SPECIAL NOTICES.

YOU MAY BE TOO LATE. Be warned in time. Diseases like Indigestion and Dyspepsia are not to be trifled with. There is such a thing as being too late in these matters, Inflamation, or Scirrhus Cancer, or some other dangerous disease may ensue, when all restoratives, no matter how potent, would be ineffectual. Do not delay then. When the symptoms of Dyspepsia are first experienced resort at once to the great restorative medicine, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and you will be safe.

But few disorders involve greater suffering, and if not in itself immediately dangerous, it is the source of many deadly maladies. Even if it did not tend to greater evil, the mental and physical misery it produces is alone a sufficient reason why no pains should be spared to prevent or cure it. In no country on the face of the globe is it so completely domesticated as in our own, where it is found in nearly every household, HOSTET-TER'S STOMACH BITTERS are universally conceded to be the sovereign remedy for this annoving disease, as they act directly upon the digestive organs, correct and tone the stomach, and give renewed vitality to the system. Acting delightfully upon the nerves and soothing the brain, renders them efficacious as a mental medicine, as well as a general stomachic. If taken as a preventive, they will be found particularly well suited to the diseases arising from the unhealthy season of autumn, and their use will prevent the creeping, unpleasent sensation often complained of when the chills are stealing slowly upon the pa-

INSURANCE.

We have in our Office a Chart, giving the sworn statement of a number of Life Insurance Companies, made to the "Insurance Department of the State of New York, for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1866," in comparing which we see that the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE is larger and TORY stock-late Norfolk Agricultural Works far exceeds the five other Companies represents in this State-as follows: The Ætna Life, Brook lyn, Equitable, Manhattan and North America Their total Assets, combined, are $12 886,867.14; Connecticut Mutual Assets $13,316,275.97, larger by $429,408,83. The r dividends, paid to po icy holders, 221,942.99; Connecticut Mutual dividends to policy holders, $531,458.00-larger by $309,-515.01. Their expenses and taxes, in 1866, $1,-372,169.55; Connecticut Mutual's $723,230.42less by $648,939,13. Their ratio of expenses to premium and interest $20.13; Connecticut Mutual's $11.11—less by $9.02.

One can see, at a glance, how much more it costs, in proportion, to work a small Company than a large one. Their dividends paid to Stockholders $78,762. The Connecticut Mutual's only they now hold (Dec. 1867) $17,000,000. A large amount of this money is invested in real estate and State bonds, so there is NO SAFER, nor CMEAP-ER investment for a man to make for his family. It has become such a prosperous institution that its interest alone more than pays losses-notwithstanding the large dividends it annually returns to its Policy holders.

Another grand feature: All its policies are non-forfeitable for a stated amount-the continued Life after three payments; the ten year Life and Endowment after two payments.

We have branch offices in ten of the principal Cities and Towns in this State, where facts and statements can be had, and applications taken. The Company "employs no travelling or itinerant Agents." dec11-tf ~~~~ COL. FORNEY'S LETTERS FROM EUROPE. T. B. Peterson & Brothers publish this day the public letters written by Colonel John W. Forney during his late European tour. They form a large duodecimo volume of over four hundred pages, printed on the finest paper, handsomely bound in cloth. These letters contain the author's obserservations on European society, politics, amusements, manufactures and educational and religious institutions. That the Colonel's field of observation was an extended one, these missives attest by the many different countries and cities from which they were written. Col. Forney visited and describes London, Liverpool, Oxford, Windsor, Halifax, the birth place of Shakspeare, Paris, Berne, Lake Leman, Baden-Baden, Heidelberg, the Rhine, Brussels, Antwerp, the Hague, and many other places of note. This collection of letters will prove a valuable and acceptable addition to our series of books of foreign travel .-Colonel Forney disdained the use of guides and guide books, formed his own opinions as to what was worth seeing and admiring, and gives his experiences and conclusions in the bold and decided style for which he has become noted. His book is fresh and original in tone, containing as it does a copious index, and worthy the attention of all intelligent readers. It is complete in a large duodecimo volume, with a steel engraved portrait of Col. Forney, bound in cloth, gilt back and gilt sides. Price, two dollars; and is for sale by all

GRAYJACKETS.

And how they Lived, Fought and Died for Dixie, with Incidents and Sketches of Life in the Confederacy, Comprising Narratives of Personal Adventure, Army Life, Naval Adventure, Home Life, Partizan Daring, Life in the Camp, Field and Hospital, together with the Songs, Ballads, Anecdotes and Humorus Incidents of the Was for Southern Independence.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never gc into the regular histories, nor be em bodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to suc ceeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This ilustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. The Valiant and Brave Hearted, the Picturesque and Dramatic, the Witty and Marvelous, the Tender and Pathetic, and the whole Panorama of the War are here thrillingly portrayed in a masterly manner, at once historical and romantic, rendering it the most ample, unique, brilliant and readable book that the war has called forth.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art. Send for Circulars and see our terms, and a full

Dear Dr. Lawrence:-My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your Rosadalis, I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonicwhich she did-imagine my surprise and gratifi-cation, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now. after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

My Dear Sir-For the last ten years, until recently, I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin-called by Physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best Physicians in Europe and this country-have visited several celebrated springs-spent thousands of dollars, and failed to get any better. In De-cember, 1866, being in Charleston, S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was
