

If paid strictly in advance, two dollars per annum...

ADVERTISEMENTS not exceeding sixteen lines...

Book and Job Printing done with neatness...

SELECTED POETRY!

From the Charleston Courier.

THOUGHT WITH ME IN NIGHTLY DREAMS.

BY MARION HARRLAND.

Thought with me in my nightly dreams, The dear long reveries of the day...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

Why should I not as I am now, In friendly grief that smokes the while...

North-Carolina Star.

RALEIGH, N. C. SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 14, 1855.

FRANKLIN SHERIDAN COURT.—We learn that this tribunal has been in session during the present week.

SAVING NO CONTROVERSY IN PENNSYLVANIA.—It is denied, as stated by telegraph, that the Know Nothing Convention held recently in Lancaster, Pa., broke up in a row.

THE RECEIPTS OF THE PAYETTEVILLE AND WESTERN PLANK ROAD COMPANY.—The receipts of this road for the year ending April 1, 1855, were $26,793 73.

LOUISVILLE ELECTION.—The Know Nothings swept the city of Louisville, Ky., at the municipal election on Monday, by tremendous majorities.

PAYETTEVILLE AND WESTERN PLANK ROAD.—A meeting of the commissioners appointed by the charter, is called to be held at Jacksonville, Owsley County, on the 24 of May next.

DECREASE IN REVENUE.—The receipts of duties at six of the principal ports of the United States, show a decrease of the last quarter, when compared with 1854, of $4,500,000.

N. C. FISHERIES.—It is stated that the fisheries of this State are doing a very small business, in consequence of the cold and disagreeable weather.

THE LAST YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

OUR COUNTRY.

Under all circumstances an American should retain his attachment to his country, and advocate its interest to the best of his ability.

INTERESTING FROM JAPAN.—A late number of the San Francisco Herald contains a letter from England, which the writer gives an account of a visit recently made by him to Nagasaki.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE INFLUENCE OF FOREIGN EMIGRATION.

That the political influence of the foreigners of this country is nothing worth mentioning, as some would have us believe, is either idle conceit or the result of ignorance.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

THE UNION.—No one can recall the venation with which the Union was universally regarded a few years ago.

THE LATE YEAR AND THE UNITED STATES.—The New Orleans Bee publishes the following from a letter from a Russian nobleman to an acquaintance in New Orleans.

Fairwell to the Young Men of the University of the South.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.

What care I now have long the day Of life with only my bosom burn.