NORTH CAROLINA ... "Powerint in intellectual, moral and physical resources, the land of our sires and home of our affections,"

VOL. XLIII.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4, 1852,

NO. 32.

TERMS.—If paid strictly in square, said $2 at the of Mr Websier to those of Mr. Pfemore, now; $2.58 if paid within six months; and $2 at the of Mr. President, can I forget the grati-ADVERTISING .- | Square (16 lines) first inserties

$1, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertior.

SPEECH OF

B. F. MOORE, ESQ., Before the Young Mens' Scott and Gahain Club, Raleigh, July 13th, 1852.

DEAR Str. - I have received yours of this date, written on behalf of the "Scott and Graham Club," requesting me to prepare for the Press, the remarks I made at their meeting on yesterday evening.

I do not feel myself at histry to refuse any filing.

the yawning gulf of Fanaticism, and on the presses of Greely and Bryant, other its no less dreaded fellow of Secession Twenty-five years after the war of 1812, al Pierce. So had Marin Van Buren, (and
4. That his policy, if elected, would be on his shoulders, and all was saved.

TERMS.-If paid strictly in advance, $2 per an in others, influenced me to postpose the claims who have heart enough to rejoice in the re- in this confederacy. But these freesoil men

tude I owe to the Chief of the American great and honored career for forty-four years ward by Soward, is as baseless in fact, as the with similarity of sentiment in whatever quar does not now need this extraordinary isol. his presence. Can any one who knows the tion; and if that be not the case, I hope that (American hear), or can appreciate with praphad proved to the Nation that he was abundant-ly equally to the task, both of his head and his heart, to administer the government faithfully splended achievements of the young captain, from their party and stand alouf on national and impartially, in defiance of factions, from a With their own eyes they see his deeds, politics, or by leaving open their door, to quiand favors, wherever they might be, or from with their own hands they engage under his whatever quarter they might come. Called lead, and together they rejoice again to behold to the Presidency by a casualty, and in the the ersign of their country, washed of its invery midst of the alarming crisis when the el-sult, in the blood of the toe. New York has ements of steife seemed ready to devour the never forgotten the hour of her peril, nor the this stand was followed immediately by a Ship of State, he called to his sid as noble a man that delivered her: and to say that he crew of patriots as ever trod a dock in the owes his popularity, there, to Seward, is to other its no less dreaded fellow of Secession and disonion, till be gained the smooth and open sea, and, once more, in an hour of joy, from forecastic to stern, from her decks and for course, caused the most serious alarm to from forecassile to stern, from her decks and her course, caused the most serious alarm to although a Senator from Mississippi. In fact, from her yards, was heard the swelling shout be felt by the General Government as to the There were on board that ship maintenance of peace with Great Britain- istracy, every man who entertains that convictorm. many noble volunteers; but one there was, by and when there was nothing which was tion, it is most certain, that more than half the common consent, nobler far than all, whose likely to save us from the issue of wa, people are politically disfranchised. Now, clarion voice rung out from the tempest, but to appease the popular passions of an a- pir, those who are for excluding from their words of duty, courage and perseverance; that voice we shall hear no more; but its earnest was the man selected of the whole Nation to tones yet linger on the ear like the memory of a father's dying blessing.

was the man selected of the whole Nation to country, most, it contemplated the certain dissolution of the effect this delicate object. And why! Sir. contemplated the certain dissolution of the be loyal to the Constitution, a father's dying blessing.

why was not some one of New York's own fa-Sir, it was in this moment, when all might vorife sons who had long enjoyed the confi- judgment means the most effectual to that end. have been lost, by delay or indecision, that dence of the people! Only because there The free-soil party of the country is a very 1. Gen. Scott did not refuse, either absorbed. Mr. Fillmore ascended to the chair of Wash. was no man in the Union who had such un- large body of men, who have among them all

Such York as Winfield Scott. red my warmest admiration, and my undy- mate address, and elicited the highest de- courage and religion-neverheless, they are ing gratitude, and, Sir, I embrace with these monstrations of public approval; and in no opposed to the introduction, by their votes, of Clay upon his measures of Compromise, to the alter of the alter of the noble cause. His is not approval. noble rause. High in my the Capitol of the State, during the then sec- opposition, with some, is political, with oth- ing of the citizens of New York assembled fasor, and as high as Mr. Fillmore, stands sion of the Legislature. At no time from the ers, religious, with others, as they say, nature at Castle Garden "to consult upon measures that must of three score and ten, the giant of war of 1812, to the war with Mexico, has ral; with more yet, it is political, religious for the preservation of the Union." Three intellegt, in statesmanship without a superior. General Scott passed through New York, and natural. But whether arising from the resolutions were in reduced. in positions as large as his country, in closured without a superior, General Scott passed through New York, and natural. Buy, whether arising from the resolutions were in reduced.

The first declares an arient devotion to the queue, now without a rival, who brought to lively public excititions of a deep scated after the trial, on behalf of that country, all that fortune had given him, and all that fortune had there shed on the pestowed Nodition and all that fortune had there shed on the pestowed Nodition and all that fortune had the peace, prosperity nown of their own benefactor and the bene- are also alive to the general policy of the gova tor of their country.

Armies, who, through all his lite, he has ah lask of spreading before you the achievements thous of life—they are growers of bread and stained through a feeling of commendable of General Scott, but to show that, above all ununfacturers of cloth—their various pur-propriety, from an effort to exercise the influmen, he was likely to be, and, in fact was, the affairs of his country, nevertheless deemed deta of gratitude, which, as in the case of Mr. opinion, which, in their judgment, should reof a service, performed without the Union, as original motion of making it was cunning and ter of the country it may be found, of a service, performed without the Union, as well as within every part of it, did not allow, when the integrity of his sountry was meaning the uniteral discord, that hand to be idle, whose great employment had been to defend it. His advocacy of the Compromise measing it. His influence, with all his influence, was so open, arginal motive of making it was cunning and the first that has seen a series of it, did not know that that law was when a Union man who are some plan to save the Union, to which ward is but blowing his breath into sails is this; Is it polecy to ostracise the entire free white in the judicall sanction of its constitutionality from the high Courts of the land. Now, he whole question with us in the election of petty lactions, that had not patriots we some plan to save the Union, to which ward is but blowing his breath into sails is this; Is it polecy to ostracise the entire free which that had not patriots we some plan to save the Union, to which ward is but blowing his breath into sails is this; Is it polecy to ostracise the entire free which the popular gale, than hand to be idle, but hat he is As due to defend it. His advocacy of the Compromise measurement had been to defend it. His advocacy of the Compromise measurement had one persuent had one persuent had been to defend it. His advocacy of the Compromise measurement had one persuent had one persuent had been to defend it. His whole is the judicall sanction of its constitutionality from the high Courts of the land. Now, he whole question with a Union man we all the popular gale, than hand to be idle, who is the fount of the land. Now, he will limit from the nearly influence of the land. Now, is the second every where, still in force, and had received every where, still in force, and that that I was limit to save the Union, to which the Union) was in jeoparthe judicall sanction of its constitutionality f one distinguished genitoment, whose distinguished genitoment, whose distinguished genitoment, whose distinguished genitoment is the public fier has been a seeme of archival guident renown, of the charge as hounditating bash to lowest and his counter, of leasting a factous fasting fast the integration of the charge of hounditating bash to compare of scalings a factous fasting fast the integration of the fast good of the charge of hounditating bash to compare of scalings a factous daty public fier has been a seeme of archival galacter of Nazery. I came not there are a made accorded of Waig. But when the crys that the unique of the season of faithful public fier has been a seeme of archival galacter of the was an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not there are not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not not differing an advanced of Nazery. I came not not dif

by first cheapening is value, ultimately to desting the British crown wanted only a projection of the very worst material of free education in the ranks, and having ascertained for measures laid down in the resolutions. Having embraced the political creed of a business that if the project of the British crown wanted only a project to declare their independence, our material of free education was was concentrated for the great body of New York. Why as early as I have been asked if I likel this Fugitive would support General Scap, they sought the sevent, with the egreat body of New York. When the great body of New York would support General Scap, they sought the sevent, it is the great body of New York. I LDATH would support General Scap, they sought the sevent members of all I saves, of which the great body of New York. I LDATH would support General Scap, they sought the sevent members of a financian and death, the desired of a source of the sevent, that they make the protocol of the sevent was the sevent members of the sevent was the sevent members of the sevent was the sevent members of the sevent was the great straight of the sevent was the sevent members of the sevent was desired. The form to add the near resolutions, the sevent was the sevent was desired. The form to add the near resolutions of the sevent was desired the sound was all the sevent was the sevent members of the sevent was the and one bold threats had but sunk us in deep any street from the sun particles of the salety of the Irium, and regarding the Compromise as the great action what they should deep Seon. Our object was to secure our preference; and so long was to street our our preference; and so long was to secure our preference; and so long etly introduce them into the Democratic fold So commenced the same for the free soil vote. The Whigs were the first to plant themselves Democratic refusal to imitate the example.-Even then, with this beam in their eye, the have wealth, education, industry, manufac an exhibition of patriotic statesmanship seen. The mission was performed with consum-

that to be an occasion, fit for an exception to be grandout. Webter, was then to be paid, or never, with subjects they are divided among themselves, votion to be country, which has marked his.

The charge that he has been brought for-

In the many of the contract flowers of the second contract flowers of the contract flowers of the second contract flowers of

she will not continue to disturb the repose of the Confederacy, by sounding in the board of security, the testin of danger. For one, said, by authority, mysted with the moment of danger, and, by authority, mysted with the great guardian-hip of the Ark of the great guardian-hip of the great guar so; and, with all respect for the indement of these distinguished men, I announce my un-besitating conviction to be, that they have been unjust to Gen. Scott; unjust, therefore, to the country, whose aunals he has so much to the time of his nomination, to give any public opinion in favor of the Compromise.

each and every objection is without any foun-dation, if we could suppose, even, as they do, that the "known incidents" of his long public life, bear with them no evidence, that he be loval to the Constitution, and the peace lutely, or otherwise, up to the time of his ington. The mantle of the departed sage fell bounded control over the popular will of New the elements for a National greatness; they unmination, to give any public opinion in favor of the compromise.

1. In the midst of the exertions of Mr bestowed. Nothing, nothing. Sir, but a desize in reward, the well greed merit of the bestowed and resolution idea of humanity.

The second calls the attention of the loves size in reward, the well greed merit of the bestowed with which i Union of the Union to the pream de and resolution president, and to encourage a similar devotion the gates of Mex. co, I need ask those only, man has to deal, in his political associations, of Mr. Clay. ...The second calls the attention of the lover itself. And any man, not seeking for quib-bles in language, interprets the phrase to mean tion was made. The struggle for the heart, I doubt not be will allerence of the bles in language, interprets the phrase to mean a pledge of his public character for a strict adherence to the "Whig principles as expressed and dignified. Under the high important the phrase to mean tion was made. The struggle for the citizens no other duty than a his fellow and dignified. Under the high important the phrase to mean the phrase to mean hour of danger, and laying his hand firmly on the wheel, he put her head directly under the light of the Constitution. With unmoved every and steady hand, which was but the better and steady hand, which was but the better hering her hering from the united efforts to the through the storm, leaving on the vawning oulf of Facatieian, and on the value of facaties of the united efforts to the vawning oulf of Facatieian, and on the vawning oulf of Facatieian, and on the value of fact that was elected may be repeated with pride. Southern Democrats had the hardihood to slavery the fact that was elected may be repeated with pride. Compromise, and the friends of the Union; that was elected may be repeated with pride. Chippewa, or of Chaputages, for a strict addent to slave the fact that was elected may be repeated with pride. Chippewa, or of Chaputages, for a strict addent to slave the fact that was elected may be repeated with pride. Chippewa, or of Chaputages, for a strict addent to slave the union; that was elected may be repeated with pride. Chippewa, or of Chaputages, for a strict addent the union; that was elected may be repeated with pride. Chippewa, or of Chaputages, the Gen. Mean to say, I pread to shad the first indentify the Whigs with Sewardism.

The third is as follows:

Mr. President, it is time that was elected may be repeated with pride. Chippewa, or of Chaputages, the Gen. Mean to start the subject of shad adjustment of the union; that was elected may be repeated with pride. Chippewa, or of Chaputages, the Gen. Mean to start the subject of shad adjustment of the union; the Gen. Mean to start the subject of shad adjustment of the union; the Gen. Mean to start the subject of shad adjustment of the union; the Gen. Mean to start the subject of shad adjustment of the union; the Gen. Mean the friends of his dentifies of Lindy Linds and the friends of the Union; the Gen. Mean the Gen men are entirely satisfied with the Whig Platform.

Now, sir, I propose to demonstrate that each and every objection is without any founded and every objection is without any founded.

Now, sir, I propose to demonstrate that each and every objection is without any founded and every objection is without any founded.

And why was an abolitionist; or, in this done? Not that it was expected or wish and considerate decision of the Convention. That body had bolitical thirty seven times because of honor. Leave the task of reviling him to this done? Not that it was expected or wish and considerate decision of the Convention. That body had bolitical thirty seven times because of honor. Leave the task of reviling him to this done? Not that it was expected or wish and considerate decision of the Convention.

That body had bolitical thirty seven times because of the seven times because of the seven times are the task of reviling him to this done? Not that it was expected or wish and considerate decision of the convention.

That body had bolitical thirty seven times because of the seven times because of the seven times are the task of reviling him to the partisan critic. Be it his task to write any or that it was the ealm this done? I not that it was the ealm this done? I not that it was the ealm this done? I not the partisan critic. Be it his task to write any or the faults of the heart leaves the task of reviling him to the convention.

That body had bolitical thirty seven times become the convention.

Again, he introduces the measures suggested by himself, which he proposes to add to the Platform resolutions, and offers precisely the same pledge for both.

Now, what are the incidents of a man's long public life, but the material for his public character I. They constitute the character has long public life, but the material for his public character I. They constitute the character has long of the same life, but the material for his public character has long of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the material for his public service of the same life, but the same life does great measured by the same please of history—to same life do his country measured by the same life do his country measured by the same please of history—to same life do his country measured by the same please of history—to same life do his country measured by the same life do his country measured by the same life do his country measured by the same life do history—to same life do his he character ! They constitute the character lions of freemen. Out of these three, the coun- a soldier, he ha to the country, whose annotes he has so much adorned; and unjust to themselves. Their reasons are briefly, but folly stated, and when specified, are four:

1. That Gen Scott absolutely refused, up to the time of his nomination, to give any to the time of the principles of the Compromise." Did to the time of his nomination, to give any to the friends of the principles of the Compromise." Did to the time of his nomination, to give any the health of the principles of the Compromise." Did to the time of his nomination, to give any the health of the principles of the Compromise. The name of the principles of the control of the principles of the country, whose annothing the high impulse of patriotism and mutual forhearance, they preserved their temper and discretion, and when the protraced contest demanded a sacrifice, it was made with grace to them. the Gen. mean to say, I pledge the battle of insult to popular preference. The name merit with public honor; the frie sible, we could not expect to find the princi- renow, experienced as statesmen, - ried and sional will, demands your resice, ples of the comprom as in the great incidents greatly approved in high office by the party, the tale that humbles in the dust the grey fact that he attended that great gathering, as tween these great leaders of the party; and sembled to recommended the Compromise by the collisions of rivalry, had degenerated in the fact, stated by rated into little factions with heated feeling country men. Gov. Cleverland, that, "in that position, (Sec. and partison hates,-too jealous to unite, and retary of War) coupled with his great military fame, he was able to, and did exert a powerful influence in favor of the Compromise measures."

*Se extraordinary was the number of the people and the dietates of patriotism were alike unheeded; and at last to end the 3. The third charge that he had, in sub- ignoble strife and save each clan from the dis-

3. The third charge that he had, in substance, pronounced slavery an evil. I might leave without a word. I introduce it but to show the character of the commentary by the signers of the card. It is a stretch of opposition which neither party has ever made or can make, without striking sixteen States from all future candidacy for President.

IF Exclusion to this extent, is DISUNION!

4. The charge that his policy, if elected trould be warped and shaped to conform to the victus of the free-soilers, is calculated to surprise every man who knows that the signers of the card were willing to trust to the pledges of Gen. Scott. One compliment the card bestews on the General. True, it is given by implication, but it is given, and given altar of fiction. They immolated Cass and nown of their own benefactor and the bene-are also alive to the general policy of the gov-a for of their country.

I have not, Mr. President, set myself to the legislation which affect can in all other rela-tions of spreading before you the achievements thous of life—they are growers of bread and life—they are growers of bread Now, Mr. President, there is not a man a- untimely birth of petty factions. A gentlepropriety, from an effort to exercise the influpropriety, from an effort to exercise the influpropriety from an effort to exercise the influpro His speech on the occasion has these expressions:

"I am charmed with the good feeling, and universal patriotiem which this meeting has exhibited; and God grant that you may devise some plan to save the Union, to which we all, in heart and soul, are so much at the indical specims of the constitutionality.

Laidly know that President Fillmore was prepared, if need there might have been, to execute the fugitive law, with the whole army of the Union: and that Scott was ready to lead it to the scene, where ever it might be.

Nor was there one, who, on the 24th day of June 1852, did not know that that law was still in force, and had received every where, we all, in heart and soul, are so much at the finding of the country of the country an inheritance; and, among certain leaders, did of Martin Van Buren.

Such is the disposition which I would make definite, it is difficult to be what an inciof success. Let them rave on; Scott's forof that faction, and so the relative strength dent is. confederacy, and, by authority, reversed with terms of America. Weak is her the great gaurdina-hop of the Art of the Castle and a subject to the great gaurdina-hop of the Art of the Castle and the great gaurdina-hop of the Art of the Castle and the great gaurdina-hop of the Art of the Castle and the great gaurdina-hop of the Art of the Castle and the general of gaurdina-hop of the Art of the Castle and the general of the great gaurdina-hop of the Art of the Castle and the general of the great gaurdina-hop of the Art of the Castle and the general of the administration to strike the enemy on the Castle and the general of the administration to strike the enemy on the Castle and the general of the administration to strike the enemy on the Castle and the general of the administration to strike the enemy on the Art of the Castle and the general of the administration to strike the enemy on the Castle and the Castle and the Castle and the general of the administration to strike the enemy on the Castle and the general of the administration to strike the enemy on the Castle and the general of the time in a pablic specific delayer of the unimated at the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific delayer of the clinic and the time in a pablic specific and the time in a pablic specific and the clinic and the time in a pablic specific and the over the heartless record, and in its piace, jus-tice shall grave his cologium, with a pen of rold, in letters, of light, on the hearts of his country men.