VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY
For Sale.

The subscriber anxious of carrying into execution the long cherished intention of removing to the city, offers for sale that very valuable Establishment, situate in the city of Raleigh, known as the CITY HOTEL. Having had personal charge of the Hotel for several years, the subscriber speaks from his own knowledge as to the profits, revenues and value of the property. To a person who is well acquainted with the business, the certainty of a profitable investment of his money will be ensured. It always has commanded, and from its eligible situation, always must command a fair proportion of custom. Its advantages as a public house, are too numerous to be detailed in an advertisement, but can be demonstrated to any one inclined to purchase. The terms of sale, which will be very accommodating, to be known on application.

At a meeting of the President and Directors of the Literary Fund, it was ordered that the directors to this board, for monies loaned, be required to receive their notes regularly at the times they fall due; and that one-tenth of the whole principal will be required at each renewal.

The board are compelled in this course to procure funds to meet the current expenses of draining the swamp lands now in progress.

To correct an erroneous impression which seems to prevail, from the number of applications to borrow money from the Literary Fund they state that they have no authority to lend any portion of the funds entrusted to their care, except upon the security of the $20,000 appropriated to drain the Swamp lands, as they are not wanted for immediate use.

All this fund has been loaned sometime since, and they are now compelled to draw in a portion of it to meet the necessary expenses. They expect to have no more funds to loan.

HARRISONIANA, OR THE
POLITICAL AND CIVIL CHRONICLES
OF THE
Election to the Presidency of the U. S. of America,
OF
WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON;
Carefully selected from authentic sources throughout the Union,
AND ARRANGED BY
DAVID HOFFMAN, J. U. D.
One of the Electors of President and Vice-President for the State of Maryland at large.

Union of the Whigs for the sake of the Wis.

Esoter were it
To hurl the rooted mountain from its base,
Than loose the yoke of slavery upon men
Determined to be free!—SOURZET.

BALTIMORE, 1841.

To the Whigs throughout the Union.

FELLOW COUNTRYMEN—The foregoing is the title page of a work, which the extraordinary character of the recent canvass for the Presidency seems to demand, and which will be faithfully and industriously executed, provided the enterprise be sufficiently sustained, not only by the friends of the Administration, but especially by those throughout the country who were prominent actors in achieving the momentous revolution. The timely and generous aid of both these classes of our citizens will be essential for the accomplishment of the object, that of the former, by manifesting their approval of the scheme by their subscribing for the work, with as little delay as possible, and the latter, by furnishing us with the most authentic and minute information, in a mode to be hereafter stated.

Every history teaches that, whenever a great and trying crisis occurs the commensurate amount of talent, of learning, of wisdom, and of zeal, will be wanting and it has been found eminently so during the whole period that intervened between the extra session of Congress, and the late elections; in which period, it is not too much to say that, more wisdom and common-sense, more unflinching zeal and generous enterprise, more manly independence and patriotic devotion, more eloquence, oratory, appropriate information, and talent of every requisite kind, have been manifested throughout our extensive land, than were ever before, on any occasion whatever, exhibited among us since we were a nation. Should the chronicles, then, of so remarkable a period as this, be suffered to repose in the neglectful recollections of the present day, we be left to the ephemeral and perishable Gazette! Will not the Statesmen and Politicians, even of our own times, have frequent occasions to refer to the events of the past, and will not thousands, bereft, seek in vain through a thousand avenues, for the minute details of this wonderful canvass, as full of moral sublimity, as it is charged with deep political wisdom, and careful exercises into, and expositions of almost every political topic that has agitated the past; and will continue to excite the future? If so, it seems to me, that a careful selection and concentration of all that is essential fully to characterize that period, must be acceptable to the general public of the present day, and to be thankfully received by those who shall hereafter be connected with the destiny of our great, and I trust, prosperous Republic.

With this object, and these views, I venture to make this proposal to the American public.

That a faithful and living picture of this period, as preserved, not only for our day and generation—but for many yet to come, every lineament, however small, if truly characteristic, will be given—and, whilst reputation will be an studiously avoided as may be practicable; still, every State in the Union, and every individual, and every portion, towards perfecting the graphic delineation, so that the great moral picture of these stirring days, may be drawn from all of these various sources, and thereby assure all coming times, that the volume is no partisan work of an overzealous individual, but a veracious chronicle of all that may be recorded therein.

The volume will probably be divided into the twelve following parts:

I. The Canvass of 1836, and its results.
II. Proceedings of the Harrison Convention.
III. Festivals, &c. throughout the Union, arranged primarily, chronologically—secondarily by States.
IV. Speeches—Addresses, Letters, &c. carefully collected, and corrected by their respective authors.

The titles, and general contents of all the books, pamphlets, &c. published during the canvass.

VI. Similar enumeration of all essays, pamphlets, &c. written in support of the Administration of Andrew Jackson and of Martin Van Buren, and a selection of such as may exhibit the legislation—philosophy—and morals (that party).

VII. Selections from the Melodies, and other poetical productions, sufficient to characterize the times.

VIII. Enumeration of the various articles manufactured for sale—and as promotive of the cause.

IX. The authenticated votes in the recent State Elections.

X. The authenticated votes for the Electors of President and Vice-President.

XI. Proceedings at Washington, from the meeting of Congress to the 4th of March, 1841—the Inaugural Address, &c.

XII. The organization of Government—the New Cabinet, &c.—Index.

The volume (should the work be patronized) will probably be a royal octavo of 600 pages—stereotyped—on good paper. The price will vary from $1 50 to $2, dependent upon the extent of the subscription list, and the diffusing of the work. It is very desirable that much should be done towards the accomplishment of this object by the 31st of March next. Gentlemen from every State of the Union, who may be at Washington during the session of Congress, will confer a favour by bringing with them all pamphlets—addresses—speeches—descriptions of festivals, authenticated votes, &c. &c. which appertain to their own State, and any written information that may enable the editor to embrace every thing material that occurred in each State, will be thankfully received. A line addressed to me at Mrs. Hewitt's, Washington, by persons then in the city, will be promptly attended to.

The subscriber, perhaps may not be asking too much, when he hopes that the Whig Papers of the Union, generally, will find the foregoing one insertion—and that the principle Whig Booksellers in all cities and towns will open a subscription paper, in which the names of subscribers will be carefully written—and the exact address, as to residence &c. given.

These subscription papers from every part of the Union, may be forwarded to me by private opportunity in most instances, and then always at Baltimore. Should no private opportunity occur before the first of May, they will please state by letter the number of subscribers, and means will be taken to forward the work. Any suggestions, by true-hearted Whigs, for further utility of the volume, will be thankfully received.

MOORE'S WAREHOUSE,
PETERSBURG, VA.

The inspectors at the warehouse take this method of returning their best thanks to their patrons and friends for past favors, and most respectfully solicit a continuance of the same.

The establishment which they conduct possesses every advantage that can be desired. Situated almost centrally in the town, upon a fine paved street, and very near the Depot of the Petersburg and Roanoke Railroad, the facilities for receiving, opening and shipping Tobacco are not surpassed by any other in Virginia.

We are determined to do all that is in our power to obtain the highest market price for all tobacco sent to our care, and have a sufficient number of able hands to do our business with dispatch. We assure our friends and the public generally, that we will use every exertion to give satisfaction and to merit their support and confidence.

Consignments by Railroads or otherwise, will be, as heretofore, promptly and strictly attended to; and in every case in which we may be desired to do so, we will with pleasure send the amount of sales, (with a check, if directed,) to any Post Office that may be designated; or we will pay the amount to any house or person in Petersburg that we may be directed to.

All charges, such as Railroad freight, drayage, &c. will be at all times advanced, as heretofore; and the tobacco will be held in order or sold, as the owners may desire. Planters and others are particularly requested to have their names distinctly marked upon their hogsheads, and consigned to

THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST FAMILY NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD—ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!
When subscribed for in Clubs of 10 or more, COMMENCEMENT OF A NEW YEAR ALEXANDER'S WEEKLY MESSENGER

Will be materially improved in its Typographical appearance at the beginning of the next volume, in January, 1841. The Publisher has made such arrangements as justify him in announcing to the Public, that this paper shall continue to take precedence of all its Competitors, as it has heretofore done, and all the facilities which his Extensive Printing Establishment can afford, with the aid of his numerous Literary Correspondents, at home and abroad, shall be united to make the Weekly Messenger still more satisfactory to its thirty-five thousand patrons, distributed as it is, through-out every section of the Union. Every exertion will be used to keep equal pace with the advancement which is constantly making in the character of the newspaper Press, and the Publisher pledges himself that his Journal shall, in all its departments, afford to its readers a full and comprehensive view of the important events which are continually transpiring in our own country, and the European world! The actual fact is, that the Weekly Messenger is just such a newspaper as persons living out of large Cities, require, and will be pleased to receive, and the Publisher, after an association of twenty years with the newspaper press, pledges himself that his Journal shall not be excelled, either as respects its moral and literary reputation, or the early dissemination of news and other important and useful information. "Go ahead," in his principle, and he has never failed to carry it out to the fullest extent.

The Weekly Messenger is published every Wednesday, on a beautiful wide sheet, of the largest size. Single copies are forwarded to subscribers every week during the year for two dollars in advance; or ten persons clubbing together, can have it for the same period, by forwarding the publisher a ten dollar note, free of postage, which is less than any paper of the same size can be furnished by any other Office in the United States.

A variety of beautiful engravings will be given in regular succession, which will be accompanied by appropriate sketches, of such a description as to render them particularly deserving the attention of the public.

Over 30 Thousand!

With the immense circulation that has been received for the Weekly Messenger, during the four years past, since its commencement, we are bold to say, that no paper has ever been distributed to the same number of patrons with fewer causes of complaint; in fact, we have the most careful and trustworthy Clerks now in our employ, and no inducements are withheld to make them attentive and systematic in the discharge of their various duties; therefore, persons subscribing for the paper at a distance, may rely on receiving it regularly and punctually by the due course of the mail.

All the contemporary Weekly Press in the Atlantic and the Western States, are supplied with the imposing capital of "Largeness and Cheapness!" Now we propose that any person who cannot satisfy himself after one year's trial, that the Weekly Messenger is completely what we have said it to be, and therefore is best entitled to patronage, that we will confer on every one making such discovery, a free subscription for the space of another year.

At the expiration of the term subscribed and paid for, by Clubs, the paper is invariably discontinued, unless the subscriptions are renewed. All letters must be post paid, or they will not be taken out of the Post Office. Address

IMPROVED LOTS FOR SALE!
The subscriber, finding it necessary to retire from this place, and to return to his former place of residence, offers for sale the house and lot where he now lives, in the southern part of the City. The lot is elevated and dry, having a gentle slope from the front to the back street, contains one and a half acres, enclosed all around with new paling, and enclosed one of the best wells of water in the city. The house is 10 by 15 feet, two stories high, which is attached to shed with two rooms, and there is also a dining room in the basement—making it a very convenient and pleasant dwelling. There is an office in the yard, with two rooms; and the kitchen and other buildings are good and convenient. There is a good stable and barn, with a shed for Carriages, and the whole of the buildings and lot present a neat and pleasant appearance.

He also offers for sale another lot near the Public Square, on Wilmington street, second door from the new Baptist Church, containing one-half of an acre, on which is a two story house, 34 by 18 feet, with an L. conveniently connected with a kitchen, making it a comfortable residence.

He would also sell that long row of rooms sixteen in number, fronting Morgan street, between Washington Hotel and the new Baptist Church, embracing 150 feet of ground by 30. Further description is deemed unnecessary, as those wishing to buy will choose to examine for themselves. The price for the above lots and buildings, and terms of payment, will be low and accommodating, and such as no doubt will suit those who may wish to purchase.

WASHINGTON HOTEL.
Having thought it advisable to change my place of residence, I have sold the community at large, will give me a liberal share of their public patronage, and try me, and see if I do not use every method to render them comfortable and happy, while in my house. Great promises are seldom redeemed, therefore, I shall make mine, and give me a trial, and for their services. My prices will be moderate as usual in similar places.

FOR THE STAR.
Mr. Editor: On the 14th and 15th inst. the outside of Ocracoke Inlet was the scene of a Shipwreck, which, for the time, excited to deep a sensation, and resulted in an extraordinary escape of a part of the vessel's crew, that an account of it deserves to be recorded. It displays on the part of the commander of the vessel a heroic fortitude in the hour of danger and suffering, a dauntless courage and perseverance in the face of death, and a solicitude for the lives of his suffering crew, which probably are without a parallel. As you are located far in the interior, where you cannot be familiar with scenes of this kind, a few of the particulars may not be uninteresting to you.

On the 13th inst. the schooner Bounty, commanded by Capt. Junah G. Taitens—a gentleman highly respected by all who know him—sailed from this bar for New York. On the 14th, the coast was visited by a violent snow storm, which Capt. Taitens first encountered about 9 miles North of Hatteras, when he immediately turned back, resolving, if possible, to get into this harbor again. About 4 P. M. he made Ocracoke Bar, and while beating up the channel, his vessel missed stays, and in trying to secure, to put to sea again, she struck on Amity shoal near the bar about two miles from land, and was driven, head on, by the breaking sea with a tremendous shock, striking the bottom at the time with such violence, that in less than five minutes her rudder was knocked off, and in a short time the deck was swept, the battens burst sunder, and the boat washed into the sea! The astonished captain and crew assured that the most strict and early attention will be given to their orders.
