FROM EUROPE. The last arrival from the East brings no important news. The telegraph. ic despatches of New-York, Aug. 22nd, say, that the bombardment of Sevastopol was recommenced on the 10th, but there is nothing of very great importance from the Crimea. The pres ent state of affairs, prognosticate rather unfavoraprove unsuccessful, we calculate that a proposition will be made to Jonathan by them, (the French and English,) to sell out their interest in the Crimea.

Omar Pasha has been appointed commander in chief of the army in Asia. We expect to hear a good report from him. Before the Allies interfered, the Turks were giving the Russians "bringer" in hot style, but since the reign of Canrobert, Raglan, Pellissier and others, we have hardly heard of the Turks, and Omar Pasha. The Allies went to the scene of carnage to participate in a supposed easy victory, with the advantage of victories already won by the Turks to inspire their vaunting ambition. but with the loss of th usands and thousands of France's and England's best men, only a enrolled, and these are to be divided by a number, when tried in the dividend, that will barely

There is a reported conspiracy among the "legitimists" to prevent Spain and Portugal from furnishing their promised aid to the Al-Europe, as decidedly squally, and regard the victory, which induced the Western powers to "propinqua remotissima."

We have kept our readers fully advised of towns. We have hinted at the magnanimity there would be in calling a meeting of our citizens, and raising a "relief fund;" for the benefit of the sufferers, but we are forced to say, that so far as our knowledge of it goes, not one cent has neither have the citizens been called into meeting on the subject. Washington.—The collection on Sunday, at St. Patrick's church for the benefit of the Norfolk sufferers amounted to $250. Rev. James P. Donelon, of St Matthew's church, after making temporary provision for his flock here, has, I understand, returned to the scene of suffering. Five more sisters of Charity left this morning on the same mission of mercy. It is said also that Revs. Ulysses Ward and French S. Nonfolk .- The American Organ; published at Washington, learns from Norfolk, that the epidemic now raging there is the vomito prieto or black vomit. Many persons apparently in full heath are | ries. taken suddenly while in the streets, with vomiting and unless immediately relieved, almost invariably lies. This, we think, augurs unfavorably for die. The old treatment for yellow fever has no them. We look upon the present condition of effect whatever. The African or West India treat ment alone can save the patient.

DIABOLICAL OUTRAGE BY A NEGRO. The Pittsburg Post says: We were yesterday informed of the particulars of a diabolical outrage perpetrated on a young woman on Saturday evening, a short distance below Wood's run, on the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, by a negro whose name we suppress for the present, in order not to defeat the ends of justice. The young lady resides near Kilbach, and had been in town during the day, attending market: returning at an early hour in the evening, she took the omnibus as far as Wood's run, and from there concluded to walk home, as she knew her brother was a short distance ahead, and hoped to overtake him before arriving there. She had proceeded a considerable distance, when she observed a negro following her Left hand side going South---Right hand side going North.

As the road was lonely, she became alarmed at his pertinacious persuit, and commenced running, at which the scoundred quickened his pace, and soon came upon her. He first seized her by the dress, but this tearing loose in his grasp he clutched her with both hands round the throat, and choaked her until she was almost insensible, when he threw her to the ground, with great violence, and accomplished his infamous purpose.

The poor girl was rendered completely insensible by the brutal treatment she received; when she recovered, the black villain had fled. The unfortunate victim made h r way slowly home, related her story, and the father and brother started in search of the scoundrel, but we are sorry to add did not succeed in arresting him. Since the above was in type we have received the Pittsburg Dispatch, of Friday, from which we extract the following additional particulars of the above outrageous affair:

On Wednesday Miss Singer although still in a feeble state of health resulting from the injuries which she had received at the time of the occurrence, came before Mayor Adams and described the person of her ravisher. Her description agreed so nearly with that of John Russell, the mulatto who was arrested on Sunday morning for entering Mr. McGrew's house, and afterwards confessed to the robbery of watches and money from Mr. Wertz, that Mr. Adams at once concluded that he was the man who had outraged the girl on the evening before his arrest. Miss Singer was sent to the jail with a police officer, where she at once recognized the villain, who in the utmost perturbation requested to be taken back to his cell and desired to know what the woman wanted. The youg lady was so shocked at the recognition

Farmers of the South, you have now an opportunity to secure for yourselves and families a monthly repository of the most useful information on all subjects connected with the practical management of the farm and the household, and a convenient vehicle for your thoughts and suggestions on the same subjects which you may desire to communicate to others. It is our design to fill the "Carolina Cultivator" with a variety of short, pointed, and useful selections, adapted to the seasons, culled from a large number of valuable exchanges; to invite contributions from every quarter, wherever experience may have acquired a new lesson in the art of cultivation or domestic industry; and in our editorial columns to condense such important additions to our stock of recent information as cannot be otherwise compressed into our limited pages. We will also present our readers with all the more important items of intelligence connected with the general advancement of agricultural knowledge, and endeavor in every proper way to stimulate the industry and enterprise of our fellow citizens.

The publisher of the "Carolina Cultivator" will be aided in the Editorial department of the paper, by gentlemen fully competent to make it one of the best Agricultural Papers in the country, and also by several able members of the State Agricultural Society, at whose earnest solicitation the work has been undertaken.
