

North Carolina Star.

North-Carolina Star. RALEIGH, N. C. SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 29, 1854. FOR GOVERNOR, Hon. Alfred Dockery, OF RICHMOND COUNTY.

MR. BRAGG ON INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS. Mr. Bragg has complained in various places during the present canvass, that Gen. Dockery delivered the same speeches at every place he spoke and protested that he was tired of listening to them.

Mr. Bragg has complained in various places during the present canvass, that Gen. Dockery delivered the same speeches at every place he spoke and protested that he was tired of listening to them. We have not the least doubt in the world of it.

TO THE PUBLIC. Every one, I believe, who has followed the course of the canvass, is aware that the friends of Gen. Dockery are divided into two main parties.

ZACHARIAH EVANS, THOS. H. LEARY, JR., H. A. BONCE, B. W. HATHAWAY, G. W. B. SATTERFIELD, CHAS. H. BIPPT, THOS. COCHRAN, SR., NATH. L. CULLINS, MOSES W. WEBB, W. C. HENTER, J. A. HAWKINS, RICHARD CLAYTON, JNO. N. McOWELL, EDWARD WARREN, BENJ. H. WEBB, THOMAS COCHRAN.

When Mr. Bragg was confronted with this certificate, he fell to abusing those who signed it, and especially the Rev. Zachariah Evans, who came in for a full share of denunciation because he had the hardihood to sign an instrument setting forth the truth in regard to a public discussion.

VERY COCAIROUS. Mr. Thos. Bragg, Esq., the Democratic candidate for Governor, boasts (we learn) more than considerably upon the "Bragg" and the "Standard" intimates he will fight. He has lately given an example of moral courage truly sublime.

Mr. Thos. Bragg, Esq., the Democratic candidate for Governor, boasts (we learn) more than considerably upon the "Bragg" and the "Standard" intimates he will fight. He has lately given an example of moral courage truly sublime.

MR. BRAGG'S ADDRESS. Mr. Bragg was evidently embarrassed by his anti-improvement antecedents, and when down at Edinboro, before he was nominated for Governor, he knew it would not do to declare himself friendly to such works when every body there knew that he had always been opposed to them.

REMARKS ON THE AMERICAN PUBLISHERS, Messrs. Leonard & Co., the July number of this and long established Magazine, Messrs. Scott & Co. sent us a highly commended by the press generally as a thrilling and deeply absorbing story.

SHOWING THE CLOVEN FOOT!—CHANGING HIS GROUND AS HE GOES WEST!! MR. BRAGG ADVOCATING SECESSION!!! Up to the time of his arriving at Mr. Clingman's District, Mr. Bragg had nothing to say upon the subject of secession and its kindred topics, but upon reaching that section of the State, we are informed by a gentleman of high character, in a letter now before us, that he came out "strong in favor of the doctrine of secession."

THE HOMESTEAD BILL. When this bill first passed the House of Representatives, the loco-foco press generally of this State, condemned it, though not in the decided terms. They declared that Gen. Pierce would veto it and that it could not become the law of the land under his administration.

HOW HE REGARDS IT. Mr. Ballman, the loco-foco candidate for the District in Chowan County and one of the signers of the certificate furnished to Mr. Bragg, is violently opposed to internal improvements in this State and is canvassing his county against Col. Paine on that issue.

THE DIFFERENCE. The Democrats are in favor of amending the Constitution by legislative enactment, which method they deem to be the most expeditious, and is not decided on its own merits; besides, the subject is so mixed up with general politics that the voice of the people is not heard.

THE LAST AGONY. The Standard, dated the 29th of July, but issued on the 27th, contains a letter from that distinguished Statesman, Thomas L. Clingman, purporting to have been written to Marcus Erwin, Esq., but a copy of which must have been furnished to the editor of the Standard, in which he attempts to defend "one of his constituents," Balle M. Estey.

STATS OF BATTLES. While Southern Democrats are exulting over the anticipated division of the National Whig party it would be well for them to take a glance at the state of affairs in their own ranks. It is true that immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill, many Whigs in the free States withdrew from the ranks of the National Whig party.

RAILS, THE BRIGADIER. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

NEW YORK OR DEL.? It is rumored in New York that the "New Nothing" number over 40,000 in this city. It is also stated that they intend making regular applications for seats at the office, and that Daniel Urban, Esq., of New York city, is to be their candidate for the Presidential election.

THE RAILROAD BILL. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

THE RAILROAD BILL. When this bill first passed the House of Representatives, the loco-foco press generally of this State, condemned it, though not in the decided terms. They declared that Gen. Pierce would veto it and that it could not become the law of the land under his administration.

HOW HE REGARDS IT. Mr. Ballman, the loco-foco candidate for the District in Chowan County and one of the signers of the certificate furnished to Mr. Bragg, is violently opposed to internal improvements in this State and is canvassing his county against Col. Paine on that issue.

THE DIFFERENCE. The Democrats are in favor of amending the Constitution by legislative enactment, which method they deem to be the most expeditious, and is not decided on its own merits; besides, the subject is so mixed up with general politics that the voice of the people is not heard.

THE LAST AGONY. The Standard, dated the 29th of July, but issued on the 27th, contains a letter from that distinguished Statesman, Thomas L. Clingman, purporting to have been written to Marcus Erwin, Esq., but a copy of which must have been furnished to the editor of the Standard, in which he attempts to defend "one of his constituents," Balle M. Estey.

STATS OF BATTLES. While Southern Democrats are exulting over the anticipated division of the National Whig party it would be well for them to take a glance at the state of affairs in their own ranks. It is true that immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill, many Whigs in the free States withdrew from the ranks of the National Whig party.

RAILS, THE BRIGADIER. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

NEW YORK OR DEL.? It is rumored in New York that the "New Nothing" number over 40,000 in this city. It is also stated that they intend making regular applications for seats at the office, and that Daniel Urban, Esq., of New York city, is to be their candidate for the Presidential election.

THE RAILROAD BILL. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

THE RAILROAD BILL. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

THE RAILROAD BILL. When this bill first passed the House of Representatives, the loco-foco press generally of this State, condemned it, though not in the decided terms. They declared that Gen. Pierce would veto it and that it could not become the law of the land under his administration.

HOW HE REGARDS IT. Mr. Ballman, the loco-foco candidate for the District in Chowan County and one of the signers of the certificate furnished to Mr. Bragg, is violently opposed to internal improvements in this State and is canvassing his county against Col. Paine on that issue.

THE DIFFERENCE. The Democrats are in favor of amending the Constitution by legislative enactment, which method they deem to be the most expeditious, and is not decided on its own merits; besides, the subject is so mixed up with general politics that the voice of the people is not heard.

THE LAST AGONY. The Standard, dated the 29th of July, but issued on the 27th, contains a letter from that distinguished Statesman, Thomas L. Clingman, purporting to have been written to Marcus Erwin, Esq., but a copy of which must have been furnished to the editor of the Standard, in which he attempts to defend "one of his constituents," Balle M. Estey.

STATS OF BATTLES. While Southern Democrats are exulting over the anticipated division of the National Whig party it would be well for them to take a glance at the state of affairs in their own ranks. It is true that immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill, many Whigs in the free States withdrew from the ranks of the National Whig party.

RAILS, THE BRIGADIER. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

NEW YORK OR DEL.? It is rumored in New York that the "New Nothing" number over 40,000 in this city. It is also stated that they intend making regular applications for seats at the office, and that Daniel Urban, Esq., of New York city, is to be their candidate for the Presidential election.

THE RAILROAD BILL. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

THE RAILROAD BILL. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

THE RAILROAD BILL. When this bill first passed the House of Representatives, the loco-foco press generally of this State, condemned it, though not in the decided terms. They declared that Gen. Pierce would veto it and that it could not become the law of the land under his administration.

HOW HE REGARDS IT. Mr. Ballman, the loco-foco candidate for the District in Chowan County and one of the signers of the certificate furnished to Mr. Bragg, is violently opposed to internal improvements in this State and is canvassing his county against Col. Paine on that issue.

THE DIFFERENCE. The Democrats are in favor of amending the Constitution by legislative enactment, which method they deem to be the most expeditious, and is not decided on its own merits; besides, the subject is so mixed up with general politics that the voice of the people is not heard.

THE LAST AGONY. The Standard, dated the 29th of July, but issued on the 27th, contains a letter from that distinguished Statesman, Thomas L. Clingman, purporting to have been written to Marcus Erwin, Esq., but a copy of which must have been furnished to the editor of the Standard, in which he attempts to defend "one of his constituents," Balle M. Estey.

STATS OF BATTLES. While Southern Democrats are exulting over the anticipated division of the National Whig party it would be well for them to take a glance at the state of affairs in their own ranks. It is true that immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill, many Whigs in the free States withdrew from the ranks of the National Whig party.

RAILS, THE BRIGADIER. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

NEW YORK OR DEL.? It is rumored in New York that the "New Nothing" number over 40,000 in this city. It is also stated that they intend making regular applications for seats at the office, and that Daniel Urban, Esq., of New York city, is to be their candidate for the Presidential election.

THE RAILROAD BILL. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

THE RAILROAD BILL. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News, and learn that it was a matter of sufficient importance in the estimation of that pure patriot, to warrant its publication in an Extra.

THE WHIG PARTY. We are glad to see that the locofoco press are so busy... THE DIFFERENCE. The Democrats are in favor of amending the Constitution by legislative enactment... THE LAST AGONY. The Standard, dated the 29th of July, but issued on the 27th, contains a letter from that distinguished Statesman, Thomas L. Clingman... STATS OF BATTLES. While Southern Democrats are exulting over the anticipated division of the National Whig party... RAILS, THE BRIGADIER. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News... NEW YORK OR DEL.? It is rumored in New York that the "New Nothing" number over 40,000 in this city... THE RAILROAD BILL. We have seen a "Defense of Gen. Estey" in the Asheville News...