POETRY.

BURY ME IN THE MORNING.

BY REV. BALE.

Bury me in the morning, mother,
Oh! let me leave the light
Of one bright day on my grave mother,
Ere you leave me alone with the night;
Alone in the night of the grave, mother—
'Tis a thought of terrible fear!—
And you will be here alone, mother,
And stars will be shining here.
So bury me in the morning, mother,
And let me have the light
Of one bright day on my grave, mother,
Ere I am alone with night.

You tell me of the Savior's love, mother—
I feel it in my heart;
But oh! from this beautiful world, mother,
'Tis hard for the young to part!
Forever to part, when here, mother,
The soul is fain to stay.
For the grave is deep and dark, mother,
And heaven seems far away.
Then bury me in the morning, mother,
And let me have the light
Of one bright day on my grave, mother,
Ere I am alone with night.

Never unclasp my hand, mother,
Till it falls away from thine—
Let me hold the pledge of my love, mother,
Till I feel the love divine;
The love divine—oh! look, mother,
Above its beams I see:
And there an angel's face mother,
Is smiling down on me!
So bury me in the morning, mother,
When sunbeams flood the sky—
And leads to light on high.

A SHOUT FOR THE QUILL.

BY H. S. G.

Harrah! harrah! for the grey goose quill,
That has cribbled since ages old,
And is working away with a hearty will,
Despite the pens of gold.
'Tis a comely, sober lord—the goose!
We acknowledge its usefulness when
We take our rest, or its plumes we use.
To form the nopiful pen.

Toss high your caps for grey-goose quills,
Ye printer lads so stout,
For the grey old magician your purses that fills,
Awaken your merriest shout!
And learned "limbs of the law"—do not
Think the theme below your skill,
For of a certainty you'd be forgot,
Were it not for the grey-goose quill.

Senators famous, learned and wise,
Whose speeches whole columns fill,
If this should meet your sober eyes,
Add your cheers to the grey-goose quill.
Ladies, by no means be carelessly mute,
Let the music of your voices still
The men who govern the press, salute,
And their servant—the grey goose quill.

TIME.

There is a silent river,
The rolling river Time;
In summer's rosy blushes,
In hoary winter's rime,
It floweth, ever floweth,
In whatsoever clime.

And well trimm'd barks are sailing
Upon the silent tide;
With golden riches laden,
The little vessels glide;
And Faith, and Love, and Action,
And Hope are side by side.

And oh! a host of others
Compose the little fleet;
Now soon the waves are hearing,
Now while the billows beat;
Gray mists steal o'er the waters,
The mournful mists of Fate.

The polar star grows dimmer;
The scatter'd vessels driven
All wide in disappointment,
Unto the waves are given,
And Faith alone remaineth
To bear the soul to Heaven.

SAVE YOUR MONEY!

THE subscriber having located himself in the CITY OF NEW YORK, after twenty-five years experience in almost every department of business in town and country, tenders his services to his friends and the public as a

GENERAL PURCHASING AND FORWARDING AGENT.

The fact of his being located in the Great Metropolis of America and being extensively acquainted and constantly familiar with the general trade of the city, will give him advantages that no one out of it can have. Another advantage that this mode of trade offers to the purchaser is that the Agent will never have any old or unsaleable goods or articles to pass off on his patrons; on the contrary, his constant object and interest will be to select none but the latest styles and best articles.

TO MERCHANTS.

To this large class of intelligent and enterprising tradesmen, who usually purchase to order but once or twice a year, he feels that he can be of great service, having served in the capacity of clerk and Merchant many years of his life, North and South. Instead of buying from one or two merchants in each branch of Trade as is the general custom, he will avail himself of the advantage of dealing personally with the IMPORTER the MANUFACTURER and the JOBBER at a saving of from 5 to 10 per cent in a general or separate bill, of this he can convince any intelligent merchant at any time.

TO FARMERS.

Having been raised on the Farm and imbibed a taste for agricultural and horticultural pursuits and the growing of stock, improved by many years study, he is prepared to buy and forward every kind of seed, species of implements, and the most approved breeds, of Horses, Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Fowls, &c., wanted by this class of the world's greatest men, and will give all information required before hand as to quality, cost and price, free of charge.

TO PROFESSIONAL MEN.

The orders of Physicians, Lawyers, Ministers, Editors, Musicians, Teachers, Merchants and Artists will be attended to with the same care and fidelity.

THE ORDERS.

Masons, Sons of Temperance, Odd Fellows, &c., will have their orders filled with care and promptness; being "ONE OF THEM" and a WHOLE HAND.

TO GENTLEMEN.

Having had seven years experience in the clothing business, (by receiving the measure) he will get up every kind of wearing apparel of the best material and in the best style. He will also purchase Carriages, Buggies, &c., from Newark and other celebrated factories.

TO THE LADIES.

Availing himself of the judgment of his "better half" and the taste of his lady acquaintances he will be able to furnish any article belonging to the wardrobe, parlor, kitchen or garden, to those who may trust the selection to his judgment, which has been often tested and proved.

REQUIREMENTS.

As the object of the Agent is to be where every thing may be secured and the buyer to procure what he wants at the lowest possible rates, a Draft on some Banking or private House, or Current funds will always be required in ADVANCE, being the safest and better mode for all concerned; yet, where persons give satisfactory city reference, (years in good standing without them,) he will make purchases wherever desired or where he can do so to the best possible advantage.

Having once resided in the city seven years, with a continued general acquaintance, he is confident of giving satisfaction to all who may favor him with their orders. The original bills will always be forwarded with the addition of his commissions thereto attached. All his time will be devoted to his business and all information sought in every branch of business will be promptly furnished.

TERMS.

His commissions will vary from two to five per cent for buying and forwarding; the amount being governed entirely by the character and value of the article purchased. He will guarantee that all goods bought by him will be delivered, including his commissions, as low as any merchant procures his—and at a saving to his patrons of from 5 to 10 per cent from the ordinary course of trade.

REFERENCES.

He has the honor of referring to the following among many other gentlemen:

In North Carolina—Messrs. N. W. & J. W. Woodfin and W. D. Rankin & Co., Asheville; Col. John Baxter, Hendersonville; James H. Osborne, Esq. N. Charlotte; Henry W. Miller, Esq., Raleigh, &c.

SPRING, 1854.

Wholesale Boot and Shoe Trade,

PETERSBURG, VA.

WE take pleasure in announcing to the Merchants of Virginia and North Carolina, that one of our house has just returned from the North and East, where he has purchased an extensive and commanding stock of and all other articles belonging to our branch of business.

Our assortment this season will be much larger and more varied than heretofore, in order to meet the demands of a rapidly increasing trade. Our goods have all been bought at First Hands, and selected with great care by an old buyer, of thirty years experience, with special reference to the wants of the Virginia and North Carolina Merchants.

We are now in receipt of a portion of our stock and are in daily expectation of large accessions thereto, which will render our assortment one of the most complete and attractive ever offered to the Southern Trade.

In soliciting an examination we assure our friends and the public generally, that our prices shall be found as low and as reasonable as those of any similar establishment south of Massachusetts.

Merchants and others buying by the Package or Dozen will find it to their interest to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere, as it is our determination to sell as cheap as any other southern competitors.

NOTICE.

WE are pleased to inform our friends and the public generally, that since the destruction by fire, of the stores recently occupied by us, and of nearly our entire stock of China, Glass, Earthenware, &c., we have, through the kindness of Messrs. Patterson & Cooper, Commission Merchants, made arrangements to continue business in the store just vacated by them, at the foot of Sycamore street, where we shall be happy to see our friends and all who wish to purchase anything in our line. Our stock, we may say, will be as entirely new one, and in prices, we are prepared to offer as great inducements as heretofore.

We avail ourselves of this opportunity of tendering our sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to us, and hope by our new proprietors and fidelity to merit and secure a continuation of the same.

NO. 1 SUPERPHOSPHATE OF LIME.—This valuable fertilizer has been used for several years in England and other parts of Europe, and next to Guano, holds the highest rank in popularity, and the extent to which it is used among farmers. Its introduction in this country has been more recent; but the progress it has made in the estimation of the public has not been less marked or successful than abroad. It is now extensively used throughout the Northern States, after a full trial and investigation of its merits; and it is rapidly becoming, like its predecessor, Guano, a favorite manure at the South and West.

It is composed of ossified or ground Bones, decomposed by the addition of about one fifth their weight of sulphuric acid, diluted with water, to which is added a due proportion of Guano and sulphate of ammonia. The latter is the active and one of the most efficient agents in the best Peruvian Guano.

It is said to be the soil in which there is not already a full supply of the phosphates, which is seldom the case. All crops are benefited by its application.

For sale in large or small quantities, in bags of 136lbs. each. No charge for packages. All bags will be branded "C. B. De Burg, No. 1 Superphosphate of Lime."

IREDELL ON EXECUTORS;

BEING

A Treatise on the Law of Executors and Administrators

IN NORTH CAROLINA,

By James Iredell.

THE object of this work has been to exhibit the law, as it now stands in North Carolina, in relation to the matters of which it treats. It embraces, therefore, the English doctrines, so far as they are recognized in our own State, as well as in acts of Assembly and the decision of our own Courts, on the subject of Wills, Executors and Administrators. It is thought it may prove useful, not only to members of the legal profession, but also to others, who are so frequently called upon to undertake the indispensable, important and responsible trusts of Executors and Administrators.
