nation must be relied upon to settle our present troubles and to restore the lately insurgent States government. to complete harmony with the General Government; and to render such restoration permanent,to prevent a speedy renewal of recent strife, and to guarantee the future safety and integrity of the Union, that party has assumed, as a basis of reconstruction, certain fundamental principles, the establishment of which, as the popular sentiment of the voting masses in the lately rebellions States, is held as a condition precedent to their being admitted to the exercise of political powers erning the whole country. They rebelled against three resolutions embodying these sentements, and the Union, and waged a war for the establishment of certain principles of their own until they were subtions were met by a repetition of excited and im-construction has been delayed only because of their failure, so far, to manifest such a disposition, and for the establishment among them of a pre-vailing sentiment in accordance therewith. The preparatory policy of Congress has been conducted step by step with this view. Its first step was to wait for a voluntary manifestation in the elections ordered by the President. But adverse itself, and a sufficient number of individual citichise upon the colored population, and to establish military governments for the maintenance of obedience and order while the spirit and disposition of our people were being again tested. In this condition of affairs we are now called upon to act.

The principles sought to be established upon the sound basis of popular sentiment, as preliminary to reconstruction, may be fully summed up in two propositions, viz ?

1. A faithful and willing adherence to and sapport of the Union and of the government of the United States and a quiet submission to its authority under the Constitution. 2. Civil and political equality among all citizens, irrespective of race or color, and the protection of white and colored alike in all the rights, privileges and immunities of citizenship.

These are the principles of the UNION REPUB-LICAN PARTY, and are the only test of a true, national republican. Our restoration to the rights and powers appertaining to a recognized State in the Union, awaits and is dependent on the establishment of these principles as the prevailing sentiment of the people.

The government has refrained from executions for treason, from banishments and from confisca- the peace and integrity of the nation. tion. It does not now suspend any threats over loyalty and duty. The masses of our people who disposition of the people, not only by inculcating the great principles of "Union and Equality," but by removing every obstacle to its progress. Our adversaries have retarded it in North Carolina; not so much by reason and argument, as by appeals to sectional prejudices and misrepresentations of the purposes and designs of the Republican Party upon distinct and collateral points.

They have charged that party with the design, 1st. Such ap- been adopted for the security and preservation of peals to the colored population would inevitably the Union. produce alienation and prejudice between the races, fatal to the establishment of a safe and wholesome public sentiment, and dangerous to the peace and good order of society. That these apprehensions might be quieted by having the position of the party upon these and other points distinctly and unequivocally set forth and promulgated in North Carolina, it was deemed expedient and proper that a Convention of Republicans should be called to meet in the City of Raleigh, on the 4th day of September, 1867. The Convention was accordingly assembled; but its action was not such as was hoped and expect ed. It was, confessedly, unfortunate that after the courtesy shown to recent settlers from the North, by making a prominent politician from the State of Ohio, (Col. Heaton,) the temporary Chairman of the Convention, they should have demanded, and by appeals to the colored delegates on the ground of military services, secured the rejection of one of the most prominent and worthy of the native Unionists of the State, (Gen: Dockery,) and have placed in his stead, as permanent President, a stranger from the State of New Hampshire, (Gen. J. C. Abbott,) a gentleman previously unheard of by the masses of our.

People, or known only as an officer from the federal army who had recently located near Wilmington in this state. It is still more to be regretted that the colored speakers from Wilmington and its vicinity, seconded by a gentleman from New York, (Col. Pack.) in advocating the election of Gen. Abbott, should have used language suggestive of purposes calculated to in-crease previously existing apprehensions. They paraded the military prestige of their candidate in fighting against slavery, while they reproached the native citizens of the State with struggling to perpetuate it, and charged Southern Union means with acting either from cowardice or from a hope to save, their slave, property by terminating the war short of amancipation. The effect of these appeals upon the colored delegates was manifested by the excitement and enthusiasm with which they rejected the coursels of the more considerate.

WESTERN CHRONICLE Lincolnton, North Carolina.

To the People of Western North Carolina: The loyal Union party of Western North Carloyal Republican paper, to advocate their claims, and contend for that freedom of speech so long denied us by the enemies of the Union, who, when their cause failed, scarcely hoped that their lives would be spared, now encouraged by the "policy' of Andrew Johnson, use every means in their power, by falsehood and misrepresentation, to nake our friends in Congress believe that no loval element exists in the State, and that a general amnesty is necessary to insure peace and quiet to our section : while the truth is, it would be the initiatory step to scenes of crime and bloodshed The people, we say, of the Western portion of the State have long suffered in public opinion for the want of a sound, unbiased loyal press to refute these vile standers and hurl back the abusive epithets bestowed upon us. We propose to supply the desideratum, and earnestly ask the co-opera- SCROFULA tion of every true lover of his country in our efforts to aid in securing peace, justice, liberty and equality to all deserving those inestimable privieges. Let every man put his shoulder to the CONSUMPTION. wheel, and we shall soon see again the laws of our country obeyed and its supporters honored, instead of the open grumbling and undisguised hatred of that particular class of rebels, who, while support- ENLARGEMENT taken and ambitious leaders, yet took very good care to get themselves into fat offices somewhere in the rear of the contending armies.

In the absence of ready money with which to embark in the enterprise, we propose to our fellow-citizens, one and all, the following plan by which a paper can be established: Let every man subscribe and exert himself to the utmost to obtain subscribers and the money in advance, and as soon as we get 500 names with the accompanying $2 each, we shall at once purchase the requisite material, new from the foundry, and, at the earliest possible day, issue the first unmber of the paper. We have conversed with several prominent gentlemen, and have received assurances of their aid and support. Let every man do his part, and the work is accomplished.

The paper will be called the WESTERN CHRONICLE, and will be a thoroughly Union Journal, and a staunch supporter of Republican principles. It will be mailed to subscribers at the ow rate of Two Dollars per annum, which was the old-time price of a weekly newspaper. We blace it thus low that every family may take one of their own, and not depend on borrowing their neighbor's, as well as to encourage our colored citizens, who now have equal rights before the law, to know and understand the events that are transpiring around them, and whose duty it is to see and read for themselves. We pledge that the Chronicle shall be a paper that every man may read with profit to himself both white and black, if they love their country and her laws. The Publishers, being practical LIVER COMPLAINT, printers, guarantee the general appearance of the paper, while the Editorial Department will reflect whatever judgment and ability they may possess st themselves in behalf of this enterprise. Send in as many names as possible immediately, so as to issue the first number at an early day. All communications and subscriptions should
