PERKINS' INSTITUTION FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE BLIND.
This establishment has been removed to the spacious and elegant office known as Mount Washington House, at South Boston, and is now ready for the reception and instruction of young blind persons of either sex from any part of the country.

The locality of the location, the facilities for teaching, and the extent of the office, which offers separate rooms for the pupils, make this establishment a desirable residence for those young blind persons who desire superior accommodations.

The course of instruction comprehends reading, writing, arithmetic, algebra, geometry, geography, history, natural and moral philosophy, &c. &c. includes the theory and practice of music. Those who desire it may acquire a knowledge of the ancient and modern languages.

A thorough and scientific knowledge of music, and opportunities for practice upon the piano-forte and organ, are given to all, besides which the pupil may select any instrument which he wishes to learn. Particular attention is given to physical education.

TERMS: Board and tuition, with the use of books and musical instruments, from $150 to $200 per annum. For those who wish to study the languages, and to have the use of a piano-forte in their chamber, or to receive extra musical instructions, $200. The above will cover all the ordinary expenses of the pupil. Extra accommodation charged in reasonable proportion.

The most favorable age for instruction is between the 8th and 18th years.

The following gentlemen, are connected with the direction of the Institution and may be referred to: Peter C. Weeks, Thomas H. Perkins, Peter K. Deane, Edward Brooks, Samuel A. Elliot, John D. Fisher, Thomas G. Cary, John Humes, James K. Mills, Robert Kainton, Samuel Loud, Samuel May, Ozias Goodwin, Horace Mann, Robert C. Winthrop.

For particular information address the Director, Dr. S. G. Howe, Boston, to whom all applications should be sent.

N. B. No persons will be received while under medical treatment for the recovery of sight.

NEW PIANOS FOR OLD ONES.
I AM willing to take second-hand Pianos in exchange for new ones and allow whatever judges of the article may consider them worth, my object is not to make money on the second-hand Pianos, and what I therefore either take them at their valuation, or sell them at the best advantage for their owners.

I have now on hand a beautiful assortment of superior Piano-Fortes, varying in price from $75 to $200.

Those who favor me with their orders shall be pleased or no pay shall be required.

Junio Academy.
THE FALL SESSION of this Academy will close on the 15th of next month, and the next session will commence on the 15th of January, 1841.

This institution is divided into two departments, English and classical. In each department the course of instruction is full and complete. In the English, are taught, in the first class, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, at five dollars per session of five months; and in the second class, English Grammar, Geography, with the use of the Globes, History, Philosophy, Astronomy, &c., at eight dollars per session. In the classical department is taught a full and complete course of Latin and Greek Literature, the tuition fee is twelve dollars and a half per session. In this department students are prepared for any of our Universities.

No day students will be taken in either department; each student entering the Academy will be considered bound for the tuition fees, from the time he enters to the end of the session. No deduction will be made for the loss of time, except in case of sickness. Every possible care will be taken to promote the advancement in literature, morality and virtue, of each student placed under our care.

The subscriber is prepared to accommodate eighteen or twenty students with board, and good out rooms, for seven dollars and a half per month, except candles and washing. Good board can be had convenient to the Academy, at from six to six and a half dollars per month.

VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY
For Sale.

The subscriber anxious of carrying into execution his long cherished intention of removing to his West, offers for sale the very valuable Estate known in the City of Raleigh, known as the CITY HOTEL. Having had personal charge of the Hotel for several years, the subscriber can speak from his own knowledge as to the profitability and value of the property. To a person who is well acquainted with the business, the certainty of a profitable investment of his money will be ensured. It is always well managed, and from its eligible situation, always most command a fair proportion of custom. Its advantages as a public house, are too numerous to be detailed in an advertisement, but can be demonstrated to any one inclined to purchase. The terms of sale, which will be very accommodating, may be known on application.

N. B. The subscriber will also sell a plantation of 200 acres of land situated within 2-1/2 miles of Raleigh, known as the GRANT tract.

OFFICE LITERARY FUND OF N. C.
January, 27th, 1841.

At a meeting of the President and Directors of the Literary Fund, it was ordered that the debtors to this fund, for monies loaned, be required to return their notes regularly at the times they fall due; and that one-tenth of the whole principal will be required at each renewal.

The board are compelled by this course to procure funds to meet the current expenses of draining the swamp lands now in progress.

To correct an erroneous impression which seems to prevail, from the number of applications to borrow money from the Literary Fund they state that they have an authority to loan any portion of the funds entrusted to their care, except such portion of the $200,000 appropriated to drain the Swamp lands, as may not be wanted for immediate use.—All this fund has been loaned sometime since, and they are now compelled to draw in a portion of it to meet the necessary expenses. They expect to have no more funds to loan.

THE SUBSCRIBER being about to open a classical School in the county of Franklin, midway between Louisburg and the Shocco Springs, takes this method of informing those who may be disposed to avail themselves of his School, that the Exercises will commence on the first day of February next. The course of Studies will be such as will be preparatory to any of our Universities.

The price of Tuition will be $15 a Session, no distinction being made between English and Classical Scholars, either in price or the attention paid them.

Board can be had on very reasonable terms, in several highly respectable families, within a mile of the school house.

The subscriber takes no boarders.

HARRISONIAN, OR THE
POLITICAL AND CIVIL CHRONICLES
OF THE
Election to the Presidency of the U. S. of America.

OF
WILLIAM HERRY HARRISON;
Carefully selected from authentic sources
throughout the Union,
AND ARRANGED BY
DAVID HOFFMAN, J. U. D.
One of the Electors of President and Vice-President for the State of Maryland at large.

'Union of the Whigs for the sake of the Union.'
Wash.

To hunt the rooted mountain from his base,
To force the rock of slavery upon his head,
Determined to be free—SOUTHNEY.

BALTIMORE, 1841.

To the Whigs throughout the Union.
FELLOW CONTEMPORARIES—The foregoing is the title page of a work, which the extraordinary character of the recent canvass for the Presidency seems to demand,—and which will be faithfully and industriously executed, provided the enterprise be sufficiently sustained, not only by the friends of the incoming Administration, but especially by those throughout the country who were prominent actors in achieving the momentous revolution.

The timely and generous aid of both these classes of our citizens will be essential for the accomplishment of the object, that of the former, by manifesting their approval of the scheme by their subscribing for the work, with as little delay as possible, and the latter, by furnishing me with the most authentic and minute information, in a mode to be hereafter stated.

All history teachers that, whenever a great and trying crisis occurs the commensurate amount of talent, of learning, of wisdom, and of zeal, will never be wanting; and it has been found eminently so during the whole period that intervened between the extra session of Congress, and the late elections; in which period, it is not too much to say that, more wisdom and common-sense, more untiring zeal and generous enterprise, more manly independence and patriotic devotion, more eloquence, oratory, appropriate information, and talent of every requisite kind, have been manifested throughout our extensive land, than were ever before, on any occasion whatever, exhibited among us since we were a nation! Should the chronicles, then, of so remarkable a period as this, be suffered to repose in the fleeting recollections of the present day, or be left to the ephemeral and perishable Gazette! Will not the Statesman and Politician, even of our own times, have frequent occasions to refer to the events of the past year? Will not those, hereafter, seek in vain through a thousand canvases, for the minute details of this wonderful canvass, as full of moral sublimity, as it is charged with deep political wisdom, and careful research into, and positions of almost every political topic that has agitated the past, and will continue to excite the future! If so, it seems to me that a careful selection and concentration of all that is essentially fully to characterize that period, must be acceptable to the general public of the present day,—and be thankfully received by those who shall hereafter be connected with the destiny of our great, and I trust, prosperous Republic.—With this object, and these hopes, I venture to make this proposal to the American public.

That a faithful and living picture of this period may be preserved, not only for our own day and generation,—but for many yet to come, every lineament, however small, if truly characteristic, will be given,—and, whilst repetition will be as studiously avoided as may be practicable; still, every State in the Union must contribute its due and relative portion towards perfecting the graphic delineation,—and that the great moral picture of these stirring days, may be adorned from all of these various sources, and thereby assure all coming times, that the volume is no perfunctory work of an overzealous individual, but a veracious chronicle of all that may be recorded therein.

The volume will probably be divided into the following parts:

I. The Canvass of 1836, and its results.
II. Proceedings of the Harrisburg Convention.
III. Festivals, &c. throughout the Union, arranged primarily, chronologically—secondarily by States.
IV. Speeches—Addresses, Letters, &c. carefully selected, and corrected by their respective authors.

V. The titles, and general contents of all the books, pamphlets, &c. published during the canvass.
VI. Similar enumeration of all essays, pamphlets, &c. written in support of the Administration of Andrew Jackson and of Martin Van Buren, and a selection of such as may exhibit the legislation—philosophy—and morals of that party.
VII. Selections from the Melodies, and other poetical productions, sufficient to characterize the times.
VIII. Enumeration of the various articles manufactured for sale—and as promotive of the cause.
IX. The authenticated votes in the recent State Election.
X. The authenticated votes for the Electors of President and Vice-President.
XI. Proceedings at Washington, from the meeting of Congress to the 4th of March, 1841—the Inaugural Address, &c.
XII. The Organization of Government—the New Cabinet, &c.—Index.

The volume (should the work be patronized) will probably be a royal octavo of 600 pages—steriotyped—on good paper. The price will vary from $1-60 to $2, dependent upon the extent of the subscription list, and the diffusing of the work. It is very desirable that much should be done towards the accomplishment of this object by the 4th of March next. Gentlemen from every State of the Union, who may be at Washington during the session of Congress, will confer a favour by bringing with them, all pamphlets—addresses—speeches—description of festivals, authenticated votes, &c. &c. which appertain to their own State, and any written information that may enable the editor to embrace every thing material that occurred in each State, will be thankfully received. A line addressed to me at Mrs. Hewitt's, Washington, by persons then in the city, will be promptly attended to.

The subscriber, perhaps may not be asking too much, when he hopes that the Whig Papers of the Union, generally, will give the foregoing one insertion,—and that the principle Whig Booksellers in all cities and towns will open a subscription paper, in which the names of subscribers will be carefully written—and the exact address, as to residence &c. given.

These subscription papers from every part of the Union, may be forwarded to me by private opportunity in most instances, and then always at Baltimore. Should no private opportunity occur before the first of May, they will please state by letter the number of subscribers, and means will then be taken to forward the work. Any suggestions, by true-hearted Whigs, to further the utility of the volume, will be thankfully received.

PRIVATE ACADEMY.
The subscriber respectfully informs the citizens of Raleigh and the adjoining country, that, on Monday, the 8th instant, he will open a Private Academy in the city. He will be found at the House lately occupied by Mr. D. W. Stone as an Office on Fayetteville street. His Academy will be neatly fitted up on the same lot, opening on Salisbury street, being thus convenient as to distance for Children, yet withdrawn from the bustle of business in the town. His charges will be the same as the other schools in the city. The subscriber would be glad to board four boys, at the rate of $136, the scholastic year, of ten months.

MOORE'S WAREHOUSE,
FAYETTEVILLE, VA.

The inspectors at the warehouse take this method of returning their best thanks to their patrons and friends for past favors, and most respectfully solicit a continuance of the same.

The establishment which they conduct possesses every advantage that can be desired. Situated almost centrally in the town, upon a fine paved street, and very near the Depot of the Petersburg and Roanoke Railroad, the facilities for receiving, opening and shipping Tobacco are not surpassed by any other in Virginia.

We are determined to do all that is in our power to obtain the highest market price for all tobacco sent to our care, and have a sufficient number of able hands to do our business with dispatch. We assure our friends and the public generally, that we will use every exertion to give satisfaction and to merit their support and confidence.

Consignments by Railroads or otherwise, will be as heretofore, promptly and strictly attended to; and in every case in which we may be desired to do so, we will with pleasure send the account of sales, (with a check, if directed,) to any Post office that may be designated, or we will pay the amount in any house or person at Petersburg, that we may be directed to.

All charges, such as Railroad freight, drays, &c. will be at all times advanced, as heretofore, and the tobacco will be held to order or on hand, as the owners may desire. Planters and others are particularly requested to have their names distinctly marked upon their hogsheads, and consigned to

COMMENCEMENT OF A NEW YEAR
ALEXANDER'S WEEKLY MESSENGER

Will be materially improved in its Typographical appearance, at the beginning of the next volume, in January, 1841. The Publisher has made such arrangements as justify him in announcing to the Public, that this paper shall continue to take precedence of all its Competitors, as it has heretofore done, and all the facilities which his Extensive Printing Establishment can afford, with the aid of his numerous Literary Correspondents, at home and abroad, shall be united to make the Weekly Messenger still more satisfactory to its thirty-five thousand of patrons, distributed as it is, throughout every section of the Union. Every exertion will be used to keep equal pace with the advancement which is constantly making in the character of the newspaper Press, and the Publisher pledges himself that his Journal shall, in all its departments, afford to its readers a full and comprehensive view of the important events which are continually transpiring in our own country, and the European world! The actual fact is, that the Weekly Messenger is just such a newspaper as a person living out of large Cities, require and will be pleased to receive; and the Publisher, after an association of twenty years with the newspaper press, pledges himself that his Journal shall not be excelled, either as respects its moral and literary reputation, or the early dissemination of news and other important and useful information. "Go-ahead," in his principle, and he has never failed to carry it out to the fullest extent.

The Weekly Messenger is published every Wednesday, on a beautiful white sheet, of the largest class. Single copies are forwarded to subscribers every week during the year for two dollars in advance or ten persons clubbing together, can have it for the same period, by forwarding the publisher a ten dollar note, free of postage, which is less than any paper of the same size can be furnished by any other Office in the United States.

A variety of beautiful engravings will be given in regular succession, which will be accompanied by appropriate sketches, of such a description as to render them particularly deserving the attention of the public.

Over 30 Thousand!
With the immense circulation that has been received for the Weekly Messenger, during the four years past, since its commencement, we are bold to say, that no paper has ever been distributed to the same number of patrons with fewer causes of complaint; in fact, we have the most careful and trustworthy Clerks now in our employ, and so inducements are withheld to make them attentive and systematic in the discharge of their various duties; therefore, persons subscribing for the paper at a distance, may rely on receiving it regularly and punctually by the due course of the mail.

All the contemporary Weekly Papers in the Atlantic cities head their subscription papers with the imposing epithet of "Largest and Cheapest!" Now, we propose that any person who cannot satisfy himself after one year's trial, that the Weekly Messenger is emphatically what we have said, it is, and therefore is best entitled to patronage, that we will confer on every one making such discovery, a free subscription for the space of another year.

At the expiration of the term subscribed and paid for, by Clubs, the paper is invariably discontinued, unless the subscribers be renewed. All letters must be post paid, or they will not be taken out of the Post Office. Address

Four Subscriptions (at $1 25) $10
Ten Subscriptions (at $1) $5
All who desire to procure the paper from the commencement of the volume, will please forward their names immediately.

Postmasters and other gentlemen who interest themselves to extend our circulation, may rest asured that the most strict and early attention will be given to their orders.

To secure Agents and others from imposition, we guarantee to forward our paper to all who send us payment in advance, directed to the Philadelphia Post Office, which order, if received there, with the remittance, will be our acknowledgment of the same, and consequently the paper will be regularly sent for the time stipulated.

Our country Brethren who oblige us with a few insertions in this Advertisement, will be forwarded the Messenger regularly, and shall be entitled to a copy of either of the first premiums, or should they wish to receive the earliest news, they will be furnished with an exchange with the Daily Chronicle for one year (in lieu of the Messenger, &c.) provided they invest this advertisement conspicuously one week, or oftener, for six weeks.

IMPROVED LOTS FOR SALE!
The Subscriber, finding it necessary to retire from this place, and return to his former place of residence in the State of New York, and where he now lives, in the southeastern part of the City, the lot is elevated and dry, having a gentle slope from the front to the back street; a main one and a half acre, enclosed all round with new paling, and encloses one of the best wells of water in the city. The house is 10 by 18 feet, two stories high, in which is attached a shed with two rooms, and there is also a dining room in the basement—making it a very convenient and pleasant dwelling. There is an office in the yard, with two rooms; and the kitchen and other buildings are good and convenient. There is a good stable and barn, with a shed for Cows, and the whole of the buildings and lot present a neat and pleasant appearance.

He also offers for sale another lot near the Public Square, on Wilmington street, second floor of the new Baptist Church, containing one-fourth of an acre, on which is a two-story house, 38 by 57 feet, with an L conveniently connected with a kitchen, making it a comfortable residence.

He would also sell that long row of rooms, sixteen in number, fronting Morgan street, between Washington and the Baptist Church, embracing 130 feet of ground by 30. Further description is deemed unnecessary, as those wishing to buy will choose to examine for themselves. The price for the above lots and buildings, and terms of payment, will be low and accommodating, and such as no doubt will suit those who may wish to purchase.

Mr. Kalkenheimer of Prussia, has invented a new kind of carriage for Railways, which may be moved at the rate of six French leagues, or about eighteen miles an hour, without steam or horse power. It is stated that a carriage containing 14 persons may be moved with the force of a single man. The carriage and apparatus cost about 500 dollars.

CADWIT IN HIS OWN TRAP.—The Portland Argus relates an amusing case, in which a beggar in that city received what he asked for but not what he wished for.

"A few days ago, a full grown able-bodied man, presented himself at the door of one of our citizens, and solicited the lady of the house to give him two cents. She remarked that she had none, and enquired what he wanted of them. "To buy a dose of castor oil man," (was the reply) "for I am dreadful sick."

The lady had no castor but she had plenty of oil; and she prepared him a stiff dose. He tried hard to get excused from taking it, but she was firm, he was a sick man and it must go down.—The loafer found he was caught in his own trap, and where he meant to have a glass of liquor, he got a dose of physic; but making a virtue of necessity, and with sundry very faces, he gulped it down and cleared. He'll not call there again, we dare say.

ROBING A FEMALE DOCTOR.—A man, named James Gardner was convicted in Boston, on Saturday last, of robbing Mrs. Ruth Wheeler, a female physician, of $1,784. Gardner was studying the mysteries of the healing art under the lady's tuition, and having gained her confidence in money matters, availed himself of an opportunity to plunder her money bags. The trial lasted four days, but the jury were out only half an hour.

It is a very pleasant thing to possess the good will and respect of the world about you; but it is infinitely better to possess that inward conscientiousness of rectitude and honor which can carry the soul through a furnace seven times heated in the fires of adversity and sorrow.

A yankee has just gone into Cuba with a "hull raft" of men and materials for constructing a rail road in that region. Queer critters those same yankees.

MRS. GENERAL HARRISON.—As this lady is soon expected to occupy "the White House" at Washington, any thing relating to her history will be gratifying to the public.—N. F. Jour. of Com.

After the severe and desperate battle of the Mims in 1794, General Wayne went to the Atlantic States, leaving Captain Harrison in command of Fort Washington, now Cincinnati. The next year Captain Harrison married the daughter of Judge John Cleve Symmes, who was born at Riverhead, Long Island, New York, and removed in early life to New Jersey, where he married the daughter of Governor William Livingston, and was soon after one of the Associate Judges of the Supreme Court of that State. In 1767 he became the proprietor of "the Miami Purchase," of near a million of acres and removed to that country.

Mrs. Harrison was educated at East Hampton-Long Island, and when young was esteemed a Lady of great personal and mental accomplishments. A writer for the national Portrait Gallery, for 1836 thus speaks of her: "She is distinguished for her benevolence and piety and all who know her, view her with esteem and affection. Her whole course through life, in all its relations, has been characterized by those qualifications that complete the character of an accomplished matron.

A FAMILY.
The New York Courier and Enquirer thus speaks of a family now residing in Groton, New London County, Connecticut:

Daniel Whipple, a young man of 42 years of age had a family of 46 children, and Noah Whipple, 40 years of age, had a family of 14 children. Daniel and Noah were cousins and had married sisters. In the visitations of providence, Daniel died, and also Noah's wife. The widow had 16 children to provide for, and honest Noah had only 14 dear little creatures.

To the mothers and fathers who quail at the idea of supporting a small family of 8 or 10 children, look at this good man's history, and learn a lesson of valor, fortitude, and resignation. Both families were entirely destitute, dependent on the labour of their hands for support.

Noah was a stone mason, and daily went to his work with an honest heart and contented mind; and when he returned home at night, 14 children flocked around him at the door to receive a father's store and caresses.

Mother they had none; and their father determined that they should have another to protect them during the day, when he was absent, and administer to their wants at night.

As an evidence of piety of the religion of his people, he did not study alone to make himself happy in the selection he was about to make; he did not think alone of his children, but he thought of Daniel's— and moreover he thought of Daniel's wife, and became the father of Daniel's children, and their mother the mother of his, making an united family of 32, two elders and thirty younger Whipples.

All your fathers and mothers who are perplexed and dissatisfied in providing for a small family of 10 or 12 children, visit Connecticut, and see a small house filled to overflowing like a beehive, with contentment and pleasure impressed on the countenances of all; and you will return home instructed and contented.

A marine on board of one of our men of war having been sentenced to three dozen lashes by a court martial, was asked after the punishment had been inflicted, how he felt upon receiving the first lash. His reply was, "he felt as if a cart load of lightning had been dumped on his bare back." We defy the English language to furnish a stronger expression.

BEAUFUL SIMILE.
When the cloud of disunion rolled up heavy from the South, it elated our political skies in sackcloth. It hung about us silent, dark, and terrible.—And when the sleeping thunderbolt appeared ready at every moment to leap from its stormy home, and explode upon the very hearth-stone of the Union—when our great men in authority stood impotent as infancy to avert the awful catastrophe; then the immortal Clay, with an arm more powerful than Franklin, disarmed the cloud of its wrath till its darkness dissolved in purple and gold, and the rain bow came out, and sat like an angel of peace on its glittering folds.—Preston.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE OF ALABAMA is worthy of remark, considering the statement to the contrary, which have been in circulation, that when the Electoral vote of Alabama seems to be a pend, in presence of the Senate and House of Representatives it was found to be all right and conformable to the requisition of the Constitution of the United States.
