LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY, LARGEST CIR-CULATION IN THE STATE

PROCLAMATION, BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN. PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR.

PEOPLE OF NORTH-CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North-Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union s republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional reations to the Federal Government, by presenting such s republican form of government as will entitle the State. to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion. psurrection, and domestic violence : And said Convention baving assembled in the City of Baleigh, and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare, that an election will be held in the various Counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November 1865, as follows : 1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North-Carolina." 3d. For a Governor and members of the General As-

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective Counties. The elections shall be conducted in accordance with An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened onthe fourth and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sivty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualification of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1841.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the federal government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North-Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy. And the officers in the various Counties, appointed by the l'rovisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestations there should be, of hostility to the federal government, is promptly rebuked and
