REPUBLICAN ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The apparent purpose and the action of the late Convention, assembled in the City of Raleigh, on the 4th day of September, having met the open disapprobation of many Republicans in the State, and raised serious apprehensions of discord in the party, the undersigned, in view of the intelligence of the fellow-citizens in submitting the following views, and exhorting all truly loyal and Union men to harmony and unity of action, regardless of the temporary and accidental prevalence of injudicious and unfortunate courses.

It must be borne in mind that these States are to be restored not merely to being governed themselves, but to the exercise of equal powers in governing the whole country. They rebelled against the Union, and waged a war for the establishment of certain principles of their own until they were subdued by those in whose government they now seek to be made again participants and equals.

But, inasmuch as the people themselves, and not the States, are the real repository of political power, it is required that they give evidence of a popular renunciation and acceptance of the position, and that they be prepared to accept of the principles of reconstruction, in order to recover the power to renew the late strife and revive a lost cause.

The principles sought to be established upon the same basis of popular sentiment, as previously to reconstruction, may be fully summed up in two propositions, viz: 1. A faithful and willing adherence to and support of the Union and of the government of the United States and a quiet submission to its authority under the Constitution.

These are the principles of the UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY, and are the only test of a national popular sentiment, as previously to reconstruction, and of the rights and powers pertaining to a recognized State in the Union, and is dependent on the establishment of these principles as the prevailing sentiment of the people.

of their own race, and of one officer, lately in the federal service, (Gen. Ladin), who met only reproaches and imputations, in a voice in advocacy of moderation and prudence.

The election of Gen. Abbott as permanent President of a North Carolina Convention, was followed by the election of four Secretaries, two of whom were transients lately located among us, and two colored men. It could hardly be expected that the Congress of the United States would be likely to view the action of a Convention so controlled, as expressive of the true sentiments of the State, by the success of a party under it as affording sufficient evidence of the temper and spirit of our people, to justify the restoration of the State to its rights and powers in the general government.

But an effort was, nevertheless, made to quiet the public mind by committing the party in this State, distinctly and authoritatively, upon three points, to-wit: 1st. Against the purpose or desire of confiscating private property for political offences in the present contest of affairs; 2d. In favor of providing in the State Constitution for the extension of the elective franchise to every white and colored man alike; 3d. In favor of the removal of official disabilities from true and loyal citizens within such limits as Congress may deem safe and prudent in this State.

It cannot be expected that a Convention in this State, controlled by such influences and distinguished by such a character, could command the approbation and confidence of the people of North Carolina. But it is advised and hoped that no true Republican will abandon the party or abate his zeal in support of its principles, because of the opposition and contumacious conduct of those who are in the front of the party.

They have charged that party with the design, 1st. To confiscate the lands of those compromised in the rebellion to be parcelled out among the colored citizens; 2d. To perpetrate the outrages against the whites from the ballot box, while the whole of the colored men are enfranchised, and thus secure the political supremacy of the colored race in the Southern States; 3d. To continue the official disabilities now imposed on the loyal citizens of the State, and, in effect, place our government in the hands of strangers who have lately settled among us for the purpose of becoming our rulers. These unjust charges have had much effect upon the uneducated masses of the people and have raised up apprehensions and hesitations even among the most steadfast friends of the Union.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN CHRONICLE, Lincolnton, North Carolina.

To the People of Western North Carolina: The loyal Union party of Western North Carolina have long felt the need of a thoroughly loyal Republican paper, to advocate their claims, and contend for that freedom of speech so long denied us by the enemies of the Union, who, when their cause failed, scarcely hoped that their lives would be spared, now encouraged by the "policy" of Andrew Johnson, use every means in their power, by falsehood and misrepresentation, to make our friends in Congress believe that no loyal man exists in the State, and that a general amnesty is necessary to insure peace and quiet to our section; while the truth is, it would be the initiatory step to scenes of crime and bloodshed.

DR. LAWRENCE'S CELEBRATED ROSADALIS.

READ THE FOLLOWING HOME CERTIFICATES FROM PHYSICIANS. We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician who is an experienced Pharmacist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

Dr. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—Please send me immediately per Express to Baltimore, two dozen bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examined its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it beyond doubt, the best Alternative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofula Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary Syphilis, (one or two terrible cases of eight years' standing), in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and permanent cure. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, E. K. LOSSER, Principal, Baltimore, Md. Jul 19-ly.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling. [HOME CERTIFICATE.] I hereby certify that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—two glands reached a large size. The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was induced by a fall from a horse. I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the neck subsided, and I was able to get up. I took the second bottle, the swelling in the knee nearly subsided, and I was able to get up. I took the third bottle, and the swelling in the knee completely well—able to walk, and to do my usual business. W. LATIMER WILLIAMS, Wilson, May 12, 1867.

Rosadalis will cure the very worst cases of Chronic Rheumatism. [HOME CERTIFICATE.] I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. JAMES WILLIS, Wilson, N. C., May 6, 1867. Rosadalis Cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c. CERTIFICATE FROM AN OLD AND MUCH RESPECTED CITIZEN OF GREENE COUNTY, NOW A RESIDENT OF WILSON, N. C. I hereby certify, that during the summer and fall of 1866 I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had no less than fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve abscesses, which troubled me so much that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine. W. A. BARDEN, Sr. Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages can be cured. BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867. Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your Rosadalis, I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eyes, night sweats, together with the cough, told me that it was Consumption beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief, which was a sad and painful surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite improved, and she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever. Yours, respectfully, MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis Cures all Skin Diseases. SALT RHEUM CURED!! REMARKABLE CURE!! Dr. LAWRENCE, WILSON, N. C. My Dear Sir—For the last ten years, until recently, I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by Physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable, and several of the best Physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent several of the last years of my life in getting my cure. In December, 1866, being in Charleston, S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel that he had been cured of his Salt Rheum by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope of doing me any good, I procured a bottle of Messrs. King, Carter & Co.'s Rosadalis, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing the last one, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared. Enclosed One Hundred Dollars, which please accept as a token of my grateful heart, for the cure of my intractable Rosadalis, which I have never known to be cured before. Yours sincerely, W. T. SELTZER.
