WHAT NEXT?

A writer in the Standard, signing himself "A North-Carolinian," in a communication on "The Know-Nothing Conspiracy," thus alludes to the "secret order of Jesuits :"

Look for a moment at the secret order of Jesuits. The members of this intolerant order take an oath that savors memoria bigotry than even the Know Nothing or th. For what is this order instituted ? To root out every religious what is their own. They swear eternal opposition and halted to every religion except that of the Romish

Is it possible! Can such "bigotry and intolerance be circulated by the Standard, "without note or comment?" See how this writer propagates his "sectarian" sentiments through propasation of that paper, without rebuke. The society of Jesus is a "peculiar institution," of the Roman Catholic church, and yet the Standard allows it to be "reviled" and "denounced" in terms as decided as any we have ever employed, without a whisper of disapprohaten! But the same writer says again:

I will now proceed to discuss the temporal power of the Pope. In treating this subject I shall give the doctrine of two prominent divisions of the Romish Church; the one called the Ultramontane and the other the Gallican doctrine. The Ultramontanes contend that the Pope has temporal power, "by reason of his spiritual power;" while, er he other hand, the Gallicans contend against the spiritual power. The Hon. Joseph R. Chandler the same power, as no doubt many other Catholics as much opposed to putting Catholics in office as any of the new order; but nevertheless, I enter my protest against the sweeping crusade of the Know nothings. Moreover, I will give my support to no man bia division. she nill mete out official patronage to those who believe in the temporal power of the Pope. This faction is no doubt | War. very small in this country, and I am in hopes that it is daily growing smaller still, by degrees, and beautifully

The first of these paragraphs is perfectly fair. but the writer does not seem to know that the apresent pope is an "ultramontanist," and of course "claims" what Mr. Chandler denies .-Nor does he appear to be aware that an immense majority of the Catholic clergy, here and elsewhere, take sides with their master. But let that pass. This correspondent of the Standard " is as much opposed to putting Catholics in office as any member of the new order," and yet the Standard says nothing about "persecution" and "proscription," and trampling on the "rights" of "our Roman Catholic fellow citiwhich it appears, whilst the Post is accused of dissolved. "birotry" and "intolerance," " Know Nothingism," and "Whiggery," for the expression of such men as Judge Gaston, Chief Justice Tanev. Postmaster General Campbell, and other distinguished Catholics! Oh, shameful spirit of persecution! And besides, we would ask how the Standard could allow such an insidious to wear symbols of mourning for four weeks. "attack to be made upon the "Democratic Party" in its own columns! Et tu Brute?

We refer to the communication in the Standard, not for the purpose of censuring the writer, who seems to aim at truth, but to illustrate the difference it makes in some people when both the goring bull and the gored ox happen to be their own. "Circumstances alter cases," and the circumstance that our paper is published at a public institution, gives a character of "bigotry " and "intolerance," of Whig partyism and seciarianism, to some of its sentiments, which may pass for sound democratic doctrine in the columns of the Standard!

THE NEW POSTAGE LAW

PRE-PAYMENT OF POSTAGE. -On and after Sunday next, the 1st of April, letter postage will have to be pre-paid. Letters deposited in post offices afnot paid, will not be forwarded. This is an important matter and as in all probability, it will not be universally observed at first, some inconvenience and disappointment will, of course, be the consequence. With a view to assist in remedying the anticipated evil, and to give the new law (an excellent one, by the way,) a fair start, a correspondent of the National Intelligencer suggests the following precautions:

A NEW LINE OF STEAMERS .- Mr. Vanderbilt has resolved to commence running his line of ocean steamships at once. The pioneer of the line will be the steamship North Star, which will be remembered as the vessel in which Mr. Vanderbilt took his recent European excursion. Since her return from Europe the North Star has been running on the mail line to San Franeisco, from which line she was recently withdrawn. She will sail for Havre on the 21st April, and be "succeeded in May by the new steamship Ariel, launched on the 3d inst., and now nearly completed. Mr. Vanderbilt is also building a new steamship at Greenpoint, which will be the largest vessel of her class afloat .-The rates of freight and passage are the same as that of the other European lines. The inauguration of these new lines gives us eleven ocean steamers from New York, as follows: Collins line, between New York and Liverpool, Havre line, stopping at Cowes, New Havre line, by Vanderbilt,

THE GREAT NATURAL REMEDY INDIGESTION & DYSPEPSIA.

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN, the true DIGESTIVE FLUID, or GASTRIC JUICE, still holds the first place among all the various remedies for these painful and destructive complaints. It is Nature's own specific for an unhealthy stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers; and no sufferer from Indigestion and Dyspepsia should fall to try it.

DARLEY & LOSSING.

1855. THE SOUTHERN WEEKLY POST

ONE OF THE BEST AND CHEAPEST

FAMILY PAPERS IN THE U. STATES,

Is published every Saturday in the City of Raleigh, N C. by William D. Cooke. It will be the aim of the Pro-A COMPLETE LITERARY AND FAMILY JOUR-

Of the highest grade. The Post will be occasionally em bellished with splendid

ENGRAVINGS.

The introduction of appropriate Ilulstrations into literary papers is becoming more common and popular every day, and their useful tendency will be appreciated by all who ihave observed their power of suggesting new and pleas ng reflections to the most careless mind. None but such as are suitable to the character of the paper, and decidedornamental to it, will be used. The most cultivated intellect need not be offended by them, and many persons will derive as much pleasure from this source, as from the most interesting reading the paper can contain. The nterest and gratification of the young, especially, will be romoted by such means. Any thing that pleases their yes, finds a ready access to their hearts, and a fondness for reading may thus be produced, which will contribute nuch to their future improvement.

One of the objects contemplated by the Proprietor is to courage NATIVE TALENT, and to stimulate LITERA. RY EFFORT. The columns of the Post will therefore be reely open to contributions of a useful tendency, and such iterary merit as to justify insertion. Communications calculated to throw light upon the practical questions of he day, upon the Literary, Educational, Agricultural, Commercial, Manufacturing, and Mining interests of the ountry, will be particularly acceptable. NEWS DEPARTMENT.

Will receive special attention, and the editors will endeavor to select from as great a variety of sources as a large list of valuable exchanges can afford. A distinct head will always be reserved for items of local interest or events in the daily history of North Carolina.

Under the head of Literary Notices the reader will often find brief notices or more extensive reviews of books recently published, and it is hoped that this feature of the paper will recommend it to a large class of subscribers. In order to sustain the character of the paper and render it truly efficient in the various departments, the Proprietor has secured a corps of Editors, in whose qualifications he has entire confidence, and whose fidelity to the best interests of the country is unquestionable.

most accomplished correspondent, resident in New York, who will continue to enrich the columns of the Pos with a faithly weekly record of events in that Metropolia of the Union, and those familiar with the graphic productions of his pen will not need to be informed how much his future contributions may tend to the value and interest of its pages.
