VOLUME XLVI. North-Carolina Star

RALEIGH, N. C.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 19th, 1855.

MERICAN CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS We learn from the Weldon Patriot, that Col Robert T. Paine has been nominated by the American Party as their candidate in the first Congressional District. Col. Paine is well known to the neople of North Carolina, and will be a bold, fearless and independent advocate of the principless of the American party.

We have the pleasure of announcing that James B. Shepard, Esq., of this city, is the candidate of the American Party for Congress in this (the 4th) District. Mr. S., it is well known has been for a long time a prominent member of the Democratic party, and was the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1846, in opposition to Boy, Graham. He endorses fully and entirely the principles of the American party. We are pleased to learn that Mr. S. will take an early opportunity to address his fellow citizens of this District upon the principles of the American party, and that in all probability he will address the people of this county some time during the next week, which is court week. It will be seen by the following extract from a letter from a highly intelligent gentleman, that a Convention of the American party in the Fifth District, has put in nomination Edwin G. Rende, Esq., of Person County, in opposition to the Hon. John Kerr. Our correspondent says:

"On Monday last, we had a Convention and nominated for the Fifth Cong essional District, Edwin G. Reyde, of Rexboro, as our standard bearer, with tall confidence of success. The avention was full, represented from every maty in the District. It was one of the most enthusiastic, patriotic meetings of the people that I have ever had the pleasure of attending. The hard-flated yearnary were there, not a dema-gogue in the Convention, if he was there he did not make it known. Mr. Reade received every ste poiled, on the first ballot ; there was not a dissenting voice beard ; all was harmony and good feeling. You may set down our District as safe for the Amorican party."

THE UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE for May has come a hand with a full table of contents. We learn from this number that Messrs, C. Dowd, J. B. Killebrew, A. H. Merritt, J. A. McQueen, C. Sessions and J. E. Sumner, had been selected by their class as the editorial corps for the ensuing collegiate year.

THE WESTRINSTER REVIEW for April has been received from the American publishers, Messrs. L. Scott & Co., 79 Fulton Street, New York. The following is its table of contents:-- 1. Memoirs of the Court of Austria; 2. Dryden and his and truly expressed, and will be maintained in Timns; 3. Our Army: its condition and its wants; 4. Lord Pa'morston as Premier; 5. Victor Hogo and his writings; 6. Reorganization of the Civil Service; 7. Administrative Example of the United States; 8. Contemporary Literature. Beg- See the article in another column, copied from the Asheville Spectator, in which the inconsistencies of the Hon. T. L. Clingman are most effectually exposed. It will be perceived that Mr. C. at one time warmly advocated many of the principles of the American party which he now riolently and bitterly privates. sor-We are requested to state that General

The public generally are invited to attend the delivery of each and all the above Addresses. The high character of the speaker as an able and popular lecturer will doubtless call together large audipound the following extracts from the American Organ which show most conclusively that the American organization in that State is thoroughly and entirely national in its views and purposes :

The following sentence from the President's blress, contains a mild, but direct and proper proof of the proceedings of the Mussachusetts He says : te Council.

State Council. He says: "It will be necessary to oppose the introduction of external issues in your deliberations. We meet in council for a higher and nobler purpose than the settlement of domestic fouds. We are but an integral part of a mighty confederation, and should permit nothing to impede its progress."

" From observation and experience, I am coninced that the safety of our confederation deends upon the fraternal confidence of its mem-ers. Our State Council must not swerve from the teady and consistent course that has hitherto characterized its deilberations. Innovations upon the conceded authority of your body have been attempted at various times, but have been invariably frustrated by the influence of calm and wholesome deliberation on the part of those whose ackneved party prejudices.

The entire address of President Barker is marked by a pure nationality of sentiment, alike reditable to himself and just to our party. Another correspondent gives us his views the proceedings, as follows, to wit :

"The proceedings were eminently harmonious It was made evident that the American party in the great State of New York is moving forward in their purpose with a firm, determined, and equal step. They show that so far as they are cerned, all minor considerations shall yield to the three great fundamental principles of the order, Americ in m. Projestantiam, and the Unias if these States." " A new constitution was adopted, which must emphatically re-affirms the 'Union degree.'---Every member of the order will appreciate the deep significance of this action. No State Coun-cil which has taken the Union degree could without a gross violation of honor, entertain such resolutions as the Massachuretts and New Haup-shire councils have recently been betrayed inadopting. The actions of these States met with a de eided relake. The State Council of New York did not adopt a platform for the simplest reason in the world : it is not their province. That is the appropriate duty of the National Council, and any council which presumes to attempt to commit the whole party to its peculiar views, step out of its legitimate sphere "These are the views of the State Council o New York. They are conservative in the highest sense of the term. They wish the order to be na-tional. They desire no platform which cannot hold all the States of this Union. They therefore, with perfect consistency, resolved to ignore everything but the three cardinal principles of the order. With extraordinary unanimity they deermined not even to discuss slavery or antislay Our friends throughout the nation may fee re that the party in New York is sound t e core. They occupy none but high national neervative ground." These are the sentiments of the New York the core.

Americans," and we assure our readers that the sources from which we have derived them warrant us in declaring, that they are honestly the future political course of the "America party" of New York.

A TWELVE POUND CHUNK. A returned Californian relates the following

good one :- The laudlord of a hotel, built of boards, and built near the Tekulk Diggings, was presented by his wife with a fine twelv nd boy, which coming to the ears of a wag, be circulated the story that the bost had found a "tweive pound chunk," which ran like wildfire the place, and caused quite an exciteingh ment. A few weeks afterwards, a miner from another quarter, having heard of the twelve pound cloude, arrived at the hotel and at once made ap plication to the landhady for lodging. Her hus-band being absent, she attended to the guest, when the following conversation took place, which should be prefaced by the remark that the story had exploded several days before his arrival, and the landbdy had sojoyed the sell with the rest. "It was your husband, ma'am, wasn't it, who lingman.) If this be the case, the history of the cholera can furnish no such an instatute of wide spread-ing infection as has taken place from those in-oculations. Mesers, Baxter and Love have expried that disease into every neighborhood in this District. There can be no doubt but that it is oragious. Over two thousand have been strick-ly have the victims been prostrated, that the great Asculapius of the anti-American faculty and all the lesser M, D s. look on pertectly aghast and nonplussed. And what is still stran-ger, when an individual, said to have the infection, arrives in a neighborhood, instead of flying in terror before him, these deluded creatures these deluded creatin took in crowds about him, beg to be inoculated, rush upon their fates, and thus by bundreds are burried into-Know Nothingiam. We have seen old grey-headed men bringing up a troop of stalwart sons, sons bringing up fathers, and brother bringing up brother, and anziously offerdevotion to the great principles of the Order were ing them up as sacrifices to appease the demon paramount to individual aggrandizement, or of flus furnous disease. The land is fast becoming one grand hospital, where the children of "Sam" may receive the properkind of treatment. Alarmed at the fearful havee, Clingman hurries ome and begins to administer nostrams. At uncon he makes his first stand (Cherokee was eyond the aid of medicine before he could get tre) and gives the first dose. Dreadful to tell gets worse! Two hundred souls are mortally tricken in one week! And that under the verse of the great doctor ! At Jackson, at Hay rood, the tide still rolls, and desolution spreads whilst, worse and worse, someold liners, thought to be proof against the infection, are seized with most alarming symptoms, which result in regu-lar cases of Know Nothingism 1 The route now scomes general. Henderson is down flat, and Buncombe ditto. Too late, too late ! The torreat can't be stopped; you might as well undertake to make the Standard have lue regard for truth and honesty; as well try to make the Editor of the News papilah the Know Nothing platform, or say whether he is a Whig or Democrat; to number the sands of the sea shore, as to try to stop that hall which "Sam And what is more, its cul has put in motion. minating point had not been reached yet ! PRENTICEANA .--- The Columbus Statesman, the ading Democratic organ in Ohio, is evidently n despair, but it assumes a tone of mock cour age. Speaking of the condition of Locofic eisu

A 20. in Ohio it suys: "There is a noble vitality still left to kindle the embers of a most fiery battle."--Now just think of that. Enough Locofocolsm left in Ohio to kindle embers-that is, enough we suppose to make a Locoforo match. Two or three papers in the interior of Kentucky are occasionally attacking us, and a friendly correspondent sets why we do not "castigate them." The truth is they are altogether too small. A woman once handed her erying baby to her husband, requisiting him to make it husb. It continued to cry thil she got make it hush. It continued to ery till she got out of patience, and then she called out to her nusband. "I do wish you would spank that be by." "Yes," said he. He fumbled about for ometime, and at length she anguly exclaimed "Aint you agoing to spank the baby?" "I would," he replied, "but indeed, wife, I can'f find a placebig enough to spank." The editor of the New Hampshire Patriot, President Pierce's home organ, esys that the Democratic party is desirous of putting as end to all undue influence of foreign-born citizens in elections. We guess the Democratic party is a good deal too shrewd to do that. The Democratic party, if it were to do it, would be very much in the prodicament of the fellitie, who wishing to saw a limb from the top of a prett high tree, took his sent upon the limb while he performed the operation. "As soon as I had done the sawing," said he, "I heard something frap.

THE AMERICAN PARTY IN FILLADEL

PHIA. ADDRESS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. To the American's throughout the United States: The executive committee of the American part for the city of Philadelph a, having observed that the result of the election held on the lat inst for City Treasurer, Commissioner and members of Counsil has been misurederstood by persons at distance, and also misreine sented by hose who are opposed to the principles and as-endency of the American organization, have directed the andersigned to pressure a simple state-ment of facts upon the truth of which our friends may everywhere most implicitly rely. This communication is, therefore, prepared in accord ance with the direction given by the committee and its simple object is to state the literal fac a in the case. On this account we respectfully invite your attention to it. The election held in this city on the 1st Inst. r, perhaps the greatest triumph that the Amer-can party has ever achieved, and presents the must conclusive evidence of the vitimate and en-tire supremacy of our principles. Our triends tire supremacy of our principles. Our triends never ontertained a doubt that the strength of our organization would enable us to trin over either of the old pelifical parties, but ost sanguing of us scarefly anticipated that the eriod would arrive when we would be stronger merically than these old parties combined. recent election, however, has not only shown this to be the case, but has also demonstrated that in this vicinity our strength has already goue far beyond this latter point. It has not only enceeded united vote of the whig and democratio parties, but it has, in addition, beaton the entire naturalized vote, both Catholic and Protestant, which were arrayed against and which united on the whig and democratic fusion ticket to feat the American candidates. Notwithstanding pon the whig and dee all these elements of opposition combined, we ancessided in electing our ticket by a large majority, and exhibited a strength which was much and any calculations that had heretofore been a by us. We triumphed, therefore, single ande by us. handed, over the foreign vote and the united ef-forts of the whig and democratic parties, mid en-countered as formidable an opposition as could, under any circumstances, he arrayed against as. under any circumstances, he arrayed against us. We annex the vote polled for City Treasucer and Commissioner, upon the fusion ticket, in each of the wards of the city of Philadelphia, in order hat the strength of the American party may be en, and the character of our victory understood t is as follows :

[Hers follows the vote in each of the 24 wards, which tums up as follows :

FOR CITY TREASURES. Hagert, Fasion, 22,036; Morton; Am., 22,458.

FOR CITY CONVISIONER. Sherry, Fasion, 22,209; Hill,* Am., 22,406*

'George II. Hill" thrown out.] No other persons were voted for as emdidated

As other persons were voted for as emidiates for treasurer and commissioner, except those named in the foregoing list, and the ticket was voted through ut his whole city. It is, therefore, a fair test of strength of the American party, and a fair test of strength of the American party, and an exhibition of the weakness of allour enumies. It has been suggested by those opposed to our cause that the majority given for the American noniness at the research election, has been great-ly reduced, non-true dris fact indicates a falling off in strength. To this, we reply, that in the spring election of 1854, the whigs, as a bady, voted the American ticker, and this fact increas-ed the majority which we given for us. In 1855, the whigs, as a party, strength of all connection the whigs, as a party, repudited all connection with our principles, and united with the demo with our principles, and united with the demo crats and naturalized duizens in an effort to prerent our success. The combination proved wholly unavailing at the recent election, and showed that our strength had increased sufficiently in a ingle year to overcome the united opposition. We can confidently assert that our numbers are sufficiently adequate to make the success of our ticket in the city of Philadelphia becenfier cartain, without reference to the churse that the op ents of our dostrines may take. We would here state that we do not desire to be uderstood as complaining of the course which our opponents thought proper to pursue. It was American sentiments would meet upon common ground to prevent the success of our candidates. It was, however, the first instance in which the fine, he would be handed with these foreigners and Roman Catbolies, in opposition to the great American party. But so it is—his valling any bitm han overleaped itself. natural to suppose that those who were hostile to Spring flowers, spring birds, spring broose Are tell, and heard, and seen ; Light trembling tenneport suizes My heart-with sighs between ; These old eachantments fill the mind Wish secons and sectors for behind ; Childheed, its smiles and tears, Youth, with its flash of years, his morning clods and deny prime, More exquisitely touched by Time.

Fancies again are springing. Like May-flowers in the value ; Waile flopes, long lost, are singing, From thorns, like nightingules ; And kindly spirits stir my blood, From the Like vernal airs, that curi the flood : There fails to manhood's lot, A joy, which youth has not, A dream, more beautiful than truth, Returning spring, renewing youth.
