

PROSPECTUSES. REAL ESTATE AGENCY. NORTH-CAROLINA ADVERTISER.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE ESTABLISHED in the City of Raleigh, an Agency for the purpose of buying and selling Real Estate in North Carolina. In carrying out this business, which will be devoted to the sale of real estate, we will publish a list of about twenty-four columns weekly newspaper, which will be advertised, free of cost, all lands offered for sale through their agency, and which will be devoted to the dissemination of information concerning the agricultural, mineral, manufacturing, and other resources of the State. By means of competent Agents in every County, they will show the present, advanced and special capabilities for future development of each.

It will be found, on investigation, that no State in the Union has so much of the mineral resources of Virginia as North Carolina. Situated midway between the colder regions of the North and the more tropical climes of the South, its lands stretching from the sea coast to the mountains, yield abundant returns in cotton, tobacco, rice, grain, fruits, pastures, grapes and other products, while in its bosom lie rich veins of gold and iron, copper, lead, coal and other minerals. Its rich soil, its fertile hills sufficient for the most extensive agriculture, and in its forests are boundless supplies of naval stores, lumber and material for tanning. Under the present changes in the system of labor it becomes a profitable investment to part with a portion of its real estate, and it is the object of this enterprise, through agents in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, and other cities, to bring these abundant resources of the State to the notice of men of energy and capital, to get together the seller and the buyer, and to aid in carrying North Carolina in a profitable and successful manner.

The Advertiser will be furnished free of charge to all customers, and to others at one dollar per annum. The first number will be issued by the first of July, or soon after, if the type and necessary material already ordered, can be procured from New York before that time. Those desiring to advertise in the first number will please send their names and the nature of the advertisements to the publishers, who will be charged where sales are made.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 46. The following regulations published by the government of Freedom in North Carolina, until the restoration of civil government in the State: I. The common laws governing the domestic relations, such as marriage, divorce, and other matters, shall remain in force until the restoration of civil government in the State. II. The former masters are constituted the guardians of minors and of the aged and infirm, in the absence of parents or other near relatives capable of supporting them. III. Young men and women, under twenty-one years of age, remain under the control of their parents or guardians until they become of age, this aiding to support their parents and younger brothers and sisters. IV. The former masters of freedmen may not turn away from the person of the infirm, nor refuse to give them food and shelter, nor may they sell, or give away, or otherwise dispose of their real or personal property, or their slaves, children, or young brothers and sisters to be supported by others. V. Persons who are free from any of the obligations referred to above, are at liberty to find new homes wherever they can obtain proper employment; but they will not be supported by the government, nor by their former masters, unless they work. VI. It will be left to the employer and servant to agree upon the wages to be paid; but freedmen are advised that the present price of labor is not to exceed one dollar per week, and where their employers cannot pay them money, they ought to be contented with a fair share in the crops and other produce of the soil, and where they are employed by industry and good conduct they may rise to independence and even wealth. VII. All freedmen and citizens are requested to give publicity to these rules, and to instruct the freed people as to their new rights and obligations. VIII. All officers of the Army, and of the county police, are authorized and required to correct any violation of the above rules within their jurisdiction. IX. Each District Commander will appoint a superintendent of freedmen (a commissioned officer), with such number of assistants (officers and non-commissioned officers) as may be necessary, whose duty it will be to take charge of all the freed people in his District, who are without homes or proper employment.
