LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY, LARGEST CIR-CULATION IN THE STATE.

RALEIGH: Friday, November 17, 1865.

The Sentinel is trying to crawfish out of its present position in opposition to Gov. Holden's administration and President Johnson's policy. For the sake of office the Sentinel and its supporters flung themselves in opposition to the policy of the President, and have stirred up strife and prevented the return of the State. It is just what traitors might have been expected to do, and whatever their professions may be they have done the traitos'r work. This is the plain English. We intend to hold them

Six months ago there was not one word of opposition; four months ago the Sentinel did not " peep" even about opposition, but now men are vieing with each other in the work of stirring up strife, hindering the Provisional Governor in his work, and raking up old Confederate issues. This is the plain, unmistakable work of traitors-unpardoned, virulent, traitors.

We are not injuring the State or any one in stating this fact. We are doing a duty to expose it. We did not seek the revival of their treasonable sentiments, or an issue with any one. We have been glad to believe at times that all was peace. But now they themselves have torn the veil away. They themselves have brought this whole thing about. By plotting darkly, by exciting discontent and urging unpardoned men to become candidates in defiance of the wishes and instructions of President Johnson, they have drawn the line of demarce. tion. They have placed themselves at the head of the discontented, the unpardoned and the unconquered. Their work has been that which might have been expected from traitors, and such they

We told them that they could not get back into the Union, pursuing the path they took. Of what avail was that? They laughed it to scorn. They do not wish to get back into the Union under Union men. They hate the Yankees still. It has been no love feast to them, and as the work of reconstruction has gone on, they have more and more plainly showed their real feelings. It is a delight to them to retard the work of reconstruction carried on by loyal men. If they are to go back at all, they wish to go back as they left, under secession leaders. For this purpose they have exerted every energy. They have stirred up strife, brought out unpardoned traitors for Congress, raked up old issues of every sort, established treasonable papers, opposed men because of their radical Union sentiments, denounced the Provisional Governor as a Southern traitor, or a Union traitor, as it pleased their purpose, opposed the ordinance nullifying secession, voted for the rejection of the ordinance abolishing slavery, &c., &c., for the purpose of getting control themselves, at the expense of the Union men of the State. They would crush these Union men into the ground to-day, had they the power. They would murder, burn and hang as before. The old leaven is still alive in their hearts. They are yet

These men are better off bating some things than they were even during the war. They are infinite. ly better off than our Union people were at that time, who were conscripted, dragged to camp, browbeaten, insulted and denounced. This is owing to the clemency and kindness of the general government. Notwithstanding their stereotyped phrases during the war that the yankee rule would render the South a hell, that death was preferable, that President Lincoln was a baboon and Andrew Johnson a brute, nothwithstanding these things, they are to-day living monuments of the kindness and magnanimity of President Johnson and the yankee government. Do they think, therefore, that when they begin political intrigues again, when they publicly denounce the Provisional Governor, incite opposition to all loyal movements, vote down men because of their radical Unionism, that they can hide behind the flimsy pretext of their new pledged loyalty merely, and be safe? Our people are too well acquainted with their old tricks and old professions to fail to understand and properly appreciate these new movements on their part. It is the same old leaven. All its works show it plainly. It is the leaven of treason.

Now let the Union men meet them boldly. When they begin to crow of their patriotism and love for the Union, and denounce this loyal man and that Ployal man to praise this traitor and that traitor, why put them down with those traitors.

Would you expect them to stand on the street corners and openly denounce the general government and the President? Rather, would you not expect them to be profuse in expressions of love for the above named. It is not their purpose now to do this thing, yet were the hand of power off them they would do it. They have gone just as far as they think they are safe in going. They preach charity, magnanimity and kindness, yet the very first chance they have had, they have attempted to strike down the Provisional Governor and regain control of affairs. Good God, do you expect that we will not interpret facts by the light of experience! This was their old method, their sly, hypocritical way of doing things .-Praying for a cause, in whose ultimate success the Editor of the Sentinel himself will confess that he had no faith, they preached its holiness and inwoked the blessings of God upon it. Now these men turn around, and pleading for magnanimity, moderation and charity, they secretly stir up strife, and at length throwing off all concealment, enter the lists boldly, denouncing the Provisional Governor and his government. They make the best use of all the privileges given them against the friends of the government, and grumble because they do not receive more.

We are for meeting them now where they have placed themselves, on the side of treason and disaffection, and treating them as such promptly.

Is it So? We understand that the names of Jos. Turner and H. W. Husted are in nomination for U. S.

Mr. T. bases his claim upon the fact of having started the opposition to "Billy Holden," and Mr. H. his claims upon the fact that the said "Billy Holden" has excluded him from the library. We presume that their claims are irresistible. The Sentinel will melt into tears over this bare announcement. Send him a handkerchief, somebody.

We learn that Hon. Bedford Brown is elected in the 5th district over Lewis Hanes by 96 majority. The polls were compared at Greensboro' yesterday. Lewis Hanes was once a soldier in the ranks of the Union men. But alss! in an evil hour he listened to the voice of the tempter and went over to the Philistines. Well may the Union-loving citizens of the State now exclaim:

"Hast thou not spoke like thunder on our side? Been sworn our soldier? bidding us depend Upon thy stars, thy fortune and thy strength? And dost thou now fall over to our foes? Thou wearest a lion's hide! doff it for shame. And hang a calf skin on those recreant limbs!"

The 4th District. We learn that the Sheriffs compared the returns n the Court House here yesterday-all the counties present except Franklin. Turner 8,609 votes : Russ 8 188; Edwards 240. Turner's majority over Russ 426, over both 186.

Another War.

The rest of the world does not slumber in peace, or are our troubles the only ills that now vex human flesh. Next to breaking up the government, the refusal to make peace, because our dignity and honor would be compromised in President Lincoln's not recognizing Jeff. Davis as ever being a Presi dent and all that sort of thing, was the most wicked act in the whole event of the rebellion. It was a stubborn pride, which has been partly broken.

Now Spain and the South American republic of Chile have commenced a war from the same motives of pride and punctilio. Chile, refuses to do the Spanish flag certain honors, whereupon Pareja, Admiral of the Spanish fleet, declares the Chilean coast in a state of blockade, and the Chileans retort by declaring war on Spain. Verily, this is a Christian world. Men fall to cutting each other's throats, blockading cities, declaring war and refusing to make peace because of their notions of punctilio and a stubborn pride.

The millenium will shortly intervene, no doubt, when all our worldly troubles will be composed.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

Rev. T. M. JONES, President and Proprietor. THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION WILL begin on the 2d Wednesday in January, 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health, intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton, on the Raleigh and Gaston Reilroad. Between these points there is a daily the selfont of the selfont stage line, connecting with trains going North and Sotuh.
The College building, located in a beautif I grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated, and fitted ap with neat fur-niture and fireplaces in the dormitories. niture and fireplaces in the dormitories.

It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities tor the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.—

With the advantages of a good library, a well-selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro' Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to meet a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family.

Terms resonable, and will be made known in due time.

NORTH-CAROLINA MUTUAL FIRE INSU-RANCE COMPANY. A T A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three instalments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand, 220.000 A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.) which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c., &c., do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be necessarily, some delay in the payment of losses. It is hoped, however, that there will be necomplaint on this account; especially, when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary.
