

If paid strictly in advance, two dollars per annum...

ADVERTISEMENTS not exceeding sixteen lines...

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 12th, 1855.

PUNYAN'S MONTHLY.—We are indebted to the publishers...

Irving's Life of Washington; Birds; What Cheer; Victor Galbraith; Plant-Mummies; Rural Objects in Europe and America; How I came to like Diamonds...

THE NATIONAL AMERICAN.—We have received this paper, just published at Richmond, Va. It is quite handsomely printed and very ably conducted.

CYRENUS.—There is no country in the world where a foreigner can acquire the privileges of citizenship as cheaply and easily as in this—indeed it is made too cheap for the good and safety of the country.

Here, where the privilege of becoming a citizen might be more highly valued than anywhere else on the globe, we do not hesitate to grant it indiscriminately to foreign-born adventurers...

OPINIONS OF MR. JEFFERSON.—But are there no inconveniences to be thrown into the scale against the admission of a multitude of foreigners?

THE UNITED STATES GENERAL, BAYON ROUGE, LOUISIANA.—The Bayon Rouge Advertiser furnishes the annexed interesting account of the United States Arsenal at that place.

One of the largest arsenals of deposits in the United States is the one at this place. The grounds for the arsenal are laid out in an area of twenty seven acres, and are laid out with great taste.

Such was the warning of Thomas Jefferson's great aptitude of Liberty, and how completely have his predictions been fulfilled!

THE UNITED STATES GENERAL, BAYON ROUGE, LOUISIANA.—The Bayon Rouge Advertiser furnishes the annexed interesting account of the United States Arsenal at that place.

One of the largest arsenals of deposits in the United States is the one at this place. The grounds for the arsenal are laid out in an area of twenty seven acres, and are laid out with great taste.

Such was the warning of Thomas Jefferson's great aptitude of Liberty, and how completely have his predictions been fulfilled!

THE UNITED STATES GENERAL, BAYON ROUGE, LOUISIANA.—The Bayon Rouge Advertiser furnishes the annexed interesting account of the United States Arsenal at that place.

One of the largest arsenals of deposits in the United States is the one at this place. The grounds for the arsenal are laid out in an area of twenty seven acres, and are laid out with great taste.

Such was the warning of Thomas Jefferson's great aptitude of Liberty, and how completely have his predictions been fulfilled!

North-Carolina Star. VOLUME XLVI. RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 18, 1855. NUMBER 28.

From the Register. Mr. Ennis: I am not a Know Nothing, at least, in the sense of being one of the association...

Such as the facts in the case, and they prove how grossly Mr. Kayser has been misled by the Standard, which it charges him with being the ally of abolitionists.

These resolutions expressly condemn agitation and further agitation, and are the subject of the institution of slavery, which sentiment I shall presently show to be the hearty approval of the Washington Union, the Democratic organ at the seat of government...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

ROMANISM VS. PROTESTANTISM.

That all Protestants are heretics, and that the Pope has the right to wield the civil power for their extermination, are settled principles for the protestant system. Let it but gain the power then, and our civil and religious institutions would soon fall before its power.

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

It is evident that these considerations have had but little weight with the great mass of the Protestant community. In ascribing our interests, instead of our feelings, to the American people, we are rather disposed to limit our survey to our own favored country, and thereby shutting out from our vision the true source of danger, wealthy colonialism...

ARRIVAL OF THE NORTHERN LIGHT.

The steamer Northern Light arrived at her wharf in New York about 8 o'clock last Sunday evening, bringing, dates from San Francisco to the 16th ult, with 457 passengers and 822,000 in gold.

Among the passengers is Mr. Wheeler, the American Minister to Nicaragua, who brings two important treaties.

The Northern Light connected at Sierra Nevada with the mail carrier Golden Gate, which left San Francisco on the 16th of June, with $1,063,000 on freight.

One of the most important items of news is the confirmation of Bolton & Bartow's claims by the land commissioners, embracing 15,000 acres of land, lying mostly within the corporate limits of San Francisco, and covering the whole southern part of the municipality.

The large loss of the town of Auburn is said to have amounted to a loss of about $250,000. The ship Metropolitan which sunk in her dock on the day the last mail left was raised two days after.

Twenty small frame houses and six brick houses, situated on the square bounded by Depot, Jackson, Stockton and Washington streets, in San Francisco, were destroyed by fire on the 13th—loss $40,000.

Lois Mott left San Francisco on the 6th of June on the bark Fanny Major bound to Australia, where she will take the stage, and then go to Europe.

The four mills in California, now in operation, are supposed to be able to turn out 4,000 barrels of flour per day.

The mines are yielding abundant gold in all parts of California, the weather having been very favorable for both digging and washing. The gold production of 1855 is said to equal if not exceed any previous year.

The Know Nothings have been defeated in Oregon. Lane, the Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress is elected by 2,000 majority.

Purser Hatch informs us that the wharves in Central America are more disturbed than heretofore. Captain Walker having received reinforcements at Hualqui, landed at Pico, fourteen miles from San Juan del Sur, on the 27th ult, with 375 men, and is reported to have taken Kivas, and then entered San Juan del Sur, carrying off the ammunition collected there with out opposition.

The town of San Juan del Norte has again been organized under the lead of T. J. Martin, the late Mayor.

Highly important—Cabinet in session four hours—Picochilings not made public.

Washington, July 9.—A Cabinet meeting was held this afternoon. The session lasted over four hours. All the members were present, and it is understood they were engaged on business which has accumulated during the President's absence.

Secretary Dublin goes to the Virginia Red Sulphur Springs to-morrow.

Cushing is expected to leave Washington very shortly.

LEXINGTON CELEBRATION. On Wednesday the 4th of July, the citizens of Davidson, had a celebration in honor of the completion of the North Carolina Railroad to that place.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA.

THE NORTH CAROLINA BIRTH BOOK. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

The Indians are reported to have killed six white men at Klamath reservation, and six others in Illinois valley.

The mines are yielding abundant gold in all parts of California, the weather having been very favorable for both digging and washing.

The four mills in California, now in operation, are supposed to be able to turn out 4,000 barrels of flour per day.

The mines are yielding abundant gold in all parts of California, the weather having been very favorable for both digging and washing.

The Know Nothings have been defeated in Oregon. Lane, the Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress is elected by 2,000 majority.

Purser Hatch informs us that the wharves in Central America are more disturbed than heretofore.

Highly important—Cabinet in session four hours—Picochilings not made public.

Washington, July 9.—A Cabinet meeting was held this afternoon. The session lasted over four hours. All the members were present, and it is understood they were engaged on business which has accumulated during the President's absence.

Secretary Dublin goes to the Virginia Red Sulphur Springs to-morrow.

Cushing is expected to leave Washington very shortly.

LEXINGTON CELEBRATION. On Wednesday the 4th of July, the citizens of Davidson, had a celebration in honor of the completion of the North Carolina Railroad to that place.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

The Indians are reported to have killed six white men at Klamath reservation, and six others in Illinois valley.

The mines are yielding abundant gold in all parts of California, the weather having been very favorable for both digging and washing.

The four mills in California, now in operation, are supposed to be able to turn out 4,000 barrels of flour per day.

The mines are yielding abundant gold in all parts of California, the weather having been very favorable for both digging and washing.

NEW BOOKS.

A History of the United States, by J. A. Coates, Esq. of New York. A History of the United States, by J. A. Coates, Esq. of New York.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.

THE BOOK FOR EVERY MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA. It contains all the useful forms which occur in business transactions between men and men, as well as in official relations, together with the Constitution of North Carolina and the laws of that State.