North-Carolina Star. WILLIAM C. DOUB. SPITOS AND PROPERTOR.

TEBMS:

If paid strictly in advance, two dollars per an-name two dollars and fifty cents, if paid within all onthe, and three dollars at the end of the 704

AD VERTISEMBN73, not revealing sixteen by PERFECTION AND A DECEMBER OF AN ADDRESS OF ADDRESS O

rates the determine by the year. East and Joh Printing done with mentages an despatch, and on accommodating terms.

GENERAL DIRECTORY. CITY GOVEENMENT.

Wm; Dallas Haywood, Intendant of Police. Complicationers.

Middle Ward.-E. L. Harding, " Issue Proter. "E. Cantwell, Western Ward.—A. M. Gorman, H. D. Turner.

J. J. Christophers, City Clork,

A. M. Gorman, City Teas. A. M. Gorman, City Teas. City Gaard, James M. Crawley, <sup>14</sup> Jackson Overby, City Constables. —Edward Harris. William Andrews. A. Adams, Weighmaster. P. Hawle Clark Machine M.

E. Harris, Clerk of the Mar-claimed:

"Sentinel!" "Your pleasure, sir?"

of his General.

Bowing respectfully, the guard withdrew up the fullest confidence of his commander.

COURTS.

The Supreme Court of North Carolina i- seld is this city semi-annually, on the second A aday in June, and the 30th day of December "Confusion to them! can in June, and the 30th day of December Jadgez.-Hon. Frederick Nash, Chiet Justice, R. M. Pearson, Ausociate udge, W. H. Battle, Edmand B. Freeman, Clerk: Ham. C. Jones, Reporter; J. J. Litzliford, Sr., Marshall, The United States Circuit Court for the Dis-triet of North Carolina is held semi-annually in this city, on the 1st Monday in June and the last Mardet in November. he is the favored one." Monday in Novembe

Judges .- Hon. J. M. Wayne, of Georgia; Hor y P. dter, of Fayetteville; District Attorney * P. Dick; Clerk, Wm. II. Haywood, Sr. all, Wesley Jones. a Superior Coart for this County, is held on Monday after the fourth Monday in

cath i stra

More Clerk, Decision, Austreev General and Solic-erry Judicial District, To Const of Plans and Quarter Services in For Const of Plans and Quarter Services in the third Monday in February, May, cover and Normahor, Jeff, Utley, Clerk, Chairmon of the County Court, ---William Boy-

C anty Sedicitor -K. P. Marriott.

Sheriff of Bake County-William H. High. Caroner-Willin Scott. Register .- 11, Huteon, BANKS.

Bank of the State of North Carolina, incorpo-ted 1830. Charter expires in 1860. Capital 1202,000, divided into 15,000 shares of which the Laterary Board holds 5,027 and the Univer 1960.

Principal Bank at Baleigh. Gauge W. Mordeval, President. Charles Dyney, Cashiez. J. H. Bryns, Jr., Teiler and Notary Public. W. E. Anderson, Discount Clerk and Notary

andan Womble, Jr., Clerk.

This Banks as branches at Newbern, Tarboro Faynieville, Wilaington, Elizabeth City, Char Late, Milton, Morganicas and Windsor.

On the part of the State : D. W. Courts, Pol-Trecourse, exofficio, L. O'B. Branch and W.

b. Proce. On the part of the Stockholders : Wm. Boylan, Wm. Proce, J. H. Bryan, J. B. G. Roulhas, Al local Junes and B. F. Shorre. Chering and Researd day.—Theoday. Chering and Researd day.—Theoday. Chering and Researd day.—Theoday. Demons of Bills and Bills of Exchange discount-every day. Dusing hours from 10 till 2 o'clock.

Raleigh Branch of the Bank of the Cape Four

 William H. Jones, Cashler,
 R. P. Frich, Teller and Notary Public.
 Dimerrosco-fiest, W. Haywood, T. H. Selby, and Gauge Little, Dr. Thos. - Heggs
 W. Hottelians W D. Hutchings. Ing Lay Monitay, Discount day Tuesday The young Lieutenant's features paled quickly

VOLUME XLVL Miscellaneous.

CLARA LELAND OR THE TORY'S DEFEAT, A STORY OF THE REVOLUTION.

BT "CROWOUTLL." "Your excellency, Dave Watson and his Tory gang have burned Mr. Leiand's dwelling, and arried himself and family away as centizes?" Soon were the stating words of a rough un-couth countryman, as he rushed plat the sentine! stationed at the entrance, into the private apart-ment of General Purnum, who at that time was in command of a portion of the American ar-

The person who had made so unceremonion The person who had made so the reaction of an entrance, had wildouly come in the greatest of haste, as the perspiration was streaming pro-fusely from him, and his breathing seemed short and difficult. Drawing a solid and well-worn cotton handkerchief from his pocket, he proceeded to wipe off the enormous quantity of sweat that had collected upon his face, and this done, he seated himself in a chair standing cear. At his words, the person whom he addressed leaped his words, the person whom he addressed leaped to his feet, and In a voice that attested the interest that he took in what was being related ex-

"Dave Watson, again! when did this take place?" "Last night, sir," "And you offered no resistance?" "We did, but the villaina were too nemeroda for us; Williams Parker, myself, and a number fortune, without the least reserve." When Watson commenced speaking, Clara vas latending to give him a mild but decided reof others arrived just as they were securing their captives, but they had ten men to our one, and "Confusion to them! can we never rid the country of this nest of tories? Where is Lieut emant Milton; methinks he has the right to pro-tect the fair Clara, for if report speaks the truth, "Go call Lieatent Milton. Tell him my busi ness is urgent." thought that be intended exactly the reverse from or has functed the heavy work, and left in what he mid, and only expressed his angle in conglements, that the world in g need, and so and harmless manner, "Of course, we shall -rays be pleased to see you !"

in arvee, it gave free scope for his cowardly

He collected together a number of lawless his errand: and while he is gone, we will describe a little more minutely the person he is in quest Watson seized his fait and rushed from the none, woving within himself to repay the cruel insuit all the size of his betters which extinut be char Ralph Milton was a young Lieutenant in the American army; he had entered a private soldier but his well timed bravery during battle had raised him in the estimation of his superiors, and raised him in the estimation in he was enjoying at the time of which we write, he was enjoying out of the doomsed dwelling, they prevented them from leaving the spot until they should become Mountaine, he encounted inself in ral Putnam was correct in his supposition of the young Lieutenant being the favored one, for Clara Leland had promised to leatow her i, and on the youn, woldler, as soon as the great contest should terminate, and both were waiting patiently for the time to come that would reader them both happy for life. But every thing looked do We left Balnh Milton and his party moving controling that he presently falls into an unce couraging, for since the defeat of the American forces at Brandywine, a settled gloom pervades the hearts of the American people. And this could not be wondered at, for besides re-inforce ments arriving to succor their engines, their own ountry people were turning against them, and orking the royal protection by hundreds. This seeking the royal protection by hundreds. This was the state of all airs at the time of our sketch. the smooth surface, at a speed that restified their your for proof. . has a long proof a strategy of a speed that restment their from the proof . In more all that every thing depended on their own strong limbs. Form the roof, and is usually a nondescript place. Ere long the sentinel re-entered the room fol-lowed by a young man of about twenty five years of age. His features were regular in their out-line, and would onvey to the stranger's mind an idea of the nobleness of nature which their ownor passessed. He use drassed in the uniform of an American officer, and as he entered he bowed respectfully to his superior in command, and removing his hat, stood awaiting the pleasure of his General. "Limitenant Milton, I have a mission for you to execute, and if report is to be credited you will not find it an unplemant one. I have just connect from our friend here, that the not-cross-tory loa lor, Dave Watson, hus Loon execution some of his cowardly work upon the person and property of a man whom, if I mistake not, you would be noxious to shield from harm. Accord-ing to the statement. Watson with about fifty of "It's them?" exclaimed Milton in a law harried and a failure to correct their " galleys" is sure to his gong proceeded to the dwelling of Mr Leland ed the touse and carried the old gentle with his wife and daughter away to some of the secret hidings. Now what I wish of you is to rescare our old friend, even if you follow this fiend in human shape to the end of the earth .-Now I do not doubt your skill in that matter but be cautious, for one false step might min all the difficulties between his own people and thear | AFTER MIDSIGNT IN THE OFFICE OF MORNING NEWSPAPER

North Carolina Star.

These who are not familiar with the details of He collected together a number of lawless characters, for the acovering perpose of helping to quell the rebellion which was showing heef in a protect to cloak his real objects, for soon the mame of the topy leader, "Date Watson," because fourfully noticious, and he was known to be one fearfully noticious, and he was known to be one of the most crued desperadoes that over disgraped a country, or maide the least proceedings from the Leland family, since he did not wish to be disgraced in the cycri of Chars, that four full that time might not add anything to be desired to his character, he determined to bring matters to his character, he determined to bring matters to an the home items are collected and embelished end, by making an offer of his hand to Miss Le-according to the fancy of "the Local," and evland; and with this purpo e in view, he directed bis steps towards the sturdy old whig's home. His call for admittance was answered by Cla-raberself, and he was invited to come in, an invi- left for the evening and frequently the " we sum Ta harson, and ne was noticed to come in, an intra-tation that he was noticept. Everything was arranged as he would have de-sired; Mr. Lefand was engaged in out of doors work, and Mrs. Lefand was basily employed in another room. After quite a number of hows and other like demonstrations of "great plenstre in seeing Miss Leland in the eef yment of good health," he took the profered chair and com-"Miss Leland, I came here for the purpose of in the morning; concert trongs desire last even-onoring you with an offer of my heart, hand and ing's "est nordinary encouse and unparallebed fusal; but when he came to the last chanse, the nature, persist in occurring late at night and ex-"Miss Leland is pleased to be merry at my expense!" exclaimed he, endeavoring to suppress the chagrin he felt. "And as my company dees not seem agreeable, I will take my leave, but not without assuring you that I shall make another comicality of the thing cau-ed a smile to appear upon her features, which she could not conceal the expectation of hearing all about the "extenstowl that the proprietor has "Do so, by all means?" returned Chara who aught that he intended exactly the reverse from of has finished the heavy work, and left in the Losy in mulcular will writhe under the With a curse of disapped atment upon his fina; wrought mus the mentiong's leader, the sub-edito

he had received. And he fulfilled his your to the ed to the "devis" and account, the man will letter, for as has already been told, he, with claims more credit for $11 and wishin, than anomber of his associates surrounded the house receives, and receives a fair intermingling of Mr. Leland, after the family had refred, put curses and complianants, alour remaining hour fire to it, and as fast as their victims came from sent the last line of copy to the companing room aware that their once happy home was pass being speed. After their work was finished, the incenfinites mounted their horsts and guided them lite board, and tries to on sole northward, and ere mog the last one of the cav-la sight that some day he shall rise abave hi dende was hidden from the view by the dense ent condition, and beranked with those who rapidly in the direction o which the tary going tain with distances, fo at which the tar-had been seen to zo. No a word or sound passed of the cell tolling the tour of twelve, arous-the lips of the little band of Whigs, and their prime should necessary a descense of the cell tolling the tour of twelve. After a de-house needed to extra arging, for they seemed ardly to teach the ground, and skinamed over prove this declaration proceeds to the comp on their own strong limbs. "Should you think we were coming near to Printers have limbit of dutting out show para quest-med our hers of the honest course graphy, little mints of rhyme and courle pi tryman, who was riding by his side. "It would be hard saying," returned the oth which they past up near their cases, and from r. "If they had any suspicion of being fit time. On entering he finds the foremon, who is lowed, they have probably travelled at a privity always the test man to itage the dire, hending we dispess i finet they cannot be far from us." "List?" spoke the young leader in a low deep "List?" spoke the young leader in a low deep binself, and giver orders to "barry up the mat-orsener."

Each man bent his ear, and remained silent in his sphere, and his authority, like that of a country set administry is often enforced by an approximation body reached the cars of the listening peak to "rules" and "sticks." The mee who stand their cases are dependent on him.for " s.is, me. "Left each man secrete himself, it will not be published by a broant discharge. The foreman to meet them upon equal grounds with the is a consequential man, for he knows that it is in re. The foreman parity of our numbers -we must let them pass and then overpower them by means of a sur-

At length the party of horsemen came up to there the de achment of Americans had been a chere the de achment of Americans had been a ther did not fear, or considered themselves en-ther did not fear, or considered themselves en-But at midnight tirely free from any pursuing party: for they im- everything drags heavily. The eyes become weamediately selected a good convenient place, and commenced making preparations for encamping through the night.

Three is no co

place, that a the commen wort of fire you not, par han my frankness, that any man can error segar or nose with, and then that's fax eits a Church to such a course without political delinquency which I will not, characterize as I think it deserves. This you addressed your re-marks upon the American party generally, hav-ing individual inculiers of the M. S. Church South, to be latinenced by your memores, in common with other partakers in the polical incrests of the United States, I should have thought you were doing what you had a right to do however I might differ with you as to the correctness of the yows presented in that Address. If you did not feel constrained by a consciousness of the drone to the wrong you were doing in making such an Ad-drose, I am surprised that your knowledge of Methodists had not led you to forbear. Nearly hity years of presty intrustes and excessive ne-quaintance with them, satisfies me, that there is community of men who would shrink with uoie borror and disgust from an attempt to drill them into anything like concert, in political ac-tion, than they. No mundamus of a Bishop-no influence of a Presiding Elder-no degmatism, or dictation of learned Doctors, ever can, I think, way them from their self elected mourse. Nav -their jualousy, for their political independence not unfrequently residers them deaf even the aran ather noil in the color of all that is valuable in the poculiar lot of a Southernac's Respectfully and effectionately.

injected in. Why, then, the oneer "Shall she use injected if. Wiry, fact, and sections, and then can the contribution of last confidentials, and then can been acquaintance and drive them of b<sup>(1)</sup> its access in me which graduations. You are servy probably merred in one surpose tion, in this conjection — That free grave, aspect-ally English and Irish, covering here there there any no from and from, eccurded but. Marsachu-tha with a view to "samalit her in her efforts in overthrow the Governman" of the United Starts, by the trimersh of Abolitaniasan and unit flow some with "the impression that her field is and everypointies were in unless with their a mar-Alize were near all imprigrants from her postry, from solicitation, and most of public from in the every thorough-going Abalitations, Well, User, might the fainties of Ma sadius-the calculate on the

Then, no leisure days, no that of comparative days, no that of comparative days, no that for other sources and there are excited at the tory participation. And the other sources and there are as eventy distributed in the busines of each business and there are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and there are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and there are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and there are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and there are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and there are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and there are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and the sources are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and the sources are as eventy distributed in the business of each business and the sources are as eventy distributed in the business and there are as eventy distributed in the business and there are as eventy distributed in the business of the sources are to some into conflict with you business that are business and there are as eventy distributed in the business and there are as eventy distributed in the business and there are as eventy distributed in the business and there are as eventy distributed in the business and there are as eventy distributed in the business and there are as eventy from the participations. The Brandon (Miss.) Beginter, reports the there are a provided at the tory of a subary to row any business and there are as event are as event and and there are as a source are distributed at the tory of a subary from a subary from the participations of a subary from the participation of a subary form the participation of a subary form the participation of the subary as a deep the there are as a subary from the participation of the subary are as a subary of the subary and the subary are as a subary of the subary as a deep the there are as a subary form the participation of the subary are as a deep the there a The Breadences of About a management, and we will be a main service of the servic

Although I'm Capting of the flat built that lies at a tubor grine to tell you are farmed with the set of the Sorie construction of the accorditable organization of this new p degree, otherwise them as Abeliationet. This op-on Massachusette Lie barden of foreign Pous-ism of which the New Organization was devised, you think, to relieve her. If you did intend to class this organization among Abaliting devices, you did it not only without remain, bui dimenty in the technoly your average the standard of the origin of this party, which your as to be a so to inite. Were Foreigners allered to Massachments do unuse of their well known American tendentials unuse of their well known American tendencies; and would the Abelitionste organize a party to deprive themselves of an increase of some One Hundred Thomand Yetes numerally, by profibi-ing their Naturalization 7 And this, two, among shrewd, minutating Ya kees? The upposition is ridicalously abord. Every reading man known that Foreign Immigrants are, with vary few ex-ceptions, Abelitionists from Educating with ware to almost equally from interast. The only re-tource of most othern is there out labor. Damind Sinvery, from the United States, and there would lie no instant demand, for the free induce of all to an instant depand for the free labor of al least a Million. This is a fast which foreigners can understand ; however little they can undercan understand; however little they can under-stand of Political Philosophy. This append of interest, coming in aid of these Abolition educa-tion, renders almost every astarable for interest there a vertain ally of the Abolition party. If we work, if the process of Naturalizing fortunets continue, will the Abolitionists by able to modiffy the Constitution to said their very metarable and inconditions are a short their very metarable and Incendiary purposes, against the Siarcholding States? Rivery Southernman, who advocates o-hilinumbee of the maturalization of foreigners appears to me as with a deaven dage the point, with more and still more for the very vitals of his own interest and safet Every new soter, so made, may be regar

Your old friend and Brother, WILLIAM WINANS.

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 5. 1855.

which, no leisure days, no thus of comparative use. And yet there is an excitement about this toil in which every attache of the office, from the editor-in-chief to the errand bay participates.— Every structure to the errand bay participates.—

and self snarificing denotion to principle in print in the morning; concern troups desire fast even-ing's "ext undinary scoress and unparalleben tramph" recorded in the morning's journal by the editor, who always expresses an antisised opinion; fires, through scare percentity in their nature, persist in occurring late at mich and an cord — in the fast place, that's the sperits as an folks call floars, and then that's the sperits as such of urpentine, and then that's the sperits as such of urpentine, and then that's the sperits as such of urpentine, and then that's the sperits as such of them kind uv sperits on any flat hoat as ever a great many other kind of sperits, for the tex s-"He played on a harp uv a t-hatrings — species us just men made perfork." But Fill tell you the kind of species as is meant may readily error. They's the kind of species as is neart in the tex, my breethring. Now, that's a to "modelle with politicar," but, I do not deflere great many kinds of five in the world. In the that a Church organization, has my such right, ight your segar or pipe with, and then that's fox and fall back, and fire away Flamigan, and many other kinds of fire, for the tex says-"He played upon a harp uv a thousand strings-specits of st urch mails perfect." Bu: I'll tell you the kind of fire as is meant in e tes, my broethring-it's mus runt an' that's is fire as a great many ur you'll come to, ef you better nor what you have been doin'for "He played upon a harp uv a those and strings --speri s of just men made perfork."

w the different & toof fi - in the world may he litered unto the different personations of Chris-tians in the world. In the first phase, we have the Pise palans, an' they are a highfulatio set, and they may be likened, anto a bernard that they are into the air, and he goes up and up, til he looks us bigger than your finger noll, as fast thing he knows he came down and down, and down and down, and is fillin' himself on the carkage of a dead mass by the side of the road -and "He played on a barp us a thousand strings -species us just men made p-rfeek."

And then that's the Mathodis, and they may be likened unto the squirrel, runnin' up into a tree, for the Methodis heleaves in gring on from ne degree of grace to another, and finally on t ione degrees of graces to another, and finally on to perfection, not' the scaltrai grees up and up, and but jumps from imb to limb, and branch, to benace, and the fast thing yea know he fails, and deern he comes kerdumus, and that's like the --and "He played on a harp uv a theoreman stringe--speria uv just mean made perfect." And then, my breethring, thar's the Baptists alt and they have been likened unto a possum on a 'simmon tree, and the thunders may roll and the earth may quake, but that mean medicing to the common tree, and the thunders may roll and the earth may quake, but that mean medicing to the common tree, and the thunders may roll and the earth may quake, but that mean medicing to the common tree, and the thunders may roll and the earth may quake, but that mean medicing the that common tree, and the thunders may roll and the earth may quake, but that mean medicing the the common tree and the thunders are may roll and the earth may quake, but that mean medicing the common tree and the thunders may roll and the earth may quake, but that mean medicing that the played the thunders are made such an a difference that and the setting the thunders are may roll and the setting the played the the thus the that the mean the participation the the played the that the the the the the setting the the the the the the the setting the the the setting the

and the surth may thuy still all and you may slake one for loose, and the other's thar, and you may slake all foot brown, and he has he tail round the linb, and be charge factorer-ing "He played an a harp uva there succeeded in arraying your Church against the Know Nuthing', you have, intuy opinion, by making such an Aldress, dans harm to the er

1.它不不已段 FROM

NUMBER 46

ry, no matter what that party may be. My history is an ample evidence that I consider is the right of Christians and Preachers of the Gospel think it deserves. Had you addressed your re-

the test tarpitude with this attempt to enlist a Chirch researd organization in a crusade against a political par-

RAIL ROADS. Balsigh and Gaston Railcoud Company, A. Cradup, President, ", Yass, Fremuent, Pool, Assistant Treasurer,
 B. Allen, Depot Agent,
 Multitain heaves 10 minutes after 7 A. M., renewat 61 P. M.

North Carolina Knilroad Company. Chas, F. Feder, President. douhall, Tr. asurer C. P. Mesideniall, Treasurer. J. T. West, Preight and Ticket Agent. Mail train arrives 5 o'clock, A. M., from the East; and departs 10m. after 50'clock, A. M. Mail from the West arrives at 32 minutes af-ter 10'clock, P. M. Departs at 20 minutes be-fure 5 o'clock, P. M.

POST OFFICE. William White, Sr., Post Muster, Office hours, on week days, from Son-rise to P. M.

TRAVELLER'S GUIDE.

-

(ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF WAILS AT RALEIGE

NORTHERN MAIL-(B	T BATLROAD,]
through Mail closes daily	at 6] a. m
Way Mail 4	at 9 p. m
Arzives daily "	at 61 p. m
The Care Incom the depot	84 6 A. III
SOUTHERN MAIL-(Br	Two-monst HACK, Junes daily	at § p. in)
Arrives daily	at 6 p. m
Cho Hack inaves	at 71 p. m
WESTERN MAIL-(B)	RAILMIAN,)
Totes dally	at 9 p. m.
Arrives daily	nt 41 p. m.
The Train Inaves.	si 14 p. m.
OOLDSHORD MAIL-(Br B	ALLAGAS.)
Charles dally,	at 9 p. m
Arrives daily	at 5 a.m.
The Cars leaves dally at	10m after 5-a. at
TARBORO MAIL-(BrT)	TO-HORAR HAURA)
Ci Sauday, Tues, and T	bur, at 9 p. m.
A Tuesday, Thurs. and	Sat. at 7 p. m
Hack Ingvinces Mon. Wed. and	Fil. at 3 a. in
PITTSBORD' MAIL-IBy 7	WREN-ISSNESS HACK
Closes on Tuesday and Sat	urday, as 9 p. m.
Arrives on Munitay and Thurs	day, at. 7 p. w.
Hack leaves on San, and We	d sheat 7. a. m

Colored Galvers. This shows mentioned Boots and Shows will be sold al. the lowest market prizes: Call and economic these al. Bit is BY SAW. Cod. 6, 1915.

as the stirring words fell upon his ear, and turn

"That was impossible, as they were mounted on the best of steeds, while we were on foot." It did not take long for our hero to arrange his plans, and with a speed that showed him to be no novice in the matter he had undertaken, he had about thirty picked men well armed and mounted eady for the parsuit.

"Row many did yon say there were of them!" estioned Ralph Milton of his stranger guide. "Fifty, or there-abouts," was the answer. "Oh over mind the small difference in number ?" hroke in an old trooper. "One good whig is a match for six tories, make the best of them." And with a light laugh at the old soldier's just

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

S. plondid Stock of Goods, was a provinced with a complete state of a second was an encoder a state of the land.
S. plondid Stock of Goods, the second state of the seco ough the night. the cases and a sert of gloom pervades the "I say, Dave, what in the dence do you intend which begets an anastural faching as anota

y or assistance I" retorted the other in an anary y ar assistance I" retorted the other in an anary is perpetually emoking, has drawn his last whiff, and "puffed his last volume," not now hange sleenive over the back of the only chair which the office affords. The staid solar printer, who counts which was instantly followed by the counts himself wise because he does not bargh at port of a score of well-aimed ritles. "flur ah for the Continental Congress! Give them fits !" burst from a dozen brave hearts, and before the bewildered Tories could recover from the first shock of the attack, they found themselves sughly grappled by a determined body of men, hich the death-dealing rifles had readered nearly their equals in nomber.

But such a contest could not last long, for it.

as the stirring words fell upon his ear, and turns ing to the messenger, who was looking on with a paraled air, he exclaimed: "Tan sir, to the method be party to det "Yan sir, to the method be not the party to the "Yan sir, to the method be party to be an indicated one of the party to the "Yan sir, to the method be direction the party took." "Yan sir, to the method be direction the party took." "I can attend to my own affairs without my of "I can attend to my own affairs without my own affairs without my own affairs without my own affairs without my own attend to my own affairs without my own affairs without my o poor jokes, and quote doubtful poetry, has pro-nounced slowly and solemnly the last words of his equy, and now proceeds systematically to frotted himself into comparatively good nature; and now all are done work save the foreman --

His duties are soon finished. The matter in its ber 7 hruke in an okt trooper. "One good whig is a match for six tories, make the best of them." And with a light laugh at the old soldier's just the party moved bivards the spot designated by the messenger. And while the little hand of pa-tigeak of a matter, of which the reader has a yet had hat in scense in the the ord soldier's part, the matter in the the spot designated by the messenger. And while the little hand of pa-tigeak of a matter, of which the reader has a yet han half of their number were floring through the farest, seeking protection of the overshanging best of a matter, of which the reader has a yet

ROME.

We publish below, from the Freeman's Jouraiou of persons for the Catholic ministry in this unity. A College at Roser for Americans 7. A country. A College at from to discrete a capital bles it is, and we have no doubt it will be promptly and faithfully earled out by the Pope's quake, but that means clings he could away them collectively. If not, why AMERICAN CATHOLIC COLLEGE AT ECOME as other men," when circumstances combine agalust him.

We publish below, from the Preeman's source nul-Arch-Bishop Hughes' organ-part of an ediet of the Pope of Rome touching the establish-ment of an American Catholic College at Rome by the Catholics of the United States for the third and the wise and good that belonged to by the Catholics of the United States for the third at the second provided to by the Catholics of the United States for the third at the second provided to the Catholics of the United States for the ethi-thy the Catholics of the Catholic ministry in this and better then mlus, but, so far as my knowl-edge of this and other Parties is concerned, this sensure, for censure, I pre-ome, you intended it to be upon the Know Nonhings-- has no foundation in fact. So far as I have youd their writings and speeches they have not displayed a more ap-titude to claim respect from others on account of

and the second s

For several years past our country has Loca fosted with numerous possilential issue, neurost which the Demonstic party maged war with va-rious porcess. At last all these sile and about-satile issue were brought meetine—these fungue productions of corrupt and rotten hearts—thating one gigantic issue, called force Noteconycon. N. C. Munderd, The above is taken from that vile and most corrupt of all the lacon from prints, the "N. C. Standard" of ball morals. Wondow if the Oid Whig party, led by Henry Ciny, at the bare men-tion of where name, B(6 Holden's "bart" (we doubt his having a beart) was "filled" to bursting." was one of the "issue" the remeader to ? "At last all three vile and also during for 1 "At loss and these these and assessment in the second second and perform these fuel gas productions of correspin and retries line (to only only ending). However, this many Bill Holden is, to talk show "morring and rotten bill Holden is, to talk show "morring and rotten bill for the loss is in a beat?" himself it is so "corrupt and ratio" as to antire-ly onfit him to be a judge of the note of decent