

The Daily Standard.

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

THE NORTH-CAROLINA STANDARD.

LIBERTY AND UNION, NOW AND FOREVER, ONE AND INDEMI- TABLE.

The undersigned has commenced the publication of a Daily Standard, and as soon as the mails are established the Weekly Standard will be resumed.

The undersigned believes that the character of the Standard is so well known that it is not necessary to enter upon any elaborate statement of its principles.

Advertisements: one square, each insertion, $1. May 24, 1865. W. W. HOLDEN.

RALEIGH: THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1865.

Agents for the Standard.

The following are the authorized agents of the Standard. They will receive subscriptions for the paper, and transmit the same promptly and safely.

We appeal to our friends to exert themselves, in order to extend the influence and circulation of the Daily Standard.

Julius B. Whitaker, Goldsboro, N. C.; Walter Dunn, Jr., Kinston, N. C.; Jas. M. Harrison, Newbern, N. C.; Geo. S. Campbell, Beaufort, N. C.

We are not authorized by the authorities to make any statements on the subject, but we think it probable that in a short time steps will be taken to call a Convention of the people of the State.

The new Legislature will most probably assemble in August or September, the new Governor will be inaugurated when the Legislature meets; and that body will then elect two Senators to Congress, and dispatch other business of a legislative character.

We take it for granted that every voter and every candidate for office will be required to take the oath of allegiance to the government of the United States.

We learn that the friends of the Union in Pasquotank County are anxious that G. W. Brooks, Esq., should represent them in the proposed State Convention.

We are receiving many letters from friends which we regret we cannot find time to reply to. They must "take the will for the deed."

We had the pleasure of meeting in the City, during the past few days, Dr. Caldwell, Mr. H. H. Burke, Lewis Hanes, of Davidson, Maj. W. H. Bagley, of Pasquotank, Dr. Eugene Grissom, Col. L. C. Edwards, and R. A. Jenkins, Esq., of Granville, Jas. S. Harrington, Esq., of Harnett, and Calvin J. Rogers, Esq., of Wake.

The Wharves.—Since the occupation of our city by our army, among the many changes that have taken place there is more observable than the change in the appearance of our wharves and docks.

The Constitutional Amendment.

Twenty States have ratified the Amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery. There is no doubt that the Legislatures of Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Iowa, Oregon, and California, will ratify this important measure as soon as the opportunity is offered.

The above is from the Baltimore American. We take it for granted that the new Legislature of North-Carolina, to be elected in the course of a few months, will concur in the Constitutional Amendment, and thus make the twenty-seventh State, thus abolishing slavery forever in the United States.

President Johnson and his Policy.—The demands of a great revolution.

Here we have the initial landmarks of a bold, decisive policy, recognizing the demands of a great revolution. This is good; for this tremendous war has wrought in four years the revolutionary changes which have never before been witnessed.

Union Meeting in Lenoir.

Pursuant to previous notice, a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Union citizens of Lenoir County, was held at the Court House in Kinston, on Thursday, April 27th.

On motion of H. R. Strong, the meeting was organized by the appointment of Pinkney Hardee, Esq., Chairman, and John H. Coward and W. Dunn, Jr., Secretaries.

Resolved, That we are in favor of a speedy return to the protection and support of that Union of which, for a time, we have been deprived by the ever dangerous, mischievous, and now exploded dogma of secession; and we would hail with acclamations of joy a return of peace, and a reunion with that government under which we so long enjoyed unappreciated prosperity and happiness, and which is the only hope of our country.

THE FUTURE OF THE SOUTH.

While political passions argue the sphere and the Government, less ambitious people require a path which leads to social and sublime results. It would be of the highest importance to the South to have the State should be centered in security as positive welfare.

The South alone shows motion without progress, government without its benefits, and the only assignable cause is slavery. In vain we look for other reasons—they do not exist.

North-Carolina and Virginia are evidences of the emanculating influence of slavery. The Old Dominion, as long ago as 1830, in recognition of our assertion, was on the eve of emancipation; but honest predictions, for a venerable barbarism, seconded by fanaticism, defeated the grand enterprise.

By the President: J. W. HUNTER, Acting Secretary of State.

"THE OLD NORTH STATE."

For the Standard. BY LIEUT. EUGENE SCOTT.

Now let us fill our glasses high with old and golden wine, and drink to those who ever sleep beneath the forest pine.

A DORM OCCUPY.—In the village of Antignone, Arenala, and Duo Porto, which stands on the same hill, in the Province of Naples, says the Nazoine, of Florence, reside about thirty men and women, who from a singular religious fanaticism have made a vow never to speak.

PROVOST MARCHAL.

All officers and enlisted men formerly belonging to the Confederate Army, now in this city, whose homes are elsewhere, (except those sick or wounded and their attendants), will immediately report to this office and procure necessary passes to enable them to go at once to their homes, unless they come under provisions of Circular dated Headquarters, Dept. N. C., Raleigh, N. C., May 4th, 1865.

LETTER FROM PARIS.

Paris, Friday, April 21, 1865. As I sit down to write a telegram to hand, dated the 8th inst., to the effect that Gen. Grant is convinced that Lee and his army must soon surrender. May this conviction soon be confirmed, and may no further details of slaughter, now so evidently and utterly useless, arrive to cloud the bright opening prospects of the future.

THE PROCLAMATION.

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Whereas, it appears from evidence in the Bureau of Military Justice, that the atrocious murder of the late President, Abraham Lincoln, and the attempted assassination of the Hon. Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State, were incited, concerted and procured by and between Jefferson Davis, late of Richmond, Va., and Jacob Thompson, Clement C. Clay, Beverly Tucker, George M. Sanders, W. C. Cleary, and other rebels and traitors against the government of the United States, harbored in Canada:

One hundred thousand dollars for the arrest of Jefferson Davis. Twenty-five thousand dollars for the arrest of Clement C. Clay.

Twenty-five thousand dollars for the arrest of Jacob Thompson, late of Mississippi. Twenty-five thousand dollars for the arrest of George N. Sanders.

Twenty-five thousand dollars for the arrest of Beverly Tucker, and Ten thousand dollars for the arrest of William C. Cleary, late clerk of Clement C. Clay.

WASHINGTON, WOODS, and BLANCHARD LARSEN.—The following mixture for dye purposes has recently been patented in Belgium.

O. S. BALDWIN.

Office with SHAFER, WHITFORD & CO., FASHIONABLE CLOTHIERS, 331 Broadway, (2nd Floor), NEW YORK.

UNION MEETING IN RALEIGH.

UNION MEETING IN GOLDSBORO.

LOST.

FRONT STREET HOUSE, BEAUFORT, N. C.

HELMHOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATION.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

SECRET DISEASES.

MARRIED.

DIED.

UNION MEETING IN RALEIGH.

UNION MEETING IN GOLDSBORO.

LOST.

FRONT STREET HOUSE, BEAUFORT, N. C.

HELMHOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATION.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

SECRET DISEASES.

MARRIED.

DIED.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.