

ADVERTISEMENTS not exceeding sixteen lines for the first insertion...

GENERAL DIRECTORY. CITY GOVERNMENT. Wm. Dallas Haywood, Intendant of Police.

COURTS. The Supreme Court of North Carolina is held in this city semi-annually on the second Monday in June...

BANKS. Bank of the State of North Carolina, Incorporated 1820. Capital $1,500,000. Divided into 15,000 shares...

RAILROADS. North Carolina Railroad Company. Chas. F. Fisher, President.

TRAVELLER'S GUIDE. (ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF RAILS AT RALEIGH NORTHERN MAIL—(BY RAILROADS). Through Mail leaves daily at 6 1/2 a. m.

Southern Mail—(By Two-Horse Hack). Close daily at 9 p. m. Arrives daily at 11 p. m.

Western Mail—(By Railroad). Close daily at 9 p. m. Arrives daily at 11 p. m.

Gold-Spring Mail—(By Railroad). Close daily at 9 p. m. Arrives daily at 11 p. m.

Barbours Mail—(By Two-Horse Hack). Close on Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday at 9 p. m.

Splendid Stock of Goods. We are now receiving the largest stock of single and double-breasted suits...

Boots, Gaiters and Shoes. M. H. Evans, Boot and Shoe Maker, Raleigh, N. C.

Miscellaneous.

Out of Work. BY EVANCE CURR, JR. 'It's no use, Maria, I've tried everywhere. But you are not going to give it up, are you?'

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 20, 1866.

Then it is more honorable to lay still and starve, and see one's children starve, than to earn honest bread by honest work. I tell you, Peter, if you cannot find work, I must go.

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

Then it is more honorable to lay still and starve, and see one's children starve, than to earn honest bread by honest work. I tell you, Peter, if you cannot find work, I must go.

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

Then it is more honorable to lay still and starve, and see one's children starve, than to earn honest bread by honest work. I tell you, Peter, if you cannot find work, I must go.

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

Then it is more honorable to lay still and starve, and see one's children starve, than to earn honest bread by honest work. I tell you, Peter, if you cannot find work, I must go.

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

On the next day he earned over a dollar; and thus he continued to work for a week, at the end of which he had five dollars and twenty-five cents in his pocket...

was to talk together about it. I hardly needed for him to leave before I jumped on my horse and rode up to the window.

Personal Appearance of Washington. The following description of the appearance of the "Father of his Country" will be found interesting.

Major Lawrence Lewis asked his uncle what was the height of the great man. He replied, "In my best days, Lawrence, he was five feet and two inches in ordinary dress."

How Widow Westbrook "Took" the Sheriff. Some years since professional business threw me into the country for a long day's ride through a dreary pine wood country...

The History of Newspapers. The first newspaper was issued monthly in MS. Form, in the republic of Venice, and was called the Gazette, probably from a farthing...

Guano—Its History. Guano, as most people understand, is imported from the Pacific—mostly of the Chincha coast of the coast of Peru, and under the dominion of that Government.

Phosphoric Acid—Its History. Phosphoric acid is a substance which is found in nature in various forms, and is used in the manufacture of fertilizers.