

Table with subscription rates: Three Copies, Five Copies, Ten Copies, Twenty Copies.

Where sent by mail, postage is added. Postmasters are authorized to act as Agents for the Southern Weekly Post.

Mrs. H. P. DOCTRIN is our authorized Agent for the States of Arkansas, Missouri and Tennessee.

PATCH-WORK.

When parties differing widely in opinion, are induced by considerations of expediency to adopt a common expression of principle, the terms of the compromise will either be unmeaning and worthless, or embrace important conditions on one or both sides.

BARGAINING ON SUNDAY.

A Scotch paper has the following account of the mode by which business may be transacted on Sunday, and no harm done.

THE "N. C. STATE FAIR."

The Chairman of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina State Agricultural Society, in accordance with the directions of the Committee, has prepared the following preliminary notice, which we insert with pleasure.

Slavery, as a system, and in its own proper sense, is what it is described to be, in the General Assembly's Act of 1818, and in the Report of the American Board adopted at Brooklyn in 1845.

But further, if we remember aright, the language of the acts and resolves appealed to, is forcibly altered and perverted to answer the fixed purpose of the occasion.

HOSE IN THE MOON.—A rustic having gone to the Calton-hill observatory to get a sight of the moon, after having got a glass of it, drew away his head to wipe his eyes, and, in the interval, the end of the telescope, not-closely fixed down, so as, instead of pointing to the heavens, to point down to the earth.

ANOTHER "JOAN OF ARC."—A modern Joan of Arc, recently appeared at Orleans in France, but was not well received. The authorities sent her to prison, instead of to the Crimes.

in the same sentence, with equal explicitness, declare that it is sometimes not sinful! We appeal to every candid reader if such is not the plain, unmistakable interpretation of the paragraph we quoted. But what makes the matter ludicrous as well as absurd, is that the writer of the report, whilst endeavoring to constitute a parallel between slavery and war, as two moral evils belonging to the same category, evidently discovered that his parallel would be fatal to his theory, and cunningly, but awkwardly, changed the phraseology, so as, if possible, to conceal his misfortune.

We have alluded to the terms of this remarkable report, not to increase sectional feeling, but to illustrate the character of that theory in moral philosophy and Christian ethics which governs every successive step in the social movement of the Northern people.

The annual address before the Society will be held at Raleigh on Tuesday, the 16th day of October, and continue four days.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

arrangement of his affairs was not, in any sense, the offspring of mean cupidity; nor was it grounded in a principle of injustice to others. It was only a measure of prudence, the dictate of a clear judgment.

There was something so cheerful and encouraging in Mr. Lee's voice, that the lad felt his heart bound with hope. The fact was, on this very morning, the young commission merchant had received a letter from a large manufacturing establishment at the East, notifying him of a handsome consignment of goods, and promising to keep him supplied.

Mr. Lee was not one of those men whose sympathy for others grows narrower, as the dawn of a more prosperous day begins to break along a murky horizon.

The following beautiful and true sentiments are from the pen of that charming writer, Fredrika Bremer, whose observations might well become rules of life, so appropriate are they to many of its phases.

FOR THE LADIES. MARRIED LIFE. The following beautiful and true sentiments are from the pen of that charming writer, Fredrika Bremer, whose observations might well become rules of life, so appropriate are they to many of its phases.

HOME LOVE has a sweet poetry of its own, created out of the simplest materials, and haunting, more or less, the secret recesses of every human heart; or rather, it is divided into a thousand separate poems, full of individual interest, and little, quiet touches of feeling, and golden recollections, interwoven with our very being.

MAIL COACHES AND STEAM TRAINS.—Ward's them mail coaches pretty things, sir? Hon the old King's birthday, sir, when they all turned out with new arms and coaches fresh painted, and coachman and guard in new toggery, and four as beautiful bits of blood to each 'em as was to be found in England, wasn't it a sight to behold, sir? The world could show nought like it, sir.

CROSS PURPOSES. This Game is a decided improvement on conversation cards, as giving employment to a larger number of players, and being less troublesome in preparation.

HOSE IN THE MOON.—A rustic having gone to the Calton-hill observatory to get a sight of the moon, after having got a glass of it, drew away his head to wipe his eyes, and, in the interval, the end of the telescope, not-closely fixed down, so as, instead of pointing to the heavens, to point down to the earth.

ANOTHER "JOAN OF ARC."—A modern Joan of Arc, recently appeared at Orleans in France, but was not well received. The authorities sent her to prison, instead of to the Crimes.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

"I do not charge it as the fault of any one," answered Mrs. Bradford.

There was something so cheerful and encouraging in Mr. Lee's voice, that the lad felt his heart bound with hope. The fact was, on this very morning, the young commission merchant had received a letter from a large manufacturing establishment at the East, notifying him of a handsome consignment of goods, and promising to keep him supplied.

Mr. Lee was not one of those men whose sympathy for others grows narrower, as the dawn of a more prosperous day begins to break along a murky horizon.

FOR THE LADIES. MARRIED LIFE. The following beautiful and true sentiments are from the pen of that charming writer, Fredrika Bremer, whose observations might well become rules of life, so appropriate are they to many of its phases.

HOME LOVE has a sweet poetry of its own, created out of the simplest materials, and haunting, more or less, the secret recesses of every human heart; or rather, it is divided into a thousand separate poems, full of individual interest, and little, quiet touches of feeling, and golden recollections, interwoven with our very being.

MAIL COACHES AND STEAM TRAINS.—Ward's them mail coaches pretty things, sir? Hon the old King's birthday, sir, when they all turned out with new arms and coaches fresh painted, and coachman and guard in new toggery, and four as beautiful bits of blood to each 'em as was to be found in England, wasn't it a sight to behold, sir? The world could show nought like it, sir.

CROSS PURPOSES. This Game is a decided improvement on conversation cards, as giving employment to a larger number of players, and being less troublesome in preparation.

HOSE IN THE MOON.—A rustic having gone to the Calton-hill observatory to get a sight of the moon, after having got a glass of it, drew away his head to wipe his eyes, and, in the interval, the end of the telescope, not-closely fixed down, so as, instead of pointing to the heavens, to point down to the earth.

ANOTHER "JOAN OF ARC."—A modern Joan of Arc, recently appeared at Orleans in France, but was not well received. The authorities sent her to prison, instead of to the Crimes.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

feelings on the occasion would have been of a less painful character. But she was resolute. The place offered by Mr. Lee was accepted, and Edward entered his counting room, simply in obedience to his mother's wishes.

When it became known among the friends of Mrs. Bradford, that she refused to let Edward go into Mr. Gardner's store, she was severely blamed. A brother of her late husband said many harsh things to her on the subject; and some that she felt to be insulting.

Mr. Lee was not one of those men whose sympathy for others grows narrower, as the dawn of a more prosperous day begins to break along a murky horizon.

FOR THE LADIES. MARRIED LIFE. The following beautiful and true sentiments are from the pen of that charming writer, Fredrika Bremer, whose observations might well become rules of life, so appropriate are they to many of its phases.

HOME LOVE has a sweet poetry of its own, created out of the simplest materials, and haunting, more or less, the secret recesses of every human heart; or rather, it is divided into a thousand separate poems, full of individual interest, and little, quiet touches of feeling, and golden recollections, interwoven with our very being.

MAIL COACHES AND STEAM TRAINS.—Ward's them mail coaches pretty things, sir? Hon the old King's birthday, sir, when they all turned out with new arms and coaches fresh painted, and coachman and guard in new toggery, and four as beautiful bits of blood to each 'em as was to be found in England, wasn't it a sight to behold, sir? The world could show nought like it, sir.

CROSS PURPOSES. This Game is a decided improvement on conversation cards, as giving employment to a larger number of players, and being less troublesome in preparation.

HOSE IN THE MOON.—A rustic having gone to the Calton-hill observatory to get a sight of the moon, after having got a glass of it, drew away his head to wipe his eyes, and, in the interval, the end of the telescope, not-closely fixed down, so as, instead of pointing to the heavens, to point down to the earth.

ANOTHER "JOAN OF ARC."—A modern Joan of Arc, recently appeared at Orleans in France, but was not well received. The authorities sent her to prison, instead of to the Crimes.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

MISCELLANEOUS. From the Arthur's Home Magazine. PASSING THROUGH THE FIRE.

"Have you come to a decision, Mrs. Bradford?" "Yes, sir." This was meant to be firmly spoken; but there was a low tremor in the soft, sad voice of the pale young woman, in widow's weeds, who answered, that betrayed more feeling than she wished to manifest.

Mr. Lee was not one of those men whose sympathy for others grows narrower, as the dawn of a more prosperous day begins to break along a murky horizon.

FOR THE LADIES. MARRIED LIFE. The following beautiful and true sentiments are from the pen of that charming writer, Fredrika Bremer, whose observations might well become rules of life, so appropriate are they to many of its phases.

HOME LOVE has a sweet poetry of its own, created out of the simplest materials, and haunting, more or less, the secret recesses of every human heart; or rather, it is divided into a thousand separate poems, full of individual interest, and little, quiet touches of feeling, and golden recollections, interwoven with our very being.

MAIL COACHES AND STEAM TRAINS.—Ward's them mail coaches pretty things, sir? Hon the old King's birthday, sir, when they all turned out with new arms and coaches fresh painted, and coachman and guard in new toggery, and four as beautiful bits of blood to each 'em as was to be found in England, wasn't it a sight to behold, sir? The world could show nought like it, sir.

CROSS PURPOSES. This Game is a decided improvement on conversation cards, as giving employment to a larger number of players, and being less troublesome in preparation.

HOSE IN THE MOON.—A rustic having gone to the Calton-hill observatory to get a sight of the moon, after having got a glass of it, drew away his head to wipe his eyes, and, in the interval, the end of the telescope, not-closely fixed down, so as, instead of pointing to the heavens, to point down to the earth.

ANOTHER "JOAN OF ARC."—A modern Joan of Arc, recently appeared at Orleans in France, but was not well received. The authorities sent her to prison, instead of to the Crimes.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.

THE COLLEGE OF MAYNOOTH.—Those who are acquainted with the present history of British parties, are aware of a general year since, the government, for the avowed purpose of conciliating Ireland, determined upon the decided measure of endowing the college of Maynooth, a Roman Catholic institution, founded for the education of the priest-hood.