NORTH CAROLINA ..... "Powerful in intellectual, moral and physical resources, the land of our sires and home of our affections."

This is the land of that great and mighty

LEONIDAS B. LEMAY, Associate Editor.

NO. 34.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 21, 1850.

THE NORTH CAROLINA STAR

THE NORTH CAROLINA STAR PERSONAL WEIGHT. BT THOMAS J. LEWAY & SON. Office nearly opposite the Post Office.

Terms of the Paper.

THOMAS J. LEMAY, Editor.

VOL. XLI

2 50 per annum, when paid is ADVANCE-if payment is delayed three months. Terms of Advertising.

e square, (16 lines.) first insertion, $1 00 c acch subsequent insertion, 25 urt orders and judicial advertisements, 25 per cent. higher. deduction of #3) per cent. for advertisements by the year. All letters and communications must be post ttances may be made at our risk.

THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.

papers, the publishers may continue to send them until arcearages are paid. 2. If subscribers neglect or refuse taking their papers from the offices to which they are sent, they are held responsible till their bills are settled and their paper ordered to be discontinued. 4. The Courts have decided that refusing to take survespeer or periodical from the office, or remov-ing and leaving it uncelled for its. "prims facie" idence of INTENTIONAL FEATED.

AGRICULTURAL. TO THE SUBSCRIBERS OF

THE NORTH CAROLINA FARMER.

solutionage to this periodical was not sufficient to where I put them on thickest, I lost all my so much that I have not had time to digest it. When so much grass grows upon varrant its continuance. It does seem that the corn."

public spirit of our people should sustain at least I. me agricultural paper within the State; but for periment. We are loth to discontinue the Furmer, but it is not to be expected that we will publish it at a peer- cause?" niary sacrifice. We have concluded, however, to derote a considerable portion of the STAR to Agricultural interests and we trust that the subscribrs of the Farmer will not be displeased at receiving the STAR in its stead. Our friends will find that the Star is devoted also to General News, Politics, Literature, Educa- plowed!" tion &c., &c., and we trust they will find it a calsable and interesting FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

Should any one feel indisposed to accede to this arrang ment they will please immediately return all under so deep it never would do any good duce two blades of grass, whore one grew bethis number of the paper-else they will be con- again." sidered permanent subscribers.

FOOD OF CALVES. Food of an inferior quality, or a limited supply of the better kinds, will not rear and fatten animals in number, por of an inferior for the second fatten animals in number, nor of an improved know it was the lime in the cobs that killed to enter into such discussion. I may be al-roling error. If you do not love your wife organization-the growth is stunted, the ma- my corn; and lime will kill any land in this lowed to have my own opinions on them, but do not pretend to such love for the people of urity is deferred, and the carcass is faulty in climate; and as for a subsoil plow, I wouldn't turity is deferred, and the carcass is faulty in every respect of quantity and quality. The let you bring one on my farm; and I don't be-very first existence of the animal is rendered investigation on my farm; and I don't be-very first existence of the animal is rendered pail, with the milk, instead of suckling and pail, with the milk, instead of suckling and tions for the nutriment of the dam [!

insufficient materials spoil the animals at the insufficient materials spoil the animals at the very first outset—the intestinal offals are en-larged, the growth is stopped, and also the ac-enough of your newfangled Yankee plows—I gree with me, that commerce is essential to the more the materials spoil. It is is the question. If the section of the store who will me ac-enough of your newfangled Yankee plows—I the materials of the store who will me ac-the growth is stopped, and also the ac-

man has charge of an estate that is come here to claim relationship; for the first. They to thank the president and council for arm voice, "Gentlemen, I was placed here to I then filled the holes to a suitable depth with I then filled the holes to a suitable depth with come here to claim real real problem in the product and control of a suitable depth with real control of my file, to see the farmers of England, is upport the constitution, I has a swom set out my trees in such a manner that they with my own eyes (cheers), believing that will do in."set out my trees in such a manner that they with corn and potatoes. While spreading the manure, I was careful to do well by the trees, and in hoeing, I gave them their share of at-and true to the Crown. (Cheers.) I know (Cheers.) This is the land of that great and mighty

The consequence is, every tree has lived, of England, and the glories of England, are indebted to the patriotism, the provess, and of wood on the upright branch, the first sea- the sacrifices of the farmers of England. son. I should have remarked that my trees were small, only two years from the bud, not being able to procure such varieties as I wish-farmers, and English farmers too-and I come ed, of a larger size; but whether in the end, I here first as the representative of a country taken place. (Cheers) I think you fortu-ahall be the loser in consequence of this, I am whose great material interests are founded in not certain. My intention now is, to cultivate the soil (hear)-1 come here to pledge to you THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS. 1. All subscribers who do not give express we considered as wishing to continue their uncertain. My intention now is, to cultivate their servicitions. 2. If subscribers order the galaxiestic services are galaxiestic to send them until they are well appears, the publishes may continue to send them of a farger size; but whether in the suil (hear)—1 come here to pledge to you, in that kind, in that fra-mess, so much simplicity, so much taste, and not certain. My intention now is, to cultivate the send them of the illness. Thus a brave and to offer to you, in that kind, in that fra-mess, so much simplicity, so much taste, and the so in the solution of the illness. Thus a brave and so much cheerfulness, that one feels at home the moment one comes here. Loud cheers.) 1. All subscribers order the galaxies may continue to send them of the illness. Thus a brave and the solution of the illness. Thus a brave and

This question was fately put to me by a gendemen at Jackson, North Carolina. I an-swered yes, of course; that I considered than highly valuable, &c. To this, another man put in an objection. He cautioned the first put in an objection, pot to use them too freely. If he did, when I look at the state of an of and compare it in Encland person not to use them too freely. If he did, riculture in 1850, and compare it in England IE NORTH CAROLINA FARMER. person not to use them too treety. If he did, with the state of agriculture in 1820, 1 am bundred and ninety-seven pounds of hay, or verance from the parent State. "Zachary Taylor's name will live in the perfectly annually to day. I have been overwhelmed have seen hav must have been weighed in rather agreen general history of the see; in his own tand,

"Ah! how do you account for that?" said (Cheers.) When I look back to this country only thirty years (and in the annals of time that is but a day) I look to that period when "Oh! easy enough. There is so much lime the agence of the cause, we have in cobs, it burnt up the land so that the grow-the expenses incurred by the ex-ing corn all died "

"Somuch lime in cobs!" I exclaimed; "Well dis realm was not the acre, and now high author-on that this mowing lot was well mainted in the acre, and now high author-and furthermore, that whatever was put that is new to me. Are you sure that was the ities, of all parties and shades of plincal opini-

"Oh, yes; certainly. What else could i be? I don't believe much in lime, no how." "Perha; s you did not plow your cobs in I should rejoice and thank God for it .--What kind of land was it?" (Cheer.) deep enough. "Well it was good strong clay land, and they were plowed as deep as we ever plow in this country. How deep would you have

"Ten or twelve inches?"

"Ten or twelve inches! Well, don't want ricultural chemistry, produce another shear you to plow my land. You'd turn the soil of grass. It has been said that he who pro-

My dear Sir, I would not only plow that true you are all public benefactors, because deep, but I would use the subsoil plow also, you are mercasing the product of the nation, and then I don't think that the lime in corn (Cheers.) It is a matter for you and not for larged, the growth is stopped, and also the ac-quisition of the stamina of organic vigor, which forms the very first property in the value of animal life. Without constitutional vigor, the organic functions are unable to per-form their offices, and the food of the very best quality is not properly decomposed and assimilated. Every experience shows that he substances we know call the substances we can be regard to gravity of the substances we can be regard to gravity of the substances were the substances and the food of the very best quality is not properly decomposed and assimilated.

SOUTHERN RIGHTS, From the Southern Press, MEETING OF THE SOUTHEN MEM. BERS OF THE HOUSE OF REP-

BERS OF THE HOUSE OF REP-RESENTATIVES. At length we have to congratulate the South in the attainment of greater unity among her presentatives than has yet been known. At a meeting a few evenings since, the fol-owing members were appointed a Committee on the attainment of greater unity among her representatives than has yet been known. THE PRESIDENTS'S DEATH IN CANADA. The Montreal Courier of Thursday makes lowing members were appointed a Committee on Resolutions: Mr. Toombs, Chairman. Mesars, Seddon, Thompson; Hou Bowie, Clingman, Burt, Cabell, Hilliard, Morse, Johnson, Morchead, Green, Howard,

Thomas. Thomas. We understand that the deliberations of the Committee resulted in almost entire una-nimity, and accordingly— Mr. Toombs, chairman of the Committe of Mr. Toombs, chairman of the Committe of nimity, and accordingly-Mr. Toombs, chairman of the Committe of Fifteen, reported the following resolutions, state. When so much grass grows upon an it will be a household word, familiar in men's months, through all time, as the Roman his-box no doubt, however, under any circum-stance, that it was a magnificent crop. A friend at our elbow, gives it as a decided opini-friend at our elbow, gives it as a decided opinithis realm was not more than 20 or 22 bush-els of wheat to the acre, and now high author-ities, of all parties and shades of plineal opini-run, are that the average produce now is freim 24 to 28 bushels to the acre. (A voice, 30." Thirty, then, if you dease. If it were forty, Thirty, then, if you dease. If it were forty,

engaged in the transportation business, except buzzards and crows, who are all in the carrion

Although tame pigeons have nothing of the creants from the so-called free States. such of our cinzens, who, in assi ficers in defence of the majesty of the have been mutually as tute not to betray us with a kiss, and sell or rights in common with the Southern States I thirty pieces of silvers beware of their Pur faith. Let us notact as cowards, or p

Mr. Toombs, chairmon of the Committe of Fifteen, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted: 1. Resolved, That no citizen shall be deprived our Southern follow-citizens, been goaded on established, when I may seed it down again for a few years. A FARMER, American Agricultural. Harwinton, Ct., Fib., 1850. A SPECIMEN OF AGRICULURAL KNOWLEDGE—ARE CORN COBS GOOD MANURE? This question was fately put to me by a This question was fately put to me by a has not the quiet of our peaceful community been disturbed, and have not the lives of our citi American laws, we will insist upon a division of the country on the line of 56° 30° with a distinct recognition and pretection of property in slaves. 3. Resourced. That we will not vote for the ad-mission of California, unless the Southern bound dary be restricted to the parellel of 34° 30° nurth latitude. 4. Resolved. That we will not, agree to any boundary between Texas and New Mexico which

A CITIZEN.

GEORGETOWN, D. C., August 10th, 1850.

SOUTHERN MEETINGS. Our exchanges from Georgia, Alabama, Flor ida, &c., contain the proceedings of macting

"The Trumpet Blast of Freedom," a journal devoted to politics and private interests of Bun-combe in particular. Solomon Centre, and Jeremish Wiggles, editors and projectors, office of publication corner of Paul Pry street and Squint Alley. Here are some clippings of it—rich, indeed. The bend of ornihological, we find: Although birds in general do not suffer from colds in their heads, yet the smaller varieties are liable to hawk, and the domestie fowls to spit. Brits have no expresses, nor are there any engaged in the transportation business, except field. In the name of all that is m

We adverted yesterday can instigate any Southern man to opposite the resolution adopted at the Southern meet-Line. Every crow that is a raven should be im-mediately shot up in the lunatic asylum. Judges who own a rookery, have frequent opportunities to hear caws. The throat of birdy is very small, hawks nevertheless often take quite large swallows. At how how how how how a speech the large swallows and the adjustment of the Texas boundary, until a the Nashville Convention and its recommendation of the State of California, and the adjustment of the Texas boundary, until a the section of the state of the Texas boundary, until a the section of the state of the territorial questions.

The throat of birds is very small, hawks nevertheless often take quite large swallows. At hough birds do not preach, the larger species prey continually. The robuster is their chorister and practices the chromatic scale every morning. Hens and chickens should never be allowed to amuse themselves, as it always results in toul play. Athough no man in the present day would think of sending a goose in reply to a note, yet among the old Komans the bird was an anser.

a States, suggests a "resort to the decays which "Journal of Connector, which and control of the constitution statements for arresting the attracted our attention. It puts the true colore measures [the California bill &c.,] and stop-pring the supplies."
by provide the constitution does the proper parties. When the truth is these the proper parties.

It provides, indeed, that the year any question the members of either House on any question +18 THE UNION TO BE DIS

The Best Manure for Trees is dowyed combe in particular; Solomon Centre, and caves. To a cord of this, add tour bushels Jeremiah Wiggles, editors and proprietors; We of the U. States have not the leaves. To a cord of this, add tour bushels Jeremiah We rejoice at every new agricultural imple-ment you bring out, suitable to your condition -we rejoice when you can, by the aid of ag-ricultural chomater when you can, by the aid of ag-

MISCELLANEOUS. HOW TO DO GOOD.

A quaint writer, gives a short and east method of doing good, which will be as effect "You may talk as much as you like, but I agitate the nation now, for I do not come here do you begin to do good so far off. This is a the suls itation of broths and juicy prepar-and how much team to a plow?" and how much team to a plow?" "Why, the common sort of plows in this try 1 represent. (Cheers.) With regard to use, servant or superjot. Account the man those opinions will never be expressed in the antipodes. If you let some family grudge, vielded, last week, twenty-rine tons, and four jorated by mere geographical and political seducing the odor will directly be absorbed .- Ib.

THE HOME OF TASTE. The home that all admire is not made by the upholster or cabinet maker-by rich carpets, rose wood, mahogany, and gilding .---It must have the blandishments or true polite-ness and kindly dispositions, that always create beauty, taste, contentment, and love of nome, whether in palace, cottage, or cabin -The home of taste is always more ornamented by the architect of nature, than by the artificer. Shrubs, fruit trees, flowers, and green grass, in their season, all lend their charms nd help make up the tout ensemble of the home of taste .- Ib.

In manufaction
In manufaction</l

any notice of her pigs, even when disturbed. I had no expectation of her living one hour and being no doctor, know not what to do for her; buthaving a little creton oil in the house (the quantity 1 do not know precisely, as it the vial, perhaps three or four drops or more.) the vial, perhaps three or four drops or more.) the vial, perhaps three or four drops or more.) the most good. [Cheers:] the oppintment of two superintendants instead bleeding the with milk, rolled her on her back. I am happy to state to you on this occasion of one; the one from the east, the other from free."

I mixed it with milk, rolled her on her back, and poured it into her mouth. In two hours, that the United States is not represented a. the west to travel over their respective porshe was on her feet, and in three tinys, appa-tently as well as ever. I have given the same kind of oil to hogs that were sick since that States, and what is better, one of the best and that may come under their observation.

phillippi and the second

'his horrible hole in New York will prob- shall, at the desire of one fifth of those present."

most making the task; and which is so very or eight who made that is probably in the task is probably in the task reads an agricultural book or paper? S. R. REMEDY FOR DISEASED SWINE. A few years since, I had a sow with a litter of pigs, one or two days, old, taken suddenly sick. When first discovered, she was lying on her side, and young Anglo Saxon any notice of her pigs, even when disturbed. I had no expectation of her pigs, even when disturbed. I had not the expectation of her pigs, even when disturbed. I had not the expectation of her pigs are not even and differe evijization through the even pigs. I had had ance and differe evijization through the evijization through the evijization

"The incident, however, which led to this ing the Government. Republic of the 15th August.

and the second s

not be carried into practice without overthrow-ing the Government. Republic of the 15th August. gloomy and portentous signs, the Jo Commerce says: "But will the Union be dissolve From the Southern Press, ABOLITION DEPREDATION.