THE DAILY RALEIGH RECORD. THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING OBTAINED THE L necessarv permit from the Military authorities, pro-pose to publish in the City of Raleigh a daily newspaper to be called the RALEIGH RECORD.

This paper will contain a record of the important events

III. AMOUNTS OF PRODUCTS ALLOWED, AND PLACES TO WHICH SUCH MAY BE THANSPORTED.

ing reilroads, telegraph wires, insulators, and instruments for operating telegraph lines.

It having been determined and agreed upon by the proper officers of the War and Treasury Departments, in accordance with the requirements of section 9 of the act of July 2, 1844, that the amount of goods required to supply the necessities of loyal persons residing in insurrectionary States, within the military lines of the United States forces, shall be an amount equal to the aggregate of the applications therefor, and that the places to which such goods may be taken shall be, all places within such lines that may be named in the several applications for transportation thereto, It is therefore directed that clearance shall be granted, upon application, by any loyal person or party, for all goods and merchandise not prohibited, in such amounts, and to such places which, under the revenue and collection laws of the United States, have been created ports of entry and delivery in the coastwise trade, as the applicant may desire.

. IV. CLEARANCE. Before any vessel shall be cleared for any port within the insurrectionary States, or from one port to another therein, or from any such ports to a port in the loyal States, the master of every such vessel shall present to the proper officer of customs, or other officer acting as such, a manifest of her cargo, which manifest shall set forth the character of the merchandise composing said cargo, and, if showing no prohibited articles shall be certified by such officer of the customs. V. ARRIVAL AND DISCHARGE OF CARGO IN AN INSURREC-

TIONART STATE. On the arrival of any such vessel at the port of destination, it shall be the duty of the master thereof forthwith to present to the proper officer of the customs the certified manifest of her cargo; whereupon the officer shall cause the vessel to be discharged under his general supervision ; and, if the cargo is found to correspond with the manifest, a certificate to the effect shall be given to said master.

If there shall be found on board any prohibited articles, such articles shall be seized and held subject to the orders of the Secretary of the Treasury; and the officer shall forthwith report to the Department all the facts of the case; and any such vessel arriving from any foreign port or from any domestic port without a proper clearance, or with contraband articles on board, shall, with the cargo, be seized and held as subject to confiscation under the laws of the United States.

VI. LADING WITHIN AND DEPARTURE FROM AN INSURREC-TIONARY, STATE.

Vessels in ports within an insurrectionary State, not declared by proclamation open to the commerce of the world, shall be laden under the supervision of the propen officer of this Department, whose duty it shall be to re-quire, before any articles are allowed to be shipped, satisfactory evidence that upon all merchandise so shipped the taxes and fees required by law and these regulations have been paid or secured to be paid, which fact, with the amount so paid, shall be certified upon the manifest before clearance shall be granted; and if, upon any articles so shipped the fees and internal revenue taxes, or either shall only have been secured to be paid, such fact shall be noted upon the manifest, and the proper officer at the port of destination of such vessel shall hold the goods until all such taxes and fees shall be paid according to law and these regulations.

VII. SUPPLY STORES.

Persons desiring to keep a supply store at any place within an insurrectionary State shall make application therefor to the nearest officer of the Treasury Department, which application shall set forth that the applicant is loyal to the Government of the United States; and upon filing evidence of such loyalty a license for such supply store shall forthwith be granted; and the person to whom the license is given shall be authorized to purchase goods at any other supply store within the insurrectionary States, or at such other point in the United States as he may The party receiving such license shall pay therefor the license fee prescribed by the internal revenue law.

VIII. EXCEPTED ARTICLES. All articles of local production and consumption, such as fresh vegetables, fruits, butter, ice, eggs, fresh meat, wood, coal, &c., &c., may, without fee or restriction, be freely transported and sold at such points within an insurrectionary State as the owner thereof may desire.

IX. SEIPMENT OF PRODUCTS OF AN INSURRECTIONARY STATE.

All cotton not produced by persons with their own labor, or with the labor of freedmen or others employed and paid by them, must, before shipment to any port or place in a loyal State. be sold to and resold by an officer o Government specially appointed for the purpose, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury and approved by the President; and, before allowing any and approved by the President; and, before allowing any cotton or other product to be shipped or granting clear-ance for any vessel, the proper customs officer, or other person acting as such, must require from the purchasing Agent or the internal revenue officer a certificate that the cotton proposed to be shipped has been resold by him; or that twenty-five per cent of the value thereof has been paid to cuch purchasing Agent in money and that the paid to such purchasing Agent in money, and that the cotton is thereby free from further fee or tax. If the coted to be shipped is claimed an the product of a person's own labor or of freedmen or others employed and paid by them, the officer will require that the shipping fee of three cents per pound shall be paid or secured to be paid thereon. If any product other than cotton is offered for shipment the certificate of the internal revenue officer, that all in-ternal taxes due thereon have been collected and paid, must be produced prior to such products being shipped or eleared; and if there is no internal revenue officer, then such taxes shall be collected by the customs officer, or he shall cause the same to be secured to be paid as provided in these regulations.

CAPITAL OF NORTH-CAROLINA

AVING DETERMINED TO REMAIN IN RALEIGH and make the Progress one of the permanent fixtures of the Capital of the State, we appeal to our friends throughout the State to exert themselves to extend its circulation.

Bastiles, Prisons and Courts of Star Chamber having been abolished by the Union armies, and the old Flag having been again unfurled on the Capitol of our good old State never again to be lowered by treason, the people can read those papers that advocate their principles and ex-press their own sentiments without the fear of the rack or the stake; and it is our determination to make THE PROuness worthy the confidence of the intelligent masses.

We have associated with us in the Editorial management of the paper gentlemen of experience and of acknowledged talent and ability, and we shall spare neither labor or exnense to render the paper worthy of the Capital of the State and a welcome visitor in every loyal family.

Though it is our determination to make the PROGRESS a live newspaper we shall not ignore those great questions that so deeply affect our immediate future and which must be speedily acted upon and settled. We shall give to the Administration of President Johnson an active and zealous support, and whatever of power or influence we may possess to restore harmony, peace and prosperity to our native State. We love the Union, we love North-Carolina, and all our energies and whatever of talent we may possess, or shall be able to command in the management of the paper shall be employed for the preservation of the one and to increase the prosperity of the other. In the management of our publications we shall know no North, no South, no East, no West, but will labor earnestly and continually for the welfare of our whole country.

THE WEEKLY PROGRESS,

The publication of which has been interrupted by the derangement of the mails, will be resumed immediately, and we make an earnest appeal to our friends to exert them-selves in extending its circulation.
