

Journal Star. RALEIGH, N. C. THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 11, 1854.

This Know-Nothing organization is not of a nature to exist for any considerable length of time; and we trust that those who may identify themselves with it for purposes of promotion, will be marked and remembered at subsequent elections.

We take the above extract from the Standard of last Wednesday. We lay it before our readers that every freeman in the land may see what the organs of North Carolina Democracy counsel against native American Citizens. Let it be borne in mind that the Standard, under the guise of an ardent question touching the approaching city elections, assumes that there is to be a concert between the Whigs and the Know Nothings to carry the day in this city, and then calls upon the voters to mark those who enter into such an arrangement "for purposes of promotion."

The Standard is a paper of a very different character from the Whig and the Standard. It is a paper of a very different character from the Whig and the Standard. It is a paper of a very different character from the Whig and the Standard.

THE STANDARD. The Raleigh Standard of Saturday, in some remarks on the Foreign Population says: "Give us the evidence that the Catholic Church is aiming at political power and control in this country, and we will be among the first to take up arms against it, in order to respect, and as to all its Churches, by whatever name they are known."

We are willing to believe that the Editor is sincere in this declaration. From the habit of thinking and the political course of the Standard, we are not surprised that he should say so. It is difficult for him to do otherwise. He is a man of a very different character from the Whig and the Standard.

AMERICANS IN PRISON IN MEXICO.—SHOCKING TREATMENT.—On the 4th ult. five Americans arrived at San Antonio, Texas, from California, having come by the overland route from Mazatlan, on the Pacific. From these gentlemen, Antonio Ledges has obtained the following particulars of the imprisonment of three Americans in the city of Durango, Mexico, which learned in a private manner that there were some American prisoners in that town.

THE CHILDRN AND THE SUNBEAM. I saw a youthful mother Once, on a summer's day, Seated on a grassy bank, To watch its frolic play.

THE CLEAR AND THE PARROT. It is a well known fact that the Emperor Nicholas is frequently in the habit of walking about the streets of St. Petersburg unattended. When he is walking in the streets, he is surrounded by a crowd of admirers, and the Emperor passes on, the person there to look at him, perhaps for a minute, and nothing more is thought of the matter.

THE CHILDRN AND THE SUNBEAM. I saw a youthful mother Once, on a summer's day, Seated on a grassy bank, To watch its frolic play. It gambled on the flowers That decked the carpet o'er, And seemed with childish wonder, Each object to explore.

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

THE CLEAR AND THE PARROT. It is a well known fact that the Emperor Nicholas is frequently in the habit of walking about the streets of St. Petersburg unattended. When he is walking in the streets, he is surrounded by a crowd of admirers, and the Emperor passes on, the person there to look at him, perhaps for a minute, and nothing more is thought of the matter.

THE CHILDRN AND THE SUNBEAM. I saw a youthful mother Once, on a summer's day, Seated on a grassy bank, To watch its frolic play. It gambled on the flowers That decked the carpet o'er, And seemed with childish wonder, Each object to explore.

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

SELECTION FOR A NEWSPAPER. Most people think the selection of suitable matter for a newspaper the easiest part of the business. How great an error! It is, by all means, the most difficult. To look over all the news, and to select from it what is to be printed, is a task which requires a great deal of judgment and labor.

THE CHILDRN AND THE SUNBEAM. I saw a youthful mother Once, on a summer's day, Seated on a grassy bank, To watch its frolic play. It gambled on the flowers That decked the carpet o'er, And seemed with childish wonder, Each object to explore.

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

THE CLEAR AND THE PARROT. It is a well known fact that the Emperor Nicholas is frequently in the habit of walking about the streets of St. Petersburg unattended. When he is walking in the streets, he is surrounded by a crowd of admirers, and the Emperor passes on, the person there to look at him, perhaps for a minute, and nothing more is thought of the matter.

THE CHILDRN AND THE SUNBEAM. I saw a youthful mother Once, on a summer's day, Seated on a grassy bank, To watch its frolic play. It gambled on the flowers That decked the carpet o'er, And seemed with childish wonder, Each object to explore.

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

THE CLEAR AND THE PARROT. It is a well known fact that the Emperor Nicholas is frequently in the habit of walking about the streets of St. Petersburg unattended. When he is walking in the streets, he is surrounded by a crowd of admirers, and the Emperor passes on, the person there to look at him, perhaps for a minute, and nothing more is thought of the matter.

THE CHILDRN AND THE SUNBEAM. I saw a youthful mother Once, on a summer's day, Seated on a grassy bank, To watch its frolic play. It gambled on the flowers That decked the carpet o'er, And seemed with childish wonder, Each object to explore.

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."

THE FOREIGN NEWS.—THE ATTACK ON SEBASTOPOL. The foreign papers have full details of the unprovoked attack on Sebastopol. A correspondent of the London Times says: "The plan of operation for taking Sebastopol is talked of pretty generally, but its being accomplished leads one to suspect the authenticity of the report. It is not likely that the Russian fleet will be able to hold out in the harbor, and the Russian army on the frontiers of Georgia, in Asia Minor, is in a very precarious position."