax, New Hanover, Wake, Wayne and Wilson, which shall have one Board provided for in this order. Registrars will be required to take the oath prescribed by the Act of Congress approved 18th July, 1862. Blank forms of this oath of office will be furnished to Post Commanders when they are ordered and forms will be returned to these Headquarters. The election precincts established by law or custom as existing places in the Counties of North Carolina will be designated by Post Commanders as the places for Registration. It is desirable that not more than six of these and preferably a less number, be included in a Registration District and assigned to one Registrar, so that facilities may be afforded for Registration. Every Board of Registration will choose its presiding officer, who will preside at the registration, and will act upon all matters coming before it. Regulations for the government of Registrars in the discharge of their duties will be published as soon as practicable for general information.

BATTLE'S DIGEST.

A Digest of all the Reported Cases, both in Law and Equity, determined in the Courts of North Carolina, from the earliest period to the year 1866. By WILLIAM BATTLE, a Judge of the Supreme Court. 3 volumes. Nichols, Gorman & Neathery, Agents, Raleigh, N. C. Price $25. WILLIAM EATON, (Author of Eaton's Forms) says: "I have examined, with care, a considerable portion of the work, and it affords me pleasure to express my very favorable opinion as to its merits. It is the plan of your Digest, regard as an excellent one, and I appreciate very highly the labor and assistance afforded you which you have exhibited in its execution. The work will be exceedingly convenient and accurate. Bar and Bench, and I hope that its patronage may be equal to its deserts. Chief Justice PARSONS and Judge READE, of the Supreme Court, say: "We have had in use, ever since its publication, last Fall, your admirable Digest of the decisions of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, from the foundation of the Court until this time. The arrangement is convenient and the abstracts accurate; and we and the profession are very much obliged to you for its issue. It is an indispensable to the profession in this State. It should be in the library of every Lawyer." From Judge P. F. MORAN, Philadelphia: "I have looked over the Digest with great interest, and I find it remarkable for the precision with which the cases are stated, and the accuracy and brevity of the reports by the numerous heads introduced. The work is of interest to all Lawyers, and is almost invaluable to North Carolina Practitioners and Jurists."

GENERAL ORDERS.

THE CAROLINAS ORDER FROM GEN. SICKLES FOR THE RELIEF OF DEBTIN DEBTS PROHIBITED. HQR'S SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT, Charleston, S. C., April 11, 1867. GENERAL ORDER No. 10.—The general destitution prevailing among the population of this military district cannot be relieved without affording means for the development of their industrial resources. The nature and extent of the destitution demand extraordinary measures. The people are borne down by a heavy burden of debt; the crops of grain and garden produce failed last year; many families have been deprived of shelter, many more need food and clothing, useful implements and auxiliaries of husbandry are very scarce; the laboring population in numerous localities are threatened with starvation unless supplied with food by the Government of the United States. The inability of a large portion of the people to pay claims of any kind rendered in said act, and the increased by the general disposition shown by creditors to enforce upon an impoverished people the immediate collection of all claims. To suffer all this to go, would be a restraint or penalty upon the general good. The rights of creditors shall be respected, but the appeal of want and suffering must be heeded. Moved by these considerations, the following regulations are announced, and it is so ordered, that no law or ordinance heretofore in force in this military district shall be construed to prevent or hinder the operation of the provisions of this order. The rights of creditors shall be respected, but the appeal of want and suffering must be heeded. Moved by these considerations, the following regulations are announced, and it is so ordered, that no law or ordinance heretofore in force in this military district shall be construed to prevent or hinder the operation of the provisions of this order.
