the law and usages of the country.
But, sir, where is this to stop? What population, what amount of interest shall entitle a settlement in the prairies as a Delegate here ? We might doubtless be much entertained with the history of the Indian wars, bear fights and Buffaloe hunts, which are the uniform incidents of the nomadic life of our enterprising and moving population. I can assure the gentleman from Illinois, [Mr. Bissell,] that the aplicant loses nothing, in my estimation, of his claim to a seat here, that he represents a Morman community. TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION. The Pennsylvania correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, of May 2d, relates the following occurrence:

A young man recently made his escape from the galleys at Toulouse. He was strong and vigorous, and soon made his way across the country and escaped pursuit. He arrived the next morning before a cottage in an open field, and stopped to beg something to eat, and concealment while he reposed a little. But he found the inmates of the cottage in the greatest distress. Four little children sat trembling in a corner, their mother was weeping and tearing her hair, and the father walking the floor in agony. RANAWAY from the plantation of Jas. G. Edwards dec'd, on the 29th of June last, a negro man named Levi, about 21 years old, he is rather dark in complexion and has a lump on the out side of his right knee as large as a hen's egg, which may lead to his detection if examined. He is about six feet high and generally weighs about 200 pounds.

He stole the free papers of Luke Hall and Ned Hall who reside in this County, and has attempted to escape on the Rail Road by exhibiting the papers of the former, which were taken from him, and he still has the papers of Ned Hall in his possession. At Black Creek he inquired his way to Raleigh, but it is suspected that he may

PROSPECTUS OF THE Warrenton Advertiser. Warrenton, N. C. a Weekly Newspaper under the

The Advertiser will give to the principles and measures of the Democratic Party, a cordial, zealous and constant support; but, at the same time, will be guided by a temperate, just and even liberal spirit towards those who entertain adverse opinions-aiming rather to molliy than to increase the bitterness of party feelings. It is not designed, however, to make mere political paper. The largest portion of its columns will be devoted to Agriculture, Literature, News, and other subjects of general interest.

The publication will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers is obtained. It will be printed on an Imperial sheet of good paper, in a new, large and handsome type, at $2 50 in advance, or $3 if not paid within three months from the time the first number is sent. JOHN CAMPBELL. July 11, 1850.
