George Howard, of Edgecombe; Hon. R. P. Dick, of Guilford; W. S. Henrshan, of Pitt; Robert W. Ward, of Rockingham; Samuel H. Walkup, of Union, and W H. Harrison, of Wake. [The reporter has learned that Messrs. Howard, Dick, and Harrison, are detained at their respective homes by illness.]

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, Mr. Jno R Harrison, a Justice of the Peace for the County of Wake, was requested to administer to the delegates present the oath to support the constitution of the United States.

The delegates having been qualified, Hon. Nath'l. Borden nominated as President of the Convention, Hon Edwin G. Reade, of Person County, who was elected by acclamation.

The chairman requested Hons N. Boyden and Alfred Dockery to conduct the President elect to the chair.

On taking the Chair, Mr. READE said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION:—As the representatives of the people of North-Carolina we are assembled at a time of great perplexity to reorganize the government, which has been disturbed by a protracted and disastrous war.

It is gratifying to know that a virtuous and intelligent people have chosen a body of men distinguished for abilities, of much experience, and of exalted patriotism—fully equal to the grave matters which are entrusted to them.

As the interests of our constituents are the same, it is to be hoped that there will be little conflict of opinions among us, and that frank speech and courteous manners will distinguish our intercourse; so that he who has been called to preside over our deliberations will find but little inconvenience from his lack of experience, and will be enabled to use the position with which he has been honored, as he earnestly desires to do, for its legitimate objects only.

Fellow-citizens, we are going home. Let painful reflections upon our late separation, and pleasant memories of our early union, quicken our footsteps towards the old mansion, that we may grasp hard again the hand of Friendship which stands at the door; and, sheltered by the old homestead, which was built upon a rock and has weathered the storm, enjoy together the long bright future which awaits us.

With the guidance of Infinite Wisdom, and the care of a merciful Providence, which I earnestly invoke for the Convention, and for each individual member, I invite you to the calm consideration and wise solution of the important questions which are to result in the peace, prosperity and happiness of ourselves and of posterity, and of the strength and grandeur of our nation.

On motion of Mr. Caldwell of Burke, the Convention proceeded to elect a Principal Clerk. Mr. Moore of Wake, nominated Mr. James H. Moore of Mecklenburg County, who was unanimously elected.

On motion of Mr. Caldwell of Burke, the Convention proceeded to elect an Assistant Clerk.

Mr. Caldwell of Burke, nominated Mr. Richard C. Badger, of Wake County

Hon. Bedford Brown of Caswell said that he had seen in the North Carolina Standard an announcement of Bedford Brown, Jr., as candidate for the Assistant Clerkship of the Convention. His son had not authorized this announcement, and was not a candidate for any office in the gift of the Convention.

Mr. Caldwell of Burke, said there was a gentleman of the same name in Henderson County.

Mr. Caldwell of Guilford, remarked that there was yet another of the name residing in Guilford, but he did not know whether he was a candidate or not.

Mr. Badger was unanimously elected.

On motion of Mr. Grissom, the Convention proceeded to the election of principal door keeper.

Mr. Grissom nominated Patrick McGowan, of Wake.

Mr. Starbuck nominated H. B. Kinsbury, of Stokes.

Mr Moore of Wake, nominated Mark M. Williams, of Wake.

Mr Kingsbury was elected by the following vote: Kingsbury, 74; Williams, 18; McGowan, 14.

Mr. Moore of Wake, nominated for Assistant Door keeper, Peyton P. Williams, of Wake County.

Mr. McCleese nominated John H. Hill, of Randolph. Mr. Hill was elected, receiving 87 votes; Mr. Williams receiving 10 votes.

On motion of Mr. Moore of Wake, the Convention next proceeded to elect an Enrolling Clerk.

Mr Moore of Wake, nominated Mr. Theo. H. Hill, of Wake County.

Mr. Caldwell of Burke, nominated Mr. J. W. Bowman, of Yancey.

Mr. Wright nominated Mr. Thos. S. Kenan, of Duplin

The ballot resulted in the election of Mr Hill. Mr Hill received 55 votes; Mr. Bowman, 21; Mr. Kenan, 19.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, the Convention next elected Printers to the Convention. He nominated Messrs Cannon & Holden, of the Standard office, who were unanimously elected.

Mr Mebane moved that a committee of five be appointed to prepare rules of order for the government of the Convention.

Mr Winston suggested that the number be increased to nine.

Mr. Eaton thought that seven would be the proper number, similar committees heretofore having been thus constituted.

Mr. Mebane consented to this modification of his motion.

Mr. Manly moved to amend the motion by providing that, until the committee reported, the Convention be governed by the rules of the last Convention.

Some desultory discussion ensued as to whether the rules of order adopted by the Convention of 1861, or those of the Convention of 1835, should be used temporarily.

Mr. Manly said that he only preferred those of the late Convention because they had been carefully prepared under the supervision of Judge Badger, and appeared to him to be better adapted than the former for the government of a legislative body.

Mr. Settle suggested that the committee could have both setts of rules before them, and could easily report by noon to-morrow. He preferred Mr. Mebane's motion as modified at the instance of Mr. Eaton. The question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Manly, it was rejected.

Mr. Mebane's motion was then adopted, pursuant to which, the President appointed Messrs Mebane, Thompson, Boyden, Gilliam, Phillips, Manly and Winston.

Mr. Winston introduced the following resolutions which, at his instance, lies over until to-morrow:

"Resolved, That a committee of nine be appointed, whose duty it shall be to report the subject matters proper for the action of the Convention, and the number of committees necessary for the proper disposition of the same."

Mr. McGehee introduced the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the President of the Convention extend an invitation to the clergy of the city of Raleigh, to officiate in succession as chaplains to the Convention."

Mr. Mebane moved its reference to the committee appointed to prepare rules of order.

The Convention refused to refer, and the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait on His Excellency, the Governor, to announce the organization of the Convention, and its readiness to receive any communication he may wish to make.

The motion was agreed to, and the President appointed as said committee Messrs. Caldwell, of Burke, Eaton and Pool.

The Convention then adjourned until 10 o'clock, A. M., to-morrow.

REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

NORTH CAROLINA ADVERTISER.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE ESTABLISHED IN the City of Raleigh an Agency for the purpose of buying and selling Real Estate in North Carolina. In connection therewith, and as auxiliary thereto, they will publish a double sheet twenty-four column weekly newspaper, wherein will be advertised, free of cost, all lands offered for sale through their agency, and which will be devoted to the dissemination of information concerning the agricultural, mineral, manufacturing, and other resources of the State. By means of competent Agents in every County they will show the present advancement and special capabilities for future development of each.

It will be found, on investigation, that no State in the Union can present such a combination of advantages as North Carolina. Situated midway between the colder regions of the North and the more tropical climes of the South, its lands stretching from the sea coast to the mountains, yield bountiful returns of cotton, tobacco, rice, grain, fruits, pasturage, grapes and other products, while in its bosom lie rich mines of gold and iron copper, lead, coal, and other minerals, its rivers afford water power sufficient for the most extensive factories, and in its forests are boundless supplies of naval stores, timber and material for tanning. Under the recent change in the system of labor it becomes the interest of proprietors to part with a portion of their real estate, and it is the object of this enterprise, through agencies in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, and other chief cities, to bring these abundant resources of the State to the notice of men of energy and capital, to get together the seller and the buyer, and to aid in starting North Carolina in a career of prosperity heretofore unknown.

The ADVERTISER will be furnished free of charge to all customers, and to others at one dollar per annum. The first number will be issued by the first of July, or sooner, if the type and necessary material already ordered, can be procured from New York before that time. Those desirous to advertise in the first number will please communicate to the undersigned at once. Moderate commissions will be charged where sales are made.

DAVIS, DRAKE & Co.,

for the purpose of conducting a Wholesale and Retail Dry Goods Business, and have taken the store No. 14 Sycamore Street, for many years occupied by Geo. H. Davis, where they will be prepared to exhibit, about 5th of September, a large and varied assortment of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS. They respectfully ask from their friends and the public generally, that liberal patronage so long extended to the old firms of

M. M. DAVIS & CO., and GEO. H. DAVIS.

Their long experience in the Dry Goods Business in this city, their perfect acquaintance with the wants of the Virginia and North Carolina Trade, and their superior facilities for obtaining goods, justify them in saying they will be enabled to offer inducements to purchasers unequalled by any house in the city.

WHOLESALE BUYERS

Are particularly requested to examine our stock, as we are determined to offer them Goods as low as they can be bought in the South.
