It is proposed to publish in the town of Wilmington, N. C., a new paper-to-be called.

THE LITERARY NEWS. That North Carolina is far behind the spirit of the age in Literaure is a truth that non-can ques tion. Behold the immense number of Mag zines and Newspapers published in cities North and South of us, all teeming with literary matter, while in the "Old North State" here is no periodical or paper devoted to the cultivation of a correct taste and refined perception of all that is beautiful and attactive in the more pleusing department of polite literature. And why is this! Is it from a want of 'ma erial,' owing to our yestitution of that knowledge or talent regulate for literary pursuits.' There are intellects among us that would grace and give-character to the jugas of any press. Sorely then, the alose on of such a paper as that which is now proposed, can only be attributed to an increasiderate neglect of those attainments, which, though they should never esurp the place that belongs to grave purposes, still never fail to cheer the heart and adorn the mind. Is a noble edifice less beautiful because trailing vines and flowers entwine themselves in graceful festoons around its Corinthian columns! Should jests be forsworn because they chime not with sober reflections? We opine not, we trust not, and it is the object of this paper to prove not. A few words will sufficiently explain our intentions. In the first place then we mean to be neutral in Politics, and shall carefully eschew all committalism" on that subject, while we shall, to the best of our ability, eater to the mental appetite of the lovers of fin and good humor. Tales, Bears, Skarches, and articles of Poetra, origi nal and selected, together with a condensed state ment of the news of the d y will appear in our columns. In short we wish to publish an agreeably Miscellany, a lively entertaining sheet, to which, the eye wearied with politics, may turn for pleas ure, not unmingled with profit.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber having constantly on hand, in Petersburg and Richmond, a large and well selected stock (nearly thirty in number) of the vey best PIANO FORTES made in this country, and being disposed to sell them upon the most liberal terms that could possibly be asked by an ne, even the most suspicious, he begs leave to suggest to those in want of Pianos the importance giving him at least a trial, before purchasing elsewhere, since there is no possibility of their losing and a strong probability that they would be greatly the gainers; in fact, it would be but a postponement of a positive purchase, for a short time, of any instrument whatever, until they ould have an opportunity of testing the quality of those of mine, which are unsurpassed, if e-qualled in England or America. I have sold searly three hundred of these Pianos in a few years, without selling a had one, and I hold my-self bound to the beautiful day intru-ment which, perchance, might prove defective. Henting, as t have ever dune, the opinion, that the sale of a single bad Piano would occasion such a loss of confidence as could not be afterwards repaired by the sale of a hundred good ones, it may well be expected that I shall be particular as to what sort of instruments I send off.

E. P. NASH, Petersburg, Va. at J. W. RANDOLPH & CO'S, in Richmond. PROSPECTUS

THE NORTH CABOLINA TEM-PENANCE UNION.

The State Temperance Society of N. C. at its late meeting, directed its Executive Committee to take measures for the establishment, at this place, of a Journal, devoted to the cause of Temperance In obedience to their wishes, and impressed with the importance of such a publication, the committee have determined, if sufficient encouragement can be obtained, to issue the first number of such a nublication, to be called the NORTH CAROLINA TEMPERANCE UNION, on the first of January

The leading object of the Union will be, the diss mination of Temperance principles We shall endeavor to present in its pages, a full record of the progress of the Temperance cause in our own and in foreign lands-of its effect upon individuals and communities-and original articles in defence of its principles, and in reply to the various objections urged against it.

While, however, the promotion of Temperance will be the first and leading object of our Journal, it is our intention, that its pages shall be diversified by a general summary of the most important events of the day, and by particular attention to the interest of Agriculture. In carrying out this object, the Committee look with confidence to the friends of Temperance, pervicularly in North Carolina, for sid and supports. A new impulse has been given to the cause in this State. Were this the proper occasion, we could tell a tale of what has been passing under our own eyes, which would send a thrill of joy through every enevolent hearta The reformation of the inebriate has commenced, and is still going on with a power and success, which the most sanguine never dared to anticipate. Give us but the means of communication, and we trust that an influence will go forth from the Copital of the old North State, to its remotest boundary, that will tell upon its happiness and prosperity through all future generations.

Permit us, then, must earnestly to appeal to ev ery friend of Temperance, Morality, and good order, to aid us promptly. As the object is to commence with the new year, delay on the part of its friends may be fatal. Let every individual then, who feels an interest in our success, and every Temperance Society, become responsible, at once for the number of copies, which they suppose can be circulated in their vicinity and forward their names immediately, for 10, 20, or 50 copies, as they may think the demand of their neighborhood may justify. In this way only, can we hope for success in our effort.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the N. C. State Temperance Society, the following re-solution was adopted: Whereas, arrangements have been m de to commence the publication of a Temperance Journal in the City of Raleigh, on the first week of January next, provided ONE THOUSAND Subscribers can be obtained Resolved, That it be most earnestly recommen ded to each of the Officers of the State Temperance Society, and to the members of the late State Convention, and to any who are friendly to the cause. immediately after the receipt of this resolution, to become responsible for from 10 to 50 Subscribers, so that the publication may commence at the time contemplated.

PROSPECTUS OF THE PATRIARCH, Or, Family Library Magazine. PATRONIZED BY AN ASCOCIATION OF LADIES. Editorial department superintended

Br REY. R. W. BAILEY. The great object of the work will be to define and enforce the relative duties of the different members of the family as such; comprehensively embracing the subject of domestic Education, and social obligation. A how we consider the influence which means berry of the more lamits re of the same tamity exert over each other, to Educate, and to mould the character, it may be true ly said that families, more properly than individuals, are the materials out of which society is constant. als, are the materials out of which society is consti-tuted, and which indeed form the essential charac-ter of nations, in their intellectual, moral, political and physicial peculiarities.

Self Education, therefore intellectal, moral, and physical;—relative duties in the influence one member of the family may have over others, patricularity that of the pare it over the children;—in short, all that may contribute to form society in its individual and collective character to mental intelligence, physical energy, and moral power, all that can contre bute to social refinement and happiness, it will be the sim of this Periodical to aid and enforce. The Family is regarded as an Elementary School, and as such, well fitted to its ends, and necessarily exerts the most important influence on the entire character of its immates through every grade of Edu-cation. Rightly disciplined, it brings a powerful aid to other schools, and may even supply the wast of them where they are insecessible. of them where they are inscessible.

It will be attempted to sid parents to conduct the Education of their children, particularly by giving judicious direction to the Reading—the social principle; self improvement, and habits of industry, to enforce a salotary Family discipline, to excite clindren to subordination and filial respect, to aid youth of both sexes to enter respectably into society, to make, in the result, good citizens, and a happy na-

The Patriarch will be published on the first days of January, March, May, July, September, and No-vember, with a clear type, on good paper octave form Each number will contain 48 pages, suited form Each number will contain 48 pages, suited to make a yearly volume of 288 pages of permanent value. The first having been delayed till March, the fifth will be published on the first of October. Price $1 per annum in advance, It will thus be found, for the matter convained, among the cheapest publications. The reading matter will be increased as soon as the extent of the subscription will justify it, and the publisher hopes to interest his readers a, far that they will soon call for the Monthly issue of the numbers at double the price.

In this enterprise the Editor bespeaks and coof-death soliding a substitute of the coof-death.

dently anticipates the ardent cooperation of Clergy-men & parents, whose labors, this work will be found enfoulated to aid & relieve. It will not be beneath the seatculated to aid & relieve. It will not be beneath the, the attention of the Statesman to support and extend the circulation of a little volume, which is wholly adapted to form good citizens and to bless the country. Every Philanthropist will feel that such a Book should be placed in every family, and read by every member of it.

At the low price stated, it is manifest, expensive spencies cannot be employed. All Clerkymen & Postmasters, therefore, respectfully requested to net as egents, to take aubscriptions, and remit pay-ment. Money, current where the subscriber lives, will always be received. will always be received.
