TERMS.

Sensenterion, three dellars per annum-hal in advance. Persons residing without the State will be repired to pay the waters amount of the year's subcription in advance

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

For every square (not exceeding 16 lines this size type first insertion, one dollar; each subsequent insertion, twenty-five cents.

The advertisements of Clerks and Sheriffs will be charged 25 per cent higher; and a deduction o 531 per cent. will be made from the regular priees for advertisers by the year.

Letters to the Editors MUNT be post-paid.

FALL & WINTER GOODS.

T. R. FENTRESS. Merchant Tailor,

Favetteville St., two doors south of N C. Book Store,

MOST respectfully announces to his friends turned from the North with a rich and extensive assortment of Goods, comprising all the latest patterns and fashions, and presenting every thing beaut ful and elegant in his line. The following may perhaps serve to convey an idea of his stock: Supr. Wool-dyed London Black, do Brown, Light and dark Blue, CLOTHS. Green, Olive Green, Bottle Green, BEAVER CLOTHS. Supr. Double Waive, Diamond, Pelto Coats. Plain, Supr. wool-dyed Black, Blue, CASSIMERES. Fancy French.

Paris Diamond. Fancy Dalmatia, Printed

Supr. Figured Persian Velvet, Brocade Parisian Brocade, Black Velvet.

Figured Silk, Parisian do Silk Vestings, Pofk Satin, Plain Satin,

White Satio. Mohair, Valencia,

Together with a general assortment of Fancy arti cles, comprising Mohair and Silk Scarfs for gen tlemen's wear; Black Horse Skin Gloves; Black Silk Gloves, White Silk Gloves, Merino Gloves, Shirts and Drawers; Handkerchiefs, Stocks, Sus penders, Shirt Collars and Bosoms; all of which vill be disposed of on mederate terms for cash, or on credit to punctual customers.

The subscriber avails himself of this occasion to render to a generous public his sincere and unaf ected acknowledgments for the liberal patronage and encouragement he has received since he has been in business in this city; and he most confidently hopes to earn for the time to come senewed evidences of the public favor and regard. He has not been disposed at any time, and is not now disposed, to indulge in strains of self-commendation; nor has it been his practice hitherto to boast of a Supposed superiority in his workmen to any in the United States. It is sufficient for him to know that his work gives general satisfaction; and if it were not to do so, he would not labor to enhance its value by high-sounding talk and mis; laced en-

VESTINGS.

The subscriber has just received a plate of Peele's latest London Fashions, together with the Paris, New York and Philadelphia Fashions for the Fall and Winter of 1842.

> T. R. FENTRESS. Oct. 11, 1841.

New Fall and Winter GOODS.

OLIVER & SMITTE MERCHANT TAILORS, RALEIGH, N. C.

B have just received and are now opening at our well known establishmet, on Fay atteville Street, the most elegant assortment of Goods in our line ever opened in North Carolina These Goods have been selected by Mr. OLIVER in person, and no expense or pains have been spared to obtain the best that could be had. Having pur-25 per eint, cheaper than they have ever been offered for in this market, and as low as they can be had in any of the Northern Cities. Persons disposed to trade for Cash, would do well to give us a call, as we are determined to sell lower than the lowest, and better than the best. Among our Goods may be found the following articles:

Superior Wool-dyea Black, Blue, Light Green, Dark do CLOTHS. Dahlia, Brown, and Wool-dyed Bik & Blue Beaver

Woolsdyed Black. Blar. French do Black. Brown. Light Drab, Doe Skin do Scotch Plaid.

Superior Plain & Figured Blk Satin Velvet >VESTINGS. Black French Merino do Figured Scot :h

Together with an assortment of READS-MADE Ctorning, Hosiery of all kinds; splendid Silk Bearis, and Stocks of every pattern; bluck Italian Cravata, Spitalsfield Handkerchiefe; black and light Haskin Gloves; Suspenders, and Suspender ends Shirt Collars and Bosome; in short, every thing that can be found in any similar establishmen North or South. We have in our employ none but the best of Northern workmen, and can make up work not only in as superior a manner but with a much expedition as can be in any of the Northern Cities. Every thing we make we guarantee, and de not thank our customers to take garments that de not fit. Thankful for post favors, we respectfully so icit a continuance of public patronage. Our tiond will be sold to punctual customers on the very best terms.

OLIVER & SMITH. October, 1841. 43 41.

A Ball and Party Will be rien at the Rail Road Hotel, on Thereday and F.J. ay recass the 18 t and 19th November

Conklinton, Oct. 19, 1841

RALBIGH STAR, And North Carolina Gazette.

NORTH CAROLINA-Powerful in moral, in intellectual, and in physical resources-the land of our sires, and the home of our affections."

RALEIGH N. C. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1841

NO. 44

SEARS' PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS

VOL.XXXII >

VIEWS IN THE HOLF LAND WITH FULL AND INTERESTING LETTER-PRESS

DESCRIPTIONS CHIEFLY EXPLANATORY OF THE

ENGRAVINGS and of numerous passages connected with

THE Geography, Natural History & Antiquities

OF THE THE FOLLOWING WORK HAS BEEN COMPILED FROM THE

LONDON PICTORIAL BIBLE WHICH SELLS IN THIS COUNTRY FOR $18 to $25 per Copy! Every man, Woman and child in the United States, who presence a Bible, will surely furnish themselves with the following beautiful series of Scripture Illustrations.

200 Pictorial Illustrations OF THE BIBLE,

VIEWS IN THE HOLY LAND. NEW: CHEAP, AND VALUABLE PUBLICATION,-Four hundred pages, 8 vo., Fine Paper, Handsomely Bound, Price only two dollars. The subscriber respectfully invites the attention of Clergymen, Teachers of Subbath Schools, Heads of Families, and Booksellers, throughout the United States, to the above New, Cheap, and Splendidly Illustrated Work. Published and for sale, at No. 122, Nassau Street New York City. Its features are better defined by the title:-

TWO HUNDRED PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE SCRIPTURES, CONSISTING OF

Views in the Holy Land,

Together with many of the most remarkable ob jects mentioned in the Old and New Testaments, representing sacred historical events, copied from celebrated pictures, principally by the old masters: the Landscape Scenes, taken from original sketches made on the spot, with full and inter esting Letter-Press descriptions, devoted to an explanation of the objects mentioned in the saered text.

On examination this will be found a very pleas nt and profitable book, especially for the perusal of Young Proper, abounding in the most valuable information, collected with great care, from the best and latest sources. It may, very properly, he de-isguated a common place book for every thing val-uable, relating to ORIENTAL MANNERS, CUS. l'OMS, &c. &c. and comprises within itself a complete library of religious and useful knowledge. A volume like the present, is far superior to the common Annuals-it will never be out of date. Tt is beautifully printed in new long primer type-handsomely bound in muslin, gilt, and lettered; and is, decidedly, the best and cheapest publication (for the price,) ever issued from the American Press.

A liberal discount made to wholesale pur

ROBERT SEARS, Publisher. 7 J

"." Clergymen, Superintendents and Teache Schools, (Agents of Religious News papers, and Periodicals, D Postmasters, & Book sellers, throughout the country, are respectfully re quested to act as our agents. No letter will be taken from the office uness post paid.

To Publishers of Papers throughout the United States.

Newspapers or Magazines, copying the ove entire, without any alteration or abridgement (including this notice.) and giving it 12 INSIDE IN SERTIONS, shall receive a copy of the work (sub-ject to their order,) by sending direct to the Pub-

From the Natches Courier. LOVE AND GOOSEBERRIES. A SENTIMENTAL STORY.

We had a cousin-heigho! she the "anxsunset-her hands were fitted for nothing but seen that perfect FEATURE, we must call it. Well, we were in a dreadful condition about that cousin-sometimes, we'd call her cousin," it was delightful to claim relation-gracefully upon one knee in burning words, mated that no one had time to interfere.

she did no such thing.

of GREEN gooseberries, and gravely asked,

"Cousin John, what are these?" "Gooseberries, my darling Elegantina!"

answered cousin John. MUST be good FOR YOUR COMPLAINT!"

Reader, "Cousin John" made tracks.

places Refreshed,' will have the effect, we hope, to prevent modern lovers from becom- and sad, ing snuff takers: Turtle doves don't take snuff. A kiss is surely a thing not to be sneezed at.' Fancy two lovers in the time of Queen Anne, or Louis the Fifteenth each and is in the act of bringing out the words, charming creature,' when a sneeze overtakes him. "Cha-cha-cha-charming creaure!" What a situation!

A sneeze! O, Venus, where is such a thing in thy list! The lady on her side, is under the like malapropos influence, and is obliged to divide one of the sweetest of all bashful and loving speeches, with the shock of the sneeze respondent! "Oh Richard! Sho-sho-sho-should you think ill of me for Talking of sneezing reminds us of a new needote of the celebrated Brummel, with which we may venture to close this notice.

He was sitting at a table in a London club house, reading the morning journal, when a latte goldet alone no description is found." stout Englishman standing near gave vent to violent sneeze. Brummel lifted his eyes languidly from his paper, and surveyed the perpetrator with a look of contempt. A second report soon followed with increased effect, The refined exquisite uttered a half lignified leisure to change his position, when third shock of sonorous and misty sternume!" he exclaimed, "here, waiter! we can't endure this! Brink me an umbrella!" Knickerbocker.

le my eye smart.

THE USE OF LEARNING.

male education, having especial reference to her grand-daughter. We copy the closing paragraph:

"You should encourage your daughter to talk over with you what she reads; and, as ious mother" of a half-a-dozen little cousins, are the common errors of young people, now-well, she was in form and feature as and have a train of ill consequences. The far above the concentrated charms of all the second caution to be given her, (and which novels that ever were or will be written, as is, most absolutely necessary) is to conceal Amanda Malvina Fitz Allen was superior to whatever learning she attains, with as much Mr. Jerry Sneaks. Her voice, it was like solicitude as she would hide crookedness or the wild warblings of an Æolian harp as it lameness; the parade of it can only serve to lulls the Zephyrs to their slumbers—her draw on her the envy, and consequently the eyes, look was upon the stars, you can't most inveterate hatred of all he and she fools, match them there, and the cunning little gip-which will certainly be at least three parts sy had such a way of half closing the bril-in four of her acquaintance. The use of liant orbs, veiling their dangerous beams, and knowledge in our sex, beside the amusement then, with a sudden start, flashing their of solitude, is to moderate their passions, death dealing rays upon you, that your very and learn to be contented with a small exheart instantly felt the process of combus- pense, which are the certain effects of a stution-her brow, shaded with her auburn dious life; and it may be preferable even to hair, was like a hand's breadth of white that fame which men have engrossed to cloud mid the rich lustre of the Southern themselves, and will not suffer us to share.' The concluding portion of the above quo-to sweep the harp's mellow chords, and to tation is admirable. We wish it could be most beautiful nut-shell charriot, just to have to practice, deserves the immortality of ture.

We were passing the front entrance of ship with such a perfect creature—and then one of our principal hotels a few days since FALSE PRIDE.—Look back twenty or fifty we could'nt call her cousin, for we laid a sort at an hour when the summer sun was not years, behold the bare-footed adventurer, at Szene in a Circulating Library.-Librarian be of trep, that if she asked as we hoped she far from its meridian height, a little noise inwould, why we used not the consinly title- side attracted our attention, and we immediding his annual income of some three thou we had a very pretty speech made up to ir-timate that we desired, when manhood come, which gives indication of an affray. In a ladies of his daughters! Does he teach them to call her by a dearer name. But the pro- moment we distinguished the cause, for one the usual rudiments of housewifery! Very interesting! voking little mink never seemed to notice of the servants, a strong muscular fellow, whether we cousing her or not.

She was older than we—and her name a mass of inanimate matter, something which not—Palse pride says, it would be ungented ing. If you don't like that, allow me to restill retained the apperance of a living for ladies to work - as if it would tarnish commend the "Pavorite of Nature" or the One day walking in the garden with the though scarcely human being. Planting the fair and delicate fin jers that b ing such "Vagabond."

unspoken tale of affection which surcharged its face to the street, the 'servant applied his gorgeous instrument itself. the heart. We were in a beauful walk, fring- foot to the rear and brutally sent his burden | How supremely ridiculous is this illegitied with gooseberry bushes, when, after the into the ditch. The act was cowardly and mate pride! Thousands of daughters, whose most approved fashion of romance, sinking unjustifiable, but it was so quality consummothers have been raised in a kitchen, and Elegantina calmly listened—we thought ed to the receptacle of all things filthy, was loaf of bread or washed out a pocket handwe perceived a kind tear dimming her radi- miserably, but not helplessly drunk. The kerchief! They would more likely prate ant eye-we rose, and stretching out our vile liquid in which he had been partially about good society, good company, and the arms, thinking of course, that she would bathed, seemed to bring him a little nearer dignity of their ancestors! A few years roll sink upon and murmur the gentle confes- his senses, for he ser-mbled forth quickly, round & the thrifty but imprudent parent dies; sion of reciprocated attachment. Reader, staggered to one of the chairs upon the ban- and then comes the scramble for some ten or quette and took possession of it. Nauseous twelve divisions of his hard earned estate. She serenely turned and pulled a handful and disgusting as was the stream from which, How small does a large fortune appear when wet and dripping, he had just rescued him- apportioned to numerous heirs! The daughself, still more nauseous and disgusting was ters must of course marry gentlemen-pride the volume of language which issued from dictates it; and the gentlemen must of course his lips; the very dog before him-a mean, squander their patrimony. And what has "Eat them," she replied, "cooss-berries thieving cur at that-dropped his tail be- the parent bequeathed to society and his tween his legs, and trotted briskly away country? Children raised in idleness, withfrom so pestileptial an atmosphere. Our out the stimulant to add one iota to the genblood froze as we listened to the foul profan- eral substantial prosperity of the community. ity of the forsaken wretch, his horrible invo- Can there be a doubt but that honest labor is Snuffing.—The subjoined 'pinch' from a cations of the vengeance of God upon the becoming daily more and more stigmatised? paper full of snuff, in L. Hunt's 'Common-person who had thrust him forth into the A grovelling imitation from the cellar to the open air. We passed on our way, silent garret! A spirit of extravagance in which

It was even so. In that bloated brute, we recognized all that remained of an early and earn your bread by the sweat of your brow. with a snuff box, who have just come to an leans a few years ago, a full grown, real same poison that flows through the populaexplanation, and who in the hurry of their spirits have unthinkingly taken a pinch, just of a soul, fashioned in the Creator's own try of Franklin a parallel to that of Monteat the instant when the gentleman is going image, were his, in their full proportions.— zuma! to salute the lips of his mistress. He does In his fresh and open countenance, in the quiet depths of his clear and transparent black eye, and in his manly form could be recognized the attributes of a being, formed for the enjoyment of all that is bright and true in existence. In his present condition, his whole course and history is told with a distinctness and eloquence which we shall not presumptuously attempt to emulate.-He himself had admitted the enemy which had stolen away his brains, and left him lower, far, than the lowest of the animal kingdom. He surrendered his soul to the doctrine that truth is confined to the bowl. His reply to remonstrance as well as persuasion, was in the paltry sophism of the poet-

The forfeit of his folly has been early and unetually paid. Better would it have been for him, better for all who have known him. that the grave worm should long ago have rioted upon his flesh and bones. For the consuming fire of low and depraved passions suppressed groan of horror, and began with brings more of agony than would be endured were his form, instinct with life and consciousness, beneath the sod even until decay tation brought him to his feet. "God bless had annihilated all outline and trace of hu-mourns over her lost son; the almost broken to save you from sin and guilt." A young lady having given a gentleman, hearted sister, who can never forget the Persons in the country, wishing to act as who was not very remarkable for his taste companion and playmate of her childhood, search in vain for a familiar lineament in "Indeed!" said she, "Well, I am happy to have been the cause of making something smart about you."

Indeed!" said she, "Well, I am happy to have been the cause of making something smart about you."

Indeed!" said she, "Well, I am happy to have been the cause of making something is but little in the appearance of that hatless, coatless, dirty vagabond that gives an indication of better days. Would those who SINGULAR FREAK .- A woman in Massa- have loved and cherished him in his past- I Don't Like to See .- A dirty shirt husetts lately had one of her teeth knocked alas! forever past!-years of beauty and covered with a clean dicky; a working man, out by lightning! Although she was knock-ed down by the shock, she was not other-sunken eyes, ever and anon flashing with day; the window patched with paper, rags, ty laugh of childhood in that maudlin leer, loose; orange peels thrown on the foot-path; The Newark [N. J.] Daily Advertiser or bitter decision, the mere mockery of a an orphan girl tempted to walk the streets contains a letter from a grandmother upon fe- fiend! Oh, no! over such an object of hor- for the purpose of prostitution; good meat ror, the mother would pray for power to re- thrown to the dogs: a work-house funeral member that she had strangled her child at nearly without attendance: a rich man's its birth, spreading the pall of oblivion over funeral blocking the streets; a woman beatguidance, from infancy to the full develope- over; a county overseer putting out a poor ment of its faculties in manhood. God woman by the shoulders; two men fighting you are very capable of distinguishing, take grant that she may go down to the grave— a pitch battle on Sunday afternoon, with a as she surely will, for her Father in Heaven large attendance of men and women; a man care that she does not mistake pert folly for is merciful—in utter ignorance of the final after breaking a square of glass in a window. scenes in the life of the monster she once running away to escape detection; a child called her child. out for his final resting place. Reason even are obliged to be sted up; a bedroom comthe ruling passion is still triumphant. Yea, vering; a coach-house with bleeding shoulto sweep the harp's mellow chords, and to tation is admirable. We wish it could be be kissed by a lover—and her feet—ah how made a "rule of action" in families. The lips will be heard a supplication for more of unbottomed and stockings out at the heel; and upon the last sigh that passes over his relief from the patish; children's shoes we adors a pretty foot!—her feet—Titania. we adore a pretty foot!—her feet—Titania, writer of such a letter, if she is fortunate ethe liquid fire in which he has burnt all that umbrelia on a windy day with two broken distinguished him from the brute. He goes Grandmother Lois, mentioned in the scrip-of angels, with a half uttered prayer still er and more final perdition!

fair one, we determined to divulge the yer this object upon its feet, at the entrance, with sweet sounds from the piane, to dust the their fathers in a horse stable, would feel we poured forth the story of our eternal love. The man thus nucercomoniously introductinsulted, if asked if they had ever made a the most unprincipled means are resorted to! Let it proceed with the same rapid march it has commenced, and it will be a stigma to accomplished friend. He came to New Or. Infect the country-the farmers-with the

INTERESTING DISCOVERY IN THE EAST. The book of Dr. Grant, just published. will furnish the reading public with matter of peculiar interest. He has resided several years in Persia, among the Nestorians about Lake Ooroomia; and, having become familiar with their language and manners, and learnt something of the Nestorians of the mountains, determined to pay them a visit, though discouraged from the attempt by the reported dangers of the way. His boldness was crowned with most gratifying success.

WOMAN.

We find in Judge Kent's sentence of Peter "I et us drink, who would not? since through life's Kane, for stabbing and killing a woman, the following remark:-

"Prisoner, your life is safe, but in sending you to the State Prison, the Court will mark their sense of your dreadful conduct; and if not punished to the full extent the law allows, it is by reason of the good character you had previously sustained. To your wife also you are indebted for a mitigation of your punishment. Her conduct on that occasion has excited the admiration of the Court-she seems to have been to you as a guardian angel persuing you, whose conduct was more like that of a beast of prey than a human be-The poor mother in a distant land, who ing, and striving by every means in her power

There are very few evils to which a man agents, may obtain all the necessary information, in dress, a playful slap on the face, he call-> the unearthly brilliancy of temporary insan- or turf; a sweep or baker passing through ity? Is there any thing of the free and hear-the crowd; a woman's boot-lace dangling all recollections of its march under her own ing her child because it had nearly got run erying for hours together in a cridle; a poor His race is nearly run. Between the la- labor girl, at five o'clock in a winter's morbors of the bottle, the climate and the sea- ning, going to the factory much out of health; son, the cold earth has already been hollowed a man stuffed with rich food until his legs now totters. The last act in the drama of left full of hairt a servant waiting at the table his existence will be that of thousands in with dirty hands; a woman slipping in at a whose footsteps he has trod. By and by, back door of a public house, with a little upon his bed he will be stretched, that most jug, at teatime; a justice fining persons for fearful of all beings-more and more loath- getting drunk, who frequently gets "fresh" some as he approaches his end-a drunken himself; a begger exhibiting his wounds and maniae. In his visions of horror there will deformation on the road side; an old man of be a lesson terrible to contemplate-most seventy and a young girl of seventeen going awful and revolting in reality. Long after to church to get married; a dronken coach-sense and perception have fled, when the man driving his horses at full gallop down a laugh and jeer of the demon alone give evi- narrow street; cloth lying to be moth eaten, dence that life remains, it will be found that while there are so many backs without coeven with the last faint throb of his heart, dere: a dog in a poor man's house who gets bones; a shop with dirty windows: the bailiffs carrying the bed and chair of a poor of angels, with a half uttered prayer still widow to the obelisk, to sell for rent; a poor hovering upon his lips, for deeper and dark-ragged wife seeking her husband at twelve on Saturday night.

>
> English Educational Magazine.

hind the counter, throwing sheep's eyes on a very pretty widow who is looking over the Lady .- What have you that is new and Laly .- I don't think I should like either of these--liave you got 'Human Frailties' or 'Ten Thousand a Year!'

Shopman .- Yes, I have the first, but unfortunately not the second, Wouldn't you like 'Flirtation' or 'The Devoted?' Have you had the 'Capricious Father!' . I a 'y .- Oh! yes, I've had that and the Miseries of Marriage."

Shopman .- Here's 'Live and Learn.'-Thinks I to myself - A School for Wid-

Lady,-Haven't you got 'Manners!" Shorman. - Keep cool-here's Match-making, Love and Pride' - Ruling Possions. I am very sorry I can't suit you. Very strange but very true, Do you like-My Sister Ann!

Lady.—I can't say that I do, better than Blighted Ambirion, but I think I will take Romance and Reality'-or, if I can't get that, I will make the 'Moneyed Man' an swer.

Shopman .- You'd better have 'Presaution' also.

Lady .-- No, I have got enough, Good sorning, sir! And the lady left the Irving with a smile on her lips, which seemed a reflection of that of the polite and witty librarian.

Keeping Entertainment .- Recently a gentleman while travelling through the Creek Nation, in Alabama, met an Indian, of whom he enquired how far it was to the next house. About two miles, answered the Creek, but just beyond the house the road forks and the right hand will take you to a very good house fire miles further.' 'Thank you,' said the traveller, and he pursued his journey. In half an hour the gentleman came to the first house. The worthy host was standing in the door.

'Hallo!' eried the Stranger. 'Hallo, yourself!' responded the man of he house. 'Do you keep entertainment here?'

'Can my horse have some corn and fod-

"No sir, I han't got any." 'Can you let me have some bread and ngat? 'No, sir.' 'Have you accomodation for lodging!'

'No, sir.' 'Why, then, how do you do?"

I'm quite well, I thank you, how is it vith yourself? 'The d-l catch the fellow?' said the stranger, aside, and again resumed: Well, the road forks, I believe, a short distance rom here?" Yes, sir. Will you be so good as to tell me-where the cight hand goes to?"

'It han't gone any where, since I lived in hese parts. Good day, sir, said the stranger. 'Good day,' replied the fellow, coolly, and walked into the house. A NEW WAY TO GET AN OLD DEBT .poor creditor, wearied out with continued ealls upon a rich rogue of a debtor, and beng told repeatedly that he was not at home, at length hit upon a way to get sight at him. "My master is not at home," said the servant as usual . "Is he aware that his debt to me has been discharged?" said the creditor. "What is that?" said the debtor, darting suddenly out of an inner apartment, "Good morning; I am not aware that my bill has been discharged, sir."

"Nor I, sir, here it is, and as I have at last found you at home, I will now thank you to discharge it."

The following singular incident is related in the New Orleans Picayupe of the 5th instant, the editor of which vouches for its in and you shall be 'paid."-N. O. Pic.

It appears that a young Spaniard was lying in the last stages of yellow fever, next door to the printing office of Mr. G., in Charles street. The physician, Dr. B., was sent for, but before his arrival, the young man had ceased to live, according to the opinions of those in the house, so that when he arrived he found his patient covered with a white linen, and reported as dead. 'Phat very evening they washed and cleansed the young man, and having put on his burial dress, they laid him on his bed until the morning. In the morning a coffin was got, and all the necessary preparations were made. He was then taken and put in his coffin, but no sooner was he dropped in it than he jumped up and asked where they were going to place him. They then con-ducted him in a carriage to a colored nursewoman's house. He is yet very sick, but may perhaps live. It appears that he was in a state of lethargy.

LUTHER'S COURAGE.-Luther's defiance of the "devils" in Worms was not a mere boast, as the like might be if now spoken It was a faith of Luther's that there were devils, spiritual denizens of the pit, continually besetting men. Many times in his writings this turns up; and a most small sneer has been grounded on it by some. In the room of the Wartburg, where he sat translating the Bible, they still show you a black spot on the wall, the strange memorial of one of these conflicts. Luther was translating one of the Psalms; he was worn down with long labor, with sickness, abstinence from food: there rose before him some hideous indefinable image, which he took for the evil one, to forbid his work. Luther started up with fiend-defiance, fining his inkstand at the spectre, and it disappeared. The spot still remains there, a curious monument of several things. Any apothecary's appren-tice can now tell us what we are to think of this apparition, in a scientific sense; but the man's heart that dare rise defiant, face to face, against hell itself, can give no higher proof of fearleseness, The thing he will can't before exists not on this earth or under it. Fearless enough! They spoke once about his not being at Leipzig, as if "Duke George had hindered him," a great enemy of he; no. "If I had business at Leipzig, I would go though it rained Duke George's his. It was not for Duke George, answered for nine days running." [Carlyle's Lectures on Heroes & the Heroic.