Its Correspondence, Foreign and Domestic, in variety, fullness and literary interest and ability, TIMES has a large number of able, intelligent and candid correspondents whose reports of incidents and opinions are of great interest and value; and

In its EDITORIAL Department the TIMES seeks to criticize passing events of every kind with candor, intelligence and a paramount regard for the best interests of the community. It avoids always appeals to mere passion, and aims to direct and convince the judgment rather than appeal to prejudice. In politics it maintains the fundamental principles of the Union Party—seeking the Restoration of Peace and Union upon the basis of Equal Rights and universal justice, and urging always and everywhere the elevation and improvement of all classes of the community. In dealing with the South it will insist upon a just and considerate policy-demand n; full and steady obedience to the Constitution and laws of the Union, ample protection for the enfranchised slaves in all their rights of life, liberty and propertythe development of the material resources of the country, and the general advancement of all classes of the people in education, morality and religion.
