George J Weith President of the Handel and Haydo oci ty, and T. B. Hayward, Editors. For a much longer period than this country has been inhabited by civilized people, Europe has been luxuriating in the compositions of those master spirits in music, whose works live after them, and still remain the delight and admiration of markind.

These great masters have composed volumes upon volumes nay, whole libraries of music; of which scarce the hundreth part ever reached our shores. In this point of view, music is but in its infancy in ntry. We have indeed a portion of these compositions, and some of the very highest character; but a large share of this is not generally diffused, and rests only in the hands of a few professors and amateura, Not only is Europe rich in the productions of the art, but i contains also an abundant store of musical literature. Histories of Music: Biography of Musical men, both composers and performers; Treatises on the teaching and practice of the art in all its branches; works on the culture and management of the voice, and on all kinds of ins ruments; books and essays exhibiting the religious, moral and social-influences of music; its importance in a branch of education; and its softening influence upon the human character:-volumes on all these, and many other subjects, have been multiplied indefinitely containing the accumulated experience of several generations.

It is believed that an attempt to introduce and spread a portion of this mu-ic and musical knowledge will be acceptable in this country, and will meet with the patronage of the musical public generally. Such is the general object proposed in presenting to the public the MUSICAL CABINET.

The principal design of the Musical Cabinet, is to send forth mouthly a choice collection of music. both sacred and secular, vocal and instrumental; and also a number of useful and instructive articles of musical literature; the whole drawn from the pest sources, and adapted to the wants of the musical public in this country. In regard to the music its cheapness is not an unimportant feature; since every subscriber, at the close of the year, will find he has on hand a stock of pieces suited to his wishes, at one half of the cost for which the same quantity could be purchased at the music stores and he will have the musical literature into the bar

The Instrument il Department will contain:-1. Piano-forte Pieces, of every valiety of character, from plain and easy pieces, to those requiring a considerable degree of skill and execution.— The majority of these pieces will be adapted to the wants of those who have made a tolerable proficiency on the instrument; and in passages where it may be thought serviceable, the fingering and other marks and directions will be carefully given. This instrument has become so common in this country, that this department will make father an important

2. Organ Pieces, embracing Voluntaries, Preludes, Interludes, &c. So little music for this instrument has been published in this country, that such pieces cannot but be acceptable so our organists.

The Vocal Department will contain:—

Secular Music, embracing P ige, Dan Tries, Quartetts, Glees, &c. This will constitute the most important feature of the work. Much of the secular music now in existence, particularly as regards the subjects or the poetry, can lay little Silk Gloves: White Silk Gloves: Merino Gloves, claim to purity of morals, delicacy of sentiment, or Shirts and Drawers; Handkerchiefs, Stocks, Susrefinement of character. The public may rest assured that nothing will find its way into the pages of the Musical Cabinet, which breathes of any other spirit than the pure principles just named.

2. Sacred Music, Bongs, Dues, &c , from the works of Handel, and the other great masters, who have left an abundant store of the most valuable materials An Author may occasionally be in-

The Vocal Music will be arranged with an accompaniment for the Piano-torte, except such pie ces as do not require it. The Literary defortment will contain articles, both origin I and selected, on the theory of music, including the various departments of musical sci ence; the history of Music, and of musical instruments; essays and misceilaneous articles on music. both vocal and instrumental, and on the various instruments; biographies of eminent composers and ms and analyses of musical comsitions; articles on the teaching and cultivation of the various branches of the art, and on musical education; musical tales, anecdotes, &c.; musical news, both from Europe and, America; accounts of musical institutions and societies, and their operatione; &c. &c. The object will be to fill the pages with matter of permanent interest; since a monthly periodical is little suited to criticisms of local musical performances, except in a very general

In all the Departments the wants of Teachers will be constantly kept in view. In the Literary Department, the great object will be instruction and information; and the subjects of teaching and mustrat education will come in for their full share .-Teschers of the Piano forte will find the peices for that instrument particularly adapted to their purposes; and there will also be introduced instructions and useful exercises for training and cultivating the

The Musical Cabinet will be published monthly in quarto form, each number to contain 12 pages of Mucic, and 4 pages of letter press, to be rinted on good paper and new type. Terms $4,00 per year, payable in advance, The first number will s number will be issued in July, and will contain an elegant print of the head of Handel. All communications to be addressed to the Pub-ishers, at the American and Foreign Periodical Office, No. 10, School street, Boston. BRADBURY & BODON.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber having constantly on hand, in Petersburg and Richmond, a large and well seck (nearly thirty in number) of the very best PIANO FORTES made in this country, ad being disposed to sell them upon the most liberal terms that could possibly be asked by am one, even the most suspicious, he begs leave to of giving him at least a trial, before purchasing losing and a strong probability that they would be greatly the gainers; in fact, it would be but postponement of a positive purchase, for a short of any instrument whatever, until they could have an opportunity of testing the quality of those of mine, which are unsurpassed, if equalled in England of America. I have sold nearly three hundred of these Pianos in a few years, without selling a bad one, and I hold myment which, percha ce, might prove defective, Holding, as I have ever done, the opinion, that the sale of a single bad Piano would occasion such a loss of confidence as could not be afterwards repaired by the sale of a hundred good unes, it may well be expected that I shall be particular as to what sort of instruments I and off.

PROSPECTUS OF THE PATRIARCH, Or, Family Library Magazine.

PATRONIZED BY AN ASSOCIATION OF LADIES. Editorial department superintended Br REV. R. W. BAILEY.

The great object of the work will be to define and enforce the relative duties of the different members of the family as such; comprehensively embracing the subject of domestic Education, and social obli-gation. When we consider the influence which mesaers of the same tamily exert over each other, to Educate, and to mould the character, it may be tru-ly said that families, more properly than individu-als, are the materials out of which society is consti-tuted, and which indeed form the essential character of nations, in their intellectual, moral, political and physicial peculiarities.

Self Education, therefore intellectal, moral, and physical;—relative dutes in the influence one member of the family may have over others, particularity that of the pare it over the children;—in short, all that may contribute to form society in its individual and cullective character to mental intelligence, physical energy, and moral power, all that can contri-bute to social refinement and happiness, it will be he sim of this Periodical to aid and enforce.

The Family is regarded as an Elementary School and as such, well fitted to its ends, and necessarily exerts the most important influence on the entire character of its inmates through every grade of Education. Rightly disciplined, it brings a powerful aid to other schools, and may even supply the want of them where they are inaccessible.

PROSPECTUS OF

THE NORTH CAROLINA TEM-PERANCE UNION.
The State Temperance Society of N. C. at its late meeting, directed its Executive Committee to take measures for the establishment, at this place, of a Journal, devoted to the cause of Temperance-In obedience to their wishes, and impressed with the importance of such a publication, the committee have determined, if sufficient encouragement can be obtained, to issue the first number of such a publication, to be called the NORTH CAROLINA TEMPERANCE UNION, on the first of January

The leading object of the Union will be, the dismination of Pemperance principles. We shall endeavor to present in its pages, a full record of the progress of the Temperance cause in our own and in foreign lands—of its effect upon individuals and communities-and original articles in defence of its principles, and in reply to the various objections urged against it.

While, however, the promotion of Temperance will be the first and leading object of our Journal, it is our intention, that its pages shall be diversified by a general summary of the most important events of the day, and by particular attention to the interest of Agriculture.

In carrying out this object, the Committee look with confidence to the friends of Temperance, pericularly in North Carolins, for aid and support A new impulse has been given to the cause in this State. Were this the proper occasion, we could tell a tale of what has been passing under our own eyes, which would send a thrill of joy through every benevolent heart. The reformation of the inchrists has commenced, and is still going on with a power and success, which the most sanguine never dared to anticipate. Give us but the means of communication, and we trust that an influence will go forth from the Copital of the old North State, to its remotest boundary, that will tell upon its happiness and prosperity through all future generations.

Permit us, then, most earneatly to appeal to every friend of Temperance, Morality, and good order, to aid us premptly. As the object is to commence with the new year, delay on the part of its friends may be fatal. Let every in lividual then, who feels an interest in our success, and every Temperance Society, become responsible, at once for the number of copies, which they suppose can be circulated in their vicinity, and forward their names immediately, for 10, 20, or 50 copies, as they may think the demand of their neighborhood may jus tify. In this way only, can we hope for success in our effort.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the N. C. State Temperance Society, the following resolution was adopted: Whereas, arrangements have been in de to commence the publication of a l'emperance Journal in the City of Raleigh, on the first week of January next, provided ONE THOUSAND Subscribers can be obtained

Resolved, That it be most earnestly recommenled to each of the Officers of the State Temperance Society, and to the members of the late State Convention, and to any who are friendly to the cause, mmediately after the receipt of this resolution, to become responsible for from 10 to 50 Subscribers, so that the publication may commence at the time contemplated.

By order of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina State Temperance Society. TERMS The North Carolina Temperance Union will be published werkly on a medium sheet, (say 26 by 18 nches, at One Dollar and Fifty Cents per annum., payable IN ADVANCE. Letters containing Subscribers names andremittances, must be directed, post paid or free, to the Treasurer of the Society, JESSE Brows, Raleigh, N. C.

D. W. KERR.

Pettifoggers in law, and empiries in medicine, whether their patients lose or save their property, or their lives, take care to be, in either case, equally remunerated; they profit by both horns of the dilemma, and press defeat, no less than success, into their service. They hold from time immemorial, the fee-simple of a vast estate, subject to no alienation, diminution, revolution, por tax; the folly and ignorance of mankind. Over this extensive domain, they have long and, by undisputed usance, the sole management and control, inasimuch as the real owners most strengously and sturdily disclaim all right, title, and proprietorship therein.

The following is told of President Humphrey, of Amherst College, One morning before recitations, some of the students fastened a live goose to the President's chair .-When the President entered the room, and discovered the new occupant of his seat, he turned upon his heel and coolly observed, you to your studies.
