RULES AND REGULATIONS

Concerning Commercial Intercourse with Insurrectionary States. EXECUTIVE ORDER.

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
Washington, April 29, 1865.
Being desirous to relieve all loyal citizens and well-dis-Being desirous to relieve all loyal citizens and well-disposed persons residing in insurrectionary States from unnecessary commercial restrictions, and to encourage them to return to peaceful pursuits, it is hereby ordered:

I. That all restrictions upon internal, domestic, and coastwise commercial intercourse be discontinued in such parts of the States of Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabmas, Mississippi, and so much of Louisiana as lies east the Mississippi river, as shall be embraced within the lines of national military occupation, excepting only such restrictions as are imposed by acts of Congress and regulations in pursuance thereof, prescribed by the Seretary of the Treasury, and approved by the President; and excepting also from the effect of this order the following articles contraband of war, to-wit: Arms, ammunition, all articles from which ammunition is manufactured, gray uniforms and cloth, locomotives, cars, manufactured, gray uniforms and cloth, locomotives, cars, railroad iron, and machinery for operating railroads, telegraph wires, insulators, and instruments for operating telegraphic lines.

II. That all existing military and paval orders in any manner restricting interpal, domestic, and constwise com-mercial intercourse and trade with or in the localities above named be, and the same are hereby, revoked; and that no military or naval officer, in any manner, interrupt or interfere with the same, or with any boats or other vessels engaged therein, under proper authority, pursuant to the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

RULES AND REGULATIONS, Concerning Commercial Intercourse with and in

Insurrectionary States. TREASURY DEPARTMENT, May 9, 1865. With a view of carrying out the purposes of the Executive, as expressed in his executive order, bearing date April 29th, 1865, "to relieve all loyal citizens and well-April 29th, 1865, "to relieve all loyal citizens and well-disposed persons residing in insurrectionary States from unnecessary sommercial restrictions, and to encourage them to return to peaceful pursuits," the following regulations are prescribed, and will hereafter govern commercial intercourse in and between the States of Tennessee, Virginia, North-Carolina, South-Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana east of the Mississippi river, heretofore declared in insurrection, and the loyal States:

All commercial transactions under these regulations shall be conducted under the supervision of officers of the customs, and others acting as officers of the customs.

II. PROBIBITED ARTICLES

The following articles are prohibited, and none such will be allowed to be transported to or within any State heretofore declared in insurrection, except on Government account, viz: Arms, ammunition, all articles from which ammunition is manufactured, gray uniforms and cloth, locomotives, cars, railroad iron, and machinery for operating railroads, telegraph wires, insulators, and instruments for operating telegraph lines.

III. AMOUNTS OF PRODUCTS ALLOWED, AND PLACES TO WHICH SUCH MAY BE TRANSPORTED. It having been determined and agreed upon by the pro-per officers of the War and Treasury Departments, in accordance with the requirements of section 9 of the act of July 2, 1864, that the amount of goods required to supply the necessities of loyal persons residing in insurrectionary States, within the military lines of the United States States, within the military lines of the United States forces shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the applications therefor, and that the places to which such goods may be taken shall be, all places within such lines that may be named in the several applications for transportation thereto, it is therefore directed that clearance shall be granted, upon application, by any loval person or party; for all goods and merchandise not prohibited, in such amounts, and to such places which, under the revenue and collection laws of the United States, have been created norts of entry and delivery in the constraint rade as the ports of entry and delivery in the coastwise trade, as the applicant may desire.

IV. CLEARANCE.

Before any vessel shall be cleared for any port within the insurrectionary States, or from one port to another therein, or from any such ports to a port in the loyal States, the master of every such vessel shall present to the proper officer of customs, or other officer acting as such, a manifest of her curgo, which manifest shall set forth the character of the merchandise composing said cargo, and, if showing no prohibited articles shall be certified by such officer of the customs. V. ARRIVAL AND DISCHARGE OF CARGO IN AN INSUREREC-

On the arrival of any such vessel at the port of destination, it shall be the duty of the master thereof forth with to present to the proper officer of the customs the certi-fied manifest of her cargo; whereupon the officer shall cause the vessel to be discharged under his general super-vision; and, if the cargo is found to correspond with the manifest, a certificate to the effect shall be given to said If there shall be found on board any prohibited articles, such articles shall be seized and held subject to the orders of the Secretary of the Treasury; and the officer shall forthwith report to the Department all the facts of the case; and any such vessel arriving from any foreign port or from any domestic port without a proper clearance, or with contraband articles on board, shall, with the cargo, be seized and held as subject to confiscation under the laws of the United States. VI. LADING WITHIN AND DEPARTURE FROM AN INSURREC-TIONARY STATE.

Vessels in ports within an insurrectionary State, not declared by proclamation open to the commerce of the world, shall be laden under the supervision of the proper officer of this Department, whose duty it shall be to require, before any articles are allowed to be shipped, satisfactory evidence that upon all merchandise so shipped the taxes and fees required by law and these regulations have been paid or secured to be paid, which fact, with the amount so paid, shall be certified upon the manifest before clearance shall be granted; and if, upon any articles so shipped, the fees and internal revenue taxes, or either shall only have been secured to be paid, such fact shall be noted upon the manifest, and the proper officer at the port of destination of such vessel shall hold the goods until all such taxes and fees shall be paid according to law and these regulations.

VII. SUPPLY STORES. Persons desiring to keep a supply store at any place within an insurrectionary State shall make application therefor to the nearest officer of the Treasury Department, which application shall set forth that the applicant is loyal to the Government of the United States; and upon filing evidence of such loyalty a license for such supply store shall forthwith be granted; and the person to whom the license is given shall be authorized to purchase goods at any other supply store within the insurrectionary States, or at such other point in the United States as he may

The party receiving such license shall pay therefor the license fee prescribed by the internal revenue law. VIII. EXCEPTED ARTICLES.

All articles of local production and consumption, such as fresh vegetables, fruits, butter, ice, eggs, fresh meat, wood, coal, &c., &a, may, without fee or restriction, be freely transported and sold at such points within an insurrectionary State as the owner thereof may desire. IX. SHIPMENT OF PRODUCTS OF AN INSURBECTIONARY STATE. All cotton not produced by persons with their own labor, or with the labor of freedmen or others employed and paid by them, must, before shipment to any port or place in a loyal State, be sold to and resold by an officer of the Government specially appointed for the purpose, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury and approved by the President; and, before allowing any and approved by the Fresident; and, before allowing aby cotton or other product to be shipped or granting clearance for any vessel, the proper customs officer, or other person acting as such, must require from the purchasing Agent or the internal revenue officer a certificate that the cotton proposed to be shipped has been resold by him, or that twenty-five per cent. of the value thereof has been paid to such purchasing Agent in money, and that the cotton is thereby free from further fee or tax. If the cotton proposed to be shipped is claimed and proved to be ton proposed to be shipped is claimed and proved to be the product of a person's own labor or of freedmen or others employed and paid by them, the officer will require that the shipping fee of three ceats per pound shall be paid or secured to be paid thereon.

If any product other than cotton is offered for shipment the certificate of the internal revenue officer, that all internal taxes due thereon have been collected and paid, must be produced prior to such products being shipped or cleared; and if there is no internal revenue officer, then such taxes shall be collected by the customs officer, or be shall cause the same to be secured to be paid as provided in these regulations. X. INLAND TRANSPORTATION.

The provisions of these regulations, necessarily modified, shall be considered applicable to all shipments inland to or within insurrectionary States by any means of transportation whatsoever. XL. CHARGES.

Goods not prohibited may be transported to insurrectionary States free.

The charges upon all products shipped or transported from an insurrectionary State, other than upon cotton, shall be the charges prescribed by the internal revenue faws. Upon cutton, other than that purchased and resold by the Government, three cents per pound, which must be credited by the officer collecting, as follows, viz: two cents per pound as the shipping fee. All cotton purchased and resold by the Government shall be allowed to be transported free from all fees and taxes whatsoever.

Full and complete accounts and records must be kept, by all officers acting under these regulations, of their

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New Pork

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellence of HARPER's MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each Number contains fully 144 mages of reading matter. pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the racy mouthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TRUBNER'S

Guide to American Literature, London.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice. - Boston Courser. SUBSCRIPTIONS.
