THE MURFREESBORO ENQUIRER.

As an advertising medium, it cannot be surpassed in Eastern Carolina.

Terms, $2 per year in advance. $1, for six months.

WARD & BLAKET, Eds. and Prop., Murfreesboro, N. C.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HILLSBORO RECORDER.

ESTABLISHED 1880. THE OLDEST PAPER IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The RECORDER, apart from its political merits, offers superior inducements to the merchants of Raleigh as a medium of advertising. It has a large and increasing circulation in the counties of Orange, Alamance, Person and Caswell and especially in those sections of Orange and Alamance, most closely connected by the interests of trade with the city of Raleigh. The merchants of Raleigh will find it readily to their advantage to use this medium to build up a metropolitan business that goes to other cities. Manufacturers will also profit by the growing spirit of agricultural improvement, and the tendency to the adoption of labor-saving machinery, to reach the ears and eyes of large and intelligent class of readers through the medium of the Recorder.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

Proceedings of the Fortieth Session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, South, held at Greensboro, Commencing Wednesday, Nov. 20th, 1876.

From the Daily News.

FIRST DAY--WEDNESDAY.

Conference convened at the Methodist church at 9:30 o'clock, was called to order by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, and was opened with religious exercises conducted by the Bishop, who read the 2nd chapter of II Timothy. The congregation joined in singing hymn 372.

The public so far as we can read their wishes, desire a jubilee of thought at the metropolis for the masses--not simply for those who follow in the same wake or utter the "shibboleth" of a class, but a medium of inter-communication, with sufficient vigor and space for the liberal, conservative, loyal sentiment of all shades to find vent.

The SENTINEL will be loyal and independent to both Federal and State governments. It will sustain the military authorities in the preservation of quiet and order, and in enforcing the orders of the government. Not a dialyog or unkind word against the government of the Union of these States shall pass our lips, but it will be true without sympathy, honest without flattery, nor will it be to shield its own throat.

It shall advocate sound principles and support good men. Its motto is not "principles not men," but principles and men. A bad man can find no quarters with the SENTINEL. A good man--a man of truth, of high toned integrity--a gentleman in the true sense, honest and capable, if we are not deceived, can also claim our support.

After eleven long years of trial, adversity and changes of fortune to our people, stands to-day upon the same platform on which its venerable founder erected it.

For more than eleven years the SENTINEL has stood guard for the rights and liberties of the people, and to-day, when the State has emerged from the darkness of radical rule, and the future is as full of hope and promise as the past was dark and gloomy, it pledges itself to the high service of the good people of the great State of North Carolina.
