FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1877.

Grant says "Let us have peace." And the people answer, we will have peace and a fair count.

Grant says if the house tries to take part in the count he will arrest its members. And where will Grant go?

Grant says "Let no guilty man escape," and the people say that no guilty alarm, we feel more uneasiness over the man shall escape, even the arch crim- situation than at any time since the inal and traiter Grant himself.

Grant says he is going to Cuba. He will go to a warmer place than Cuba if he attempts to interfere with the representatives of the people in the lawful discharge of their duty.

Grant says no man can afford to take the presidency if it comes to bim tainted with fraud, and the people say no man shall take the presidency if it comes to him with the taint of fraud:

Good Appointment.

Stor .

On Wednesday Governor Vance appointed Col. J. McLeod Turner keeper of the capitol. Of this appointment there can be but one opinion. It is an eminently good one. We have known Colonel Turner for some years and we are satisfied that every one who has enjoyed that privilege will indorse us in saying that at King Arthur's round table there sat no knight who was a braver here or purer gentleman than John McLeed Turner.

any time since the November election The democratic legislators, after some opposition in their own body, finally opposition in their own boay, many resolved restorday moning to organize separately and to demand admission to the state house. The democrats who held certificates from the returning board, tegether with those who claim to have been fairly elected, but who were refused certificates accordingly met and proceeded in a body to the state house, demanding admission as the legal legislature of the state. They were met at the door by Colonel Badger, who commands the Kellegg police and their demand was refused.

upon, after reading a protect, they pro-ceeded to St. Patrick's Hall, where they organized. Meanwhile the Kellogg legislature met in the state house, extaking their seats, thus obtaining a nominal mejority and quorum of the senate, and passed concurrent resolu-tions in accordance with the constitution of the United States, calling upon the president for troops to suppress armed rebellion in the state. Mean-while the state heuse has been strongly County Government.

We will present to our readers in our next issue the three bills known as the Craven county plan for the government of counties This plan is put forward over the names of Hon. Charles C. Clark, Hon. Matthias E. Manly and Hon. John Hughes. A plan endorsed by such men as these is sure of respectful attention and is apt to be worthy of very great consideration CONCERNING STATISTICS PLANT SALES tains many features which we heartily commen? The first bill proposed by these gentlemen adopts the plan proposed by the Sentinel, of placing the appointment of justices of the peace in the hands of the governor and this endorsement of our suggestion goes far to convince us that our policy was one which would commend itself to the pub

The various bills proposed by thes gentlemen further propose to abolish the office of county commissioner, and practically proposes a return to the eld county court system. This is a new

Dr. Earl, superintendent of the Masachusetts insane asylum at Northampton, advises plenty of sleep and avoid-ance of excitement as the best preventatives of meanity. He thinks that the reports of cures in asylums are commonly exaggerated. His estimate is that of ten percens attacked by insanity five die of the disease scener or later, and that of the five who recover three will have subsequent attacks.

Bad habits are easily contracted ; so are colds; and both are very hard to get rid of. The colds are quickly and surely cured by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price
