THE ASS IN THE LION'S SKIN. An affair occurred a few days ago in one of our fashionable streets, that had occasioned no little merriment among those to whom the circumstances are known. They are as follows :

A certain tailor was paying honorable ad-dresses to a young lady of beauty, accomplishments and expectations, and had reason to congratulate himself on their reception, t'it he was suddenly and total'y eclipsed by the moustachoes and imperial of a young blood, well known in Broadway. What made the matter worse was, that the dandy had long been largely in debt to the unhappy schneider, and had slways found it inconvenient to pay when requested. The tailor was sensible that it was his own fault-flat he had furnished the very arms with which his rival had defeated him. Waller has portrayed his feelings to a nicety:

"The engle's late and mine are one, Why, on the shaft that mode ham dies Espied a frath r of his own. With which he wont to scar so high." Desperate cases require desperate remedies.

NOT one in a hundred is competent to choose a good Piano Forte for himself A person may be pleased with the tone of an instrument, and may because of his want of information) think it su perior, whilst at the same time it may be only tolerable .- Such is the care and precaution necessary in selecting a Piano Forte that, if you have not experience in such matters, there are ten charges to one, that you will be decrived.' Some instruments would be considered excellent until brought into comparison side by side with others, Some are very good at first, but soon become worthless and others good but not the best. The important part of a Piano (the section) is hid from the eves of purchasmes, and there is as much difference in the winciples upon which they are constructed as it is omible to conceive of.

Under such circumstances wou'd it not be most prudent to order a Piano from a dealer in the aricle, who has looked into the comparative merits of the different makers; has been selling a particular make for 6 or 7 years, during which time has sold upwards of three hundred, without selling a bad one. At d in addition, offers to take upon himre f the risk of selecting for those who may wish to purchase, allowing them the privilege of a trial, and of withholding payment until the matter is fairly te-ted.

These are the terms of the subscriber, whoprom ises to sell as low to those who are absent, as to those who give their personal attention.

THE LADYS' WREATH,

YOUNG LADIES' MAGAZINE,

Is the title of a new work, published bi-monthy in Philadelphia, at the extremely low price of

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR. The design of this work is to furnish, at a low rate, a Magazine, which, as regards literary merit and mechanical execution shall equal the best three dollar magazines. Each number will contain at least forty-eight (8 vo.) pages of reading matter, entirely original, from the pene of the most talented male and female writers of the day. One or more splendid steel engravings, will be given in each number, and, also, one of a series of splendid foral engravings-richly colored, now in course of preparation; decidedly the most at-tractive series of embellishments ever given in any magazine. One or more pages of new and popular music, will be given in each number. It will be printed upon new type, cast expressly for the purpose, and upon fine white paper. The work has reached its fourth number, and thus far, the result bas proved that the design of publishing a Magazine of superior literary merit and elegant execution at the low price of one dollar a year, could not but be successful. Our subscription list is already double that of any one dollar Ludy's Magazine, and Luudreds are added each week. New contributors, of known and acknowledged talent have been secured, and the publishers are determined to spare no pains or expense in rendering the work every way worthy the patronage of the public. CLUBBING AND PREMIUMS.

North Carolina Literary Record. The subscriber proposes to publish, in the city of RALLIGH, a magazine with the above title. It will be printed in monthly numbers, on farty octavo pages of good paper, with new and elegant type and a neat cover, for TWO DOLLARS A YEAR IN ADVANCE!

It is designed to be a publication of general interest, containing biographical sketches of the illustrious natives of North Carolina; nistorical papers, embracing particularly REMINIA-CENCES by the present aged public men; and scientific atticles. This magazine will cherish the purely literary, and its pages will be graced with poetic contributions. A prominent place will be given to the interests of the Conner SCHOOL system of education in our State. A REVIEW department will be added, which will present notices of new publications; and it is designed that the work shall have a monthly MRONICLE of literary intelligence.

The subscriber feels safe in making the above statements, because he has the promise of ansistance from several distinguished gentlemen in the State, in whose acquirements the public has all confidence. He desires to make it a periodical which shall compare well with any Southern magazine, ornament the table of the literary man, and be a welcome visiter to any family in the State. It will be seen that the subscription is unusually low-Four Hundred and Eighty octavo Pages for Two Dollars!!! The work is put at this price that its circuls-
