The Sentinel

The public so far as we can read their shes, desire a vehicle of thought at the the "shibboleth" of a class, but a medium of inter-communication, with sufficient verge and space for the liberal, conservative, loyal entiment of all shades to find vent."

The SENTINEL will be loval and ingenuous to both Federal and State governments. It will sustain the military authorities in the preservation of quiet and order, and in enforcing the orders of the government. Not a disloyal or unkind word against the government of the Union of these States shall pass our lips, but it will be true without sycophancy, honest without flattery, nor will it lie to shield its own

It shall advocate sound principles and support good men. Its motto is not 'principles, not men,' but principles and men. A bad man can find no quarters with the SENTINEL. A good man-a man of trath, of high toned integrity-a gentleman in the true sense, honest and capable, if we are not deceived, can alone claim our apprort. After eleven long years of trial, adversity and changes of fortune to our people, stands to-day upon the same platform on which its venerable formuler erected it. For more than eleven years the SEN-TINEL has stood guard for the rights and liberties of the people, and to-day, when the State has emerged from the darkness of rad-ical rule, and the future is as full of hope and promise as the past was dark and gloomy, it repledges itself to the high ser-vice of the good people of the great State of North Carolina.

THE SENTINEL

Appreciating the wants, conditions and necessities of the people, fixes the following rates of subscription:

ADVERTISERS

The age and standing of the SENTINEL gives it a circulation, both daily and weekly editions, which renders it, as an advertising medium, the best in the State. Merchants and others who desire to sustain an old in-stitution by their advertising patronage will find our rates very reasonable.

TRUTH FROM LOUISIANA.

Why the Negroes Voted for Tilden and Reform---Republican Intimidation.

From the New Orleans Democrat J. W. Bedrick being sworn testified: I am a physician and planter. I reside in ward twelve, parish of West Felicians. I am a conservative in politics and voted

I am a conservative in politics and voted the democratic-conservative ticket at last election. I was present all election day at the polls near Star Hill, in the second ward. When there I neither saw nor heard any disturbance. The election passed off in peace and quiet in the strictest sense of the words.

The canvass preceding the election was carnest and active; all classes taking the restriction of the control of tion of the latter, their dishonesty, incompetency, and even criminality. Weber and Swayzie, who have represented West Feliciana in the legislature, are generally believed to have been guilty of the assassination of W. D. Winter, a prominent lawyer of the parish. Weber has had ignorant and corrupt police jurors appointed and has profited pecuniarily by this.

It is well knewn by the colored people that the school funds had been embez zled; that two successive treasurers of the board were so ignorant as to be barely able to write their names; that the taxes for parish purposes exceeded the state taxes by 23 mills. These facts were kept before the colored people during the canvass, and they were urged to join the whites whe had a common interest with them in remedying these evils. The only difficulty met with in inducing them to join the democratic clubs was the moral intimidation in which they were kept by their party leaders. They have been told that if they voted the democratic ticket they would lose their rights, that they would be put back into slavery again. I know of only one prominent citizen being killed for political opinions in the parish during the past twelve months; this was Mr. C. T. West, the democratic candidate for sheriff. was soon after appointed tax collector of East Feliciana through Weber's influence; knew of no negroes being hung in the parish during the last twelve months to a democratic club, and voted the democratic ticket voluntarily. I have always treated them kindly. They realways treated them kindly. They re-spected me and my advice; had perfect confidence in me. The negroes of the parish are indebted to the whites for many kindnesses, and would long since have trusted and confided in them but for the evil influence and advice of Weber & Co.

CHEAP JOHN JOURNALISM. The Pressure on the Country Press from the Centre.

From the Milton Chronicle.

From the Milton Chrostele.

The Raleigh Sentinel abandons the publication of a dally paper and goes into a semi-weekly at $4 per tanum and a weekly paper at $2. Raleigh is too amall a place to support two daily papers decetily, and without the pentile printing we doubt if one could make smore than a living. It might proper if there were no other dally papers competing with it outside of Raleigh. The cheap weekly papers that flood the country—your dollar weeklies, for instance—can't keep head above water without the state printing, and when the legislature gives this fat job to a "cheap paper" its tendency is to kill all the weekly papers in the state that have no public printing to back them in publishing a cheap "dellar" paper. We regret the necessity the Sentinel is under to depart from its daily issue. We shall miss its daily presence, filled with the latest news and meet interesting and instructive matter. He claims that his wife attempted to kill him by mixing finely powdered glass in his corn bread, and that he ate a heavy meal of this kind of bread on Menday. The piece of bread he exhibited was filled with finely crushed glass, which Meyers asserts was placed there with the evident intention of putting an end to his crisintention of putting an end to his exis-tence. Meyers talked of filing an affi-davit against his wife upon a charge of attempting his life. He declares that he had had no serious difficulty with his wife, and is at a loss to account for her action. When accused of an attempt on his life she denied it; but Meyers says he has the proof.
