1 am a member of the committee of which Mr. Stanly is chairman, and as such, have ex. ausined the vouchers above referred to, and fully concur in the statements of Mr. Stanly.

JOHN W. ALLEN, of Ohio. Washington, July 30, 1840.

I certify, that I have examined the vouchers referred to in the foregoing statement of the Hon. J. C. Olark and others, and have compared them with the copies as set forth in the speech of the Hon. Mr. Ogle, and find that they are truly set forth in the speech, and that upwards of $18,000 of these exenditures for furniture for the President's House, were made by the President and his agents at a time when there was no committee of Congress in existence, and, of course, made by the President alone, without any one to interfere of influence his wishes ; and am teld by my friend. Governor Lincoln, that he never made any such remarks as are publish. ed as his in the Clobe. CHAS. NAYLOR. Washington, July 20, 1840,**

As to Mr. Lincoln's speech as reported in the Globe, which less been so much relied on to disprove Mr. Ogle's statements, 1 refer the pubic to a letter written by Mr. Lincoln, to the Editor's of the Intelligencer, dated July 25, 1840, and published in that paper of July 20; from which the following is an extract, (referring to the foregoing certificates :)

"I shall certainly have no controversy with either of the gentlemen who have seen fit to give these certificates. To those of Messrs. Stanly, Allen, and Naylor, I have nothing to object. Indeed, to that of the latter, in whom I am happy to recognise a personal as well as political friend, would myself most willingly have subscribed; and the substantive facts stated by all, so far as re part the procurement of the furniture in the President's House, 1 no more question than themselves. I have never said, or authorized to be said or reported, a single word which those certificates gainsay, and I feel entirely conscious of having afforded no cause on my part, for any in-terposition between Mr Ogle and myself. In the one certificate, however, of Mr. John G. Clark and others. there are expressions to which feel bound to offer a word of reply, 1 find in it the following pa - rraph : " The undersigned do not undertake to say whether Mr. Lincola used the language imputed to him by the Globe him, if he did not originally utter it." If these gentlemen heard the remarks which I did in fact make on the occasion referred to in the Globe, they mast have known that I did not "eriginally utter the language" ascribed to me by that paper in the extract they have taken, nor any thing like it; or if they heard my reply to Mr. Ogle a fortnight atterwards, when, upon my return to my seat from a temporary absence, he alluded to the same misrepresentation of my temarks, they must have heard my unequivocal denial of the fidelity of the Globe's report, and member of his own party, (Gov. Lincels.) man must be base indeed, who, in times like the present, is lashed and rebuked by the most honest of his own party."

Here is nothing but vague and general assertion, founded, no doubt, upon the Globe's report of Mr. Lincoln's speech, and the oit repeated Board can be had on very reasonable terms, in statements of the same paper, that Mr. Ogle's several highly respectable families, within a mile speech was nothing but a tissue of " lies." And of the school bouses. And the subscriber takes no boarders and the subscriber takes no boarders object of attack. Now, in reply to the assertions of the Van Buren condidate for Elector, I propose to offer a few simple proofs, and then leave the public to decide.

As to the truth of the statements in Mr. Ogle's speech, in regard to the expenditures in and about the President's house, I submit the following certificates from members of the House of Representatives of high character, published in the Intelligencer of July 23d, 1840; "The undersigned, whig members of Congress, have had their attention called to a publication in the "Globe" of the 10th of July, 1840, under the caption of "Messrs. Lincoln and Ogle," from which the following extract is taken:

" He (Mr. Lincoln) was no friend of Mr. Van Buren, but he would do him the justice to say, if there was any thing wrong in relation to the furniture of the White House, the President was not to blame for it. On the contrary, he (Mr. L.) knew his great delicacy on the subject, and would assure the gentleman that, whenever the committee had consulted the President in rela-tion to sny additional furniture, he had invaria-Music on the Pinno, $15 per session, painting and bly expressed his reluctance to have any thing drawing, $5 per session. He (Mr. L.) would state, from his own knowledge, that not a single of the subscriber, or or with arr com prevent, article of furniture supplied during the last three who lives in the immediate vicinity. PLEASANT BILL is in a high, healthy and a greeable part of the country, within one and a half miles of the Post Office at Bedford, or Foster Sill's able, and they would assume the responsibility." article of furniture supplied during the last three years had been supplied at the request of the "The undersigned do not undertake to say whe-ther Mr. Lincoln used the language imputed to him by the "Globe" or not; but as he has per-mitted its publication to remain ten days without public contradiction, we presume that henow adopts the language ascribed to him, if he did not originally atter it. For the purpose, there-fore, of placing the matter truly before the country, and to correct the gross misrepresentation of facts contained in the above extract, the undersigned certify that they have carefully examined the vouchers which have been duly audited and settled by the Treasury Department, for the purchase of furniture for the President's House, since the 4th of March, 1837, and that they have compared the said vouchers with the statements of the same in the published speech of Mr. Ogle, and find the said vouchers truly set forth in the said speech. "And they further certify, that it appears from the said vouchers, that more than eighteen thou-sand dollars were expended in furniture for the President's House, between the 4th day of March, 1837, and the 6th day of December, 1837, the day on which the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds was appointed, and of which Mr. Lincoln was chairman; the former Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds proven that the items of expenditure mentioned in Mr. Ogle's speech, were compiled from the original vouchers examined and certified to by members of Congress of high character. I have further proven by Mr. Lincoln's own statement, that the report of his remarks in the Globe was incorrect and unauthorised by him. Now, if address in ignorance of these proofs, (which had been long published,) he exhibits himself in the pitiable attitude of attempting to inform the pubic on a subject about which he knows nothing. And I would advise him for the future, to inform himself better before he makes an unprovoked attack upon others, who have the same right to their opinions that he has to his ; and that upon a subject too, which he does not understand. And if he was aware of these facts when he wrote his address, then, in referring to me, he has drawn a faithful picture of himself. And in the latter event, it is proven that the Van Buren candidate for Elector in that District, has "stooped in a public" address "to the pitiful office of retailing with well affected zeal and sincerity, the slanders of the mendacious" Globe, "thinking no doubt they' will make a good enough Morgan" until after the election.

1837. "The undersigned for ther certify, that it appears from the said vouchers, that the said money was expended by the agents of the President, viz : his son Abraham Van Buren, T. L. Smith, and others, on warrants drawn by order of the President of the United States himself.

Yours, very respectfully, K. RAYNER. Elizabeth City, N. C., Nov. 5, 1840.
