NATIONAL AMERICAN TICKET.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, ANDREW JACKSON DONELSON, OF TENNESSEE.

FOR GOVERNOR. JOHN A. GILMER,

Congress did nothing last week except adjourn from day to day. The Cincinnati convention was in session, and the halls of the two houses were putting on their Summer attire. Washington will be a seething, boiling, political cauldren for the remainder of the session.

This tribunal met in this city on Monday last, all the justices, fwe believe, in attendance. The following is the list of young gentlemen licensed to practice Law in the County and Superior Courts of this State:—

North Carolina Coal.

We availed ourselves, on Saturday, of a polite invitation from Mr. Burns, to examine specimens of coal from the Deep River mines which he is daily using. The coal is a fine bright bituminou coal, free from all impurities, burns well, and leaves very little ash. One of the hands at the forge told us that two bushels of the Deep River Coal, were worth as much as three of the Virginia Coal. We understand that one of the sompanies on Deep River have expended $270,000 in opening their mine, and that they are now prepared to raise a ton a minute, and furnish it at nearly half the price of Northern Coal. Indeed Mr. Burns is so well convinced of the superiority, cheapness and excellence of the Chatham coal, that he is using it exclusively hauling it from the mines 40 miles distant in wagons. All these mines need is an outlet. They can supply enough to keep the road from Fayetteville, the navigation company on the Cape Fear and Deep River, and a road from the mines to this place, busy all the time. Indeed we learn that the Superintendent getting off their coal in all directions?

The Locofoco Numinees. The Locofoco National Convention that ass bled in Cincinnati last week, nominated James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, as their candidate for the Presidency, and J. C. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, for the Vice Presidency. The nomination of Mr. Buchanan was made on the 17th ballot, that of Mr. Breckenridge, on the 2nd .-Pierce was nowhere in the Convention, not having been able to secure a majority even at any ballot, which shows that all the great fuss made by the loc-force about his patriotism and nationality and such like, was only for Buncombe-

Of the nominees it is sufficient for the present to say they have both been violent partisans, and that there is nothing in the record and course of Mr. Buchanan that can recommend him to the sun pert of Southern conservatives, and particularly to the old line Whigs. They can neger, with soil respect, give their support to a man who refused to do justice to Henry Clay, during his life

The good understanding which has so long prevailed between the Irish Roman Catholics and the Locofoco party, by which Mr. Clay was defeated and Pierce elected in 1852, appears to be in some danger of interruption. We see that Archbishop Hughes's paper in New York Inshes the House of Representatives and particularly the Locofoco portion of it, for refusing to institute an inquiry into the killing of the waiter at Willard's by Mr. Herbert. The waiter was an Irish Roman Catholic and the organ "calls aloud for vengeance on the murderer." That sin, it says, is on the Democratic party, as a party, and accursed be he who helps such a party into power,

The Milledgeville (Ga.) Recorder, an old line Whig journal, which has up to this time refrained from taking a position on the Presidential question, comes out now in favor of Mr. Fillmore In referring to Mr. Haven's letter, it says:

It removes all doubts in regard to the position f Mr. Fillmore, and his acceptance of the nomi nation. Mr. F. always has stood by his country He will do so still. He will slak or swim with those national conservative Union men, who stood by him and the Constitution in 1850, and savedthe country from disruption and anarchy. Unless we greatly mistake the signs of the times, the country will now stand by him. Factions, section alism, fauaticism will war against him, but the sonest and patriotic enasses, who love country more than party, will rally to the support of Pillmore and Donulson, the people's candidates; and with the "Constitution and the Union" as their battle cry, they have in prospect a glorious vic-

But this amount is harely enough to defray current expenses; while there is the interest on the national debt to be paid, not to mention the principal, which at certain intervals must fall due and should be raid to save our national credit. But as we have before remarked, the democrats, (who are for economy and low duties,) have had over three years of administration and majorities in both Houses of Congress for two, but are incompetent or unwilling to reduce the heavy burthens of the people. Is it possible that members of Congress can sleep of nights, with such heavy and unnecessary bur thens on their constituents, much less find leisure to write namphlets on Presidential elections nine nonths beforehand, and before it is known who the caudidates are to be?

We wish our friends to read and inwardly digost what we have above presented; and thus seeing the evil complained of and knowing what the appropriate remedy is, let them bestir them selves for the contest-let them talk to their neighbors and impress them with the necessity of reforming the government. If there are those listless or asleep, let them arouse from their leth argy, shake off the dew drops that glisten on their garments, and let us all march forth to battle and to victory !

Gov. Brage, prior to his election to the chief office in the State, was by no means a popular man even in his own county. It is true that the people of Northampton sent him to the Legislature in 1842, but two years afterwards, when he was a candidate for re-election, he was beaten; and two years after, 1846, he was again a candidate, and was again besten.
