

TERMS. Subscription, three dollars per annum—half in advance. Persons residing without the State will be required to pay the amount of the year's subscription in advance.

CHEAP CASH STORE. The subscriber has been absent from Raleigh one month, in the city of New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, carefully examining the markets, and making his spring purchase of DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CAROLINA BEACON. And Metropolitan Omnibus. BY EDMUND S. ZEVELY.

The world is constantly changing. People are changing, and customs, manners and habits are changing. The arts and sciences are striding ahead in the way of improvement, dashing along our mountains, through rivers, and surrounding islands.

changed sheets—money taking to itself wings, and flying from you on all sides, and on all sides disagreeable sights, disagreeable sounds, and disagreeable people, which, altogether, would drive a man mad at home, but which are to be borne with forsooth, abroad, as the accidents of travel.

nomination of the President of the United States, contained in his message of 31st Oct 1791; and resolved, that they advise and consent to the appointment of the persons therein named, to the offices to which they are respectively nominated.

WM. H. HARRISON, of Indiana, to be Governor of Indiana. THOS. JEFFERSON. Wednesday, Dec. 17, 1805. The Senate resumed the consideration of the nominations contained in the message received from the President of the United States on the 5th instant and resolved that they advise and consent to the appointments of B. Livingston, M. M'Carey, P. Curtenius, P. D. Shenok, J. Barnes, W. W. Parker, J. Page, W. H. Harrison, etc. agreeably to their nominations respectively.

every quarter of the Union. He stated that he should be unable to reply to all the letters he received, if it were possible for him to dispense with sleep, the time spent at his meals, and all his domestic duties. Our political friends should forbear writing to him, as the tax has become almost insufferable.

HUGH McQUEEN, THOS. J. LEMAY, Editors. ate for supervisor is elected by a majority of 12. Last spring the Whig majority for Supervisor was 2—Whig gain 10. ALL HAIL SCHENCKSTADT! The Durpeans are true as steel, and give fire, who never it is wanted, like flints.

RALEIGH MAY 6, 1840.

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET.

- FOR PRESIDENT, WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, The invincible Hero of Tippecanoe—the incorruptible Statesman—the inflexible Republican—the patriot Farmer of Ohio.

FOR PRESIDENT, JOHN TYLER, A State Rights' Republican of the school of '99, one of Virginia's noblest sons, and emphatically one of America's most sagacious, virtuous and patriotic statesmen.

Resolved, That they do advise and consent to the appointments, agreeably to the nominations respectively. In the same journal, 1800, page 355, the following: 'UNITED STATES, May 12, 1800. Gentlemen of the Senate: I nominate WILLIAM H. HARRISON, of the North-west Territory, to be Governor of the Indiana Territory.

Resolved, That they do advise and consent to the appointment, agreeably to the nomination. In the same journal, 1803, page 441, the following: Friday, Feb. 3, 1803. The message of the President of the United States, communicated on the 2d February, was read as follows: Gentlemen of the Senate: I nominate, etc., W. H. HARRISON, to be Governor of Indian Territory, from the 13th day of May next, when his present commission as Governor will expire.

Resolved, That they do advise and consent to the appointments, agreeably to the nominations respectively. In the same journal, (vol. 2,) pages 44, 45, the following: Monday, December 15, 1806. The following written messages were received from the President of the United States, by Mr. Coles, his Secretary.

Resolved, That the Senate do advise and consent to the appointments, agreeably to the nominations. In the same journal, 1812, pages 296, 300, 308, the following: Monday, Nov. 6, 1812. The following written message, was received from the President of the United States, by Mr. Coles, his Secretary.

Resolved, That they do advise and consent to the appointment, agreeably to the nomination. In the same journal, 1813, pages 320, 330, the following: Saturday, February 17, 1813. The two following messages were received from the President of the United States, by Mr. Coles, his Secretary:

Resolved, That they do advise and consent to the appointment, agreeably to the nomination. In the same journal, (vol. 5) pages 612, 617, as follows: Thursday, May 22, 1828. The following message was received, from the President of the United States, by Mr. J. Q. Adams, his Secretary: WASHINGTON, May 22, 1828. I nominate, etc., WILLIAM H. HARRISON, of Ohio, to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Republic of Colombia, etc.

Another slander nailed to the counter. The following letter from Judge Burnett, to the Hon. Wm. Southgate, is conclusive proof that Gen. Harrison has been at all times a consistent Democrat. We call the attention of every Democratic voter in the Union to the fact, that every slander propagated by the pensioned press, recoils on its authors; whilst the venerable patriot whom they assail, is like pure gold—uncatched by the fire of detraction.

Another slander nailed to the counter. The following letter from Judge Burnett, to the Hon. Wm. Southgate, is conclusive proof that Gen. Harrison has been at all times a consistent Democrat. We call the attention of every Democratic voter in the Union to the fact, that every slander propagated by the pensioned press, recoils on its authors; whilst the venerable patriot whom they assail, is like pure gold—uncatched by the fire of detraction.

Portrait of a Democratic President. We copy the following from the New York Whig. It is a picture of the head of the self-yielded democratic party. How do you like the features, ye hard-fisted laborers, who in these miserable times, are delving yourselves almost to death to obtain a coarse and scanty fare for your wives and children? What think ye of the royal splendor of the Kinderhook dandy, in comparison with the frugal and homey habits of the plain old farmer of North Bend? Which of the two do ye regard as 'the poor man's candidate?'

A Good One. The Van Buren folks held their meeting at Hagerstown, Md., on the 4th inst. It seems to have been the next thing to a failure. The Torch Light says, several amusing incidents occurred on the occasion of which, it gives the following as a sample: One of the Marshals of the day, at the close of the procession, as we have been informed, addressed the committee of arrangements thus: Gentlemen of the committee, I thank you for the marked attention you have paid me. You presented me with a sash—I put it on. You gave me a badge of office—I took it. You offered me a splendid gray horse for the day—I mounted him. I have marched with you. I have assisted you through the day. I have voted and I have acted and fought with you for twelve years. I can go with you no longer. I wish to quit your party in peace. I return your sash, your badge, your horse and again thank you for the distinction you have conferred upon me. But, gentlemen, I'll be d—d if I don't vote for Harrison. I am just on my way to join the Tippecanoe Club.

NEW YORK ELECTIONS. The last Standard in a faint attempt at exultation over the insignificant Loco Foco triumph in the late charter elections in the City of New York, says: 'The result in the different counties in the State are equally cheering, in many of which there is an entire change in our favor, and in nearly all of them a very considerable gain. New York is safe for Van Buren.'

April-Fooling. On the first day of April, a dentist in New Orleans was called upon and requested to make all haste with his instruments, to a house high up in Magazine street, to perform an operation. On arriving at the house he ascertained that all they wanted of him was to set the teeth of a hand saw!