THE RALEIGH STAR AND NORTH CAROLINA G

TH). J. LEMAY, (Printer of the Laws of the State,) Epiron and Paoputaron.)

WHOLESALE HOUSES NIEW-TORK.

The subscribers are now amply prepared with full STOCKS of GOODS in their respective departments, peculiarly suited to the wants of South ern and Westurn Merchants!

The large and varied associates which the New York market affords to purchasers, presents a superior opportunity for a choice selection, and on terms in all respects as favorable, to say the least, as any other market.

Southern and Western Merchants are secured of our determination to please, if possible, all who are in seauch of APRING and SUMMER SUPPLIES—and are respectfully invited to examine Sitks and Fancy Goods.

Street.
Carleton, Fradingham, & Co. No. 172 Pearl St corner of Pine street.
Strate Goods...

G. M. Perk, 116 Pearl street. Staple and Funey Dry Goods. Documes, Surdam N. Nixon, No. 39 Nasson street corner of Liberty, apposite the Post Office.

C. W. K.J. T. Macre & Co. 297 Pearl street, four discs shove Maiden Lane.

Nelson & Graydon 61 Cedar serect, next don Nelson & Graydon 61. Gedar wreet, next door of the new Post Office.

J. W. & R. Leavin, 166 Pearl street.

Parson & Lawrence, 129 Pearl street and 82 Beaver, a few doors below Avail street.

Bradner & Co., 160 Pearl street, near Wall.

John P. Singg & Co. 182 Pearl street,

F. S. & D. Letting, 62 William street, corner of Cloths, Cassimers, Vestings and Summer

Goods. Wilson & Hunt & Co. No. 82 William street cor ner of Maiden Lane.
P. S. Winston & Co. 138 Pearl street, Foreign and Domestic Woolens, Vestings and Pantaloon

Hardware and Cuttery. Wolfe & Gillespie, 193 Pearl street, near Maiden

Hyslop & Brother, successors to Robert Hyslop & Hyslopk Brother, successors to Robert Hyslop & Son, No. 220 Pearl street, above Maden Lane. Cornett, Brothers, 259 Pearl, corner Pulton street. Wetnesse & Co. 79 and 8t Very and 305 Washington streets: Importure said. Denlers in Hardware, flar Iron and Steel John Van Nest, successor to Ahraham Van Nest, 114 Pearl, street, Manager Squarer Imposter and Dealer in Saddlery, Gooth and Harness Hardware.

Hardware.

1. Buck, 209 Pearl street, four doors above Maiden Lanie, extensive Maintenirer and Importer of Saddlery, Harness and Coach Hard-

Ware. Henry Baylis, 105 Maiden Lave, Manufacturer and Stationery. Lewis I. Cohen, 138 William street, two doors from Fulton . Importers of Watches, Fine Cutlery, Jew-

erry and Plated Ware.
Fellows, Wadsworth & Co. No. 17 Msiden Lane.
Ball, Tompkins & Black, (Lee Masquand & co. 181
Broadway,
Roote St. Boots, Shoes, Leghorn, Palm Hats and

D k A. Wesson, 157 Peacl Street, near Wall.
Spoffied, Tileston & Co. 149 Water street.
Watson & Shipman, No. 57 Nassau street, oppositio Post Office.
Calvin W. How, 131 Maiden Lane.

Books and Stationery. Collins, Brother & Co. 254 Pearl street. Prat , Woodford & Co. 63 Wall street.

Levi Cook & Co. 138 Pearl Street, -also Buttons ke. &c., H. Carey & Co. 186 Pearl street, opposite Spelman & France, 136 Frank street, sies Cutlery, Manufacturers and Dealers in Drugs, Medicines. Paints and Dye Stuffs. Medicines, Paints and Dye Stuffs.

Haviland, Keene & Co. 80 Mailen Lane.

H. H. Schieffelin & Co. 104 and 106 John street.

J & J. F. Trippe, 90 and 92 Maiden Lane.

Hardley, Pholys & Co. 142 Water street near Maiden Lane.

Cullery, House keeping Hardware, Tinand Wood Ware, Baskets, &c.

F. B. Windle & Co. 56 Maiden Lane. Wines, Luquors, Segars, Fine Groceries, Se Se. A. Binleger & Co. 141 Broadway,

Wholesale Grocers. J. & A. Lowery, 121 Proof street. China, Glass and Earthen Ware. Henry W. Haydnek, 276 Pearl street. Umbrellas, Se.

Henry Keep, 122 Beart, street, successor to Thomas Garner, Manufacturer and Dealer in Umbrellas and Parasols Ri-hard McNamer, No. 16 William street, Manu-6-surer and Dealer in Umbrellas, Parasols, Single Linear and Straw dionds.

Charles Days, 194 Pearly street, Manufacturer and Wholesale Dealer in Umbreltas. Horore H. Doy, 25 Maillen Lane, Manufacturer of l'ateut ledia Rubber Suspenders und all Rinds of India Rubber Goods

Firth, Hall & Pond, No. 239 Broadway, Manufac-turers, Publishers and Importers at Music and Musical Instruments Sole agents for Chickering's Piano Fortes.

PUBLICHOUSES MINDA-AOBIK

The Proprietors of the following named Public Houses, in thocaty of Now York, united the above invision to Southern and Western Merchant, who may trid our Comporcial Emperium, to call at our respective Houses, pleiling our reves to administry the conflats of "House" as far as in our power, to those who may giv us the preference. Mantion Donne, W. D. Binker, 39 Broadway Howard Hotel, Thomas & Bregstronducy. City Hotel, Chever Jenningt, Broadway, Waverley, House, Willard Whitcomb, 34 &

Broadway, No 3 & 5 Broadway, W. C & Parific Hotel 162 Greenwich street, J. W. Boody, Astor House, Coleman & Steinen. Presidin House, Broadway, that es & Treadwell.

New York, Jan. 11th, 1845. ARRIVATION AND STREET SELLING

WALTZING.

To the foregoing address Mr. Clay 10h pair willzing, "Pray, sir, how do you and scrattenized the microstic scient field with like the wahr?" Makam said the quaint gentleman, "I like Use larging part very liberary to home to the most ille-frious searcher into well; but I don't like the whirm round.
We attempted heretofore to give an account of the imposing scene, feeling all the while how impossible it was for words which has prompted
this visit from the Governor, the Presiden
with like the whirin round.
We attempted heretofore to give an account of the imposing scene, feeling all the while how impossible it was for words
while how impossible it was for words
which has prompted
this visit from the Governor, the Presiden
with like the whirin round.
The sec that reprofice to give an account of the imposing scene, feeling all the while how impossible it was for words
while how impossible it was for words
which has prompted
this visit from the Governor, the Presiden with the hidden my ferrices which again the same in the same of my the editor of the Globe, who vothe difficulty of this visit from the Governor, the Presiden with the hidden my ferrices which again to the same of the difficulty of the like the wahr?

The sec that reprofice to give an account of the Globe, who vothe difficulty of the which the difficulty of the like the whirth to the Governor, the Presidenwhite the which the difficulty of the which the difficulty of the difficulty of the difficulty of the which the difficulty of the which the dif At a party in Richmond, Vs., a lady a-k-ed a country rastic, who stood nigh her, in a compact ring of four or five deep gazing on a pair waltzing, "Pray, sir, how do you like the waltz?" Malan' said the quaint word that there is also the Board for the ments on Consume and they were stall out to age from tretand stilf.'"

Rebuilt and again fairly under

This Institution, situated twelve miles northinnguages, if required, $12.50 per session. The dozen," discipling exercised in the Academy is very strict. I'wo and careful, and is wholly of the parental kind, come the Every effort will be used to promote the literacy and moral culture of those who enter the school Bowen & McNames, 16 William, corper of Beaver The subscriber is prepared to accommodate several other boarders with good board and very convetal at our sooms, at $6 50 per mouth, lights ex-depend. Good board can be had convenient to the Academy, in respectable families, at from $4.50 to 5 dollars per month. Students prepared for any of our Universities.

DANIEL WILSON KERR. Jan. 17, 1945. Standard 5 insertions.

HOW TO RAISE GOOD APPLES. neglected than the cultivation of good fruit, that your sity fellers are mity slip'ry and none will pay the former a higher coons." profit for the labor bestowed. We shall The bargain being fairly understood.

prove their orchards:

To the Committee on Fruit Farms: Fair, for the best Fruit Farm in the State. now abide its rules, and offer, at the re quest of Mr. T. B. W., its worthy and tain." very useful Secretary, my mode of man-of 20,000 Newton pippin apple trees; I was'nt right, and ignorant of the bave found it very approlitable to wait for extent of the wrong—the uncertainty what is termed the bearing year, and con-Importer of Needles and Fancy Goods. what is termed the bearing year, and con- of the moment was terrible.

Importer of French and English Staple sequently it has been my study to assist peration, be fultered ont nature, so as to enable the trees to bear every year. I have noticed that it bears more profusely than any other tree and consequently requires the intermediate year to recover itself, by extracting from the atmosphere and earth the requalities to enable it to produce. If unassisted by art, the intervening year must necessarily and with eat right through you," added he, hand a the proper sustenance, it will bear every screamed the Sucker, in a frenzy, his eyes done.

Importers of Funcy Acticles, Brushes, er, early in June, and painted the wounded part with white lead, to keep out the Combs, Perfumery, &c.

A. H. Ward & Co. (formerly Bailly, Ward, & Co) moisture; then split open the bark, by running a sharp pointed knife from the ground to the first set of limbs, in the lat ter part of the same month, which prevents the tree from becoming bark bound, and gives the inner wood an opportunity of expanding. In July, I placed one peck of oyster shell lime around each tree, and left it piled about the trunk until November, when I dug the the lime in thoroughly .-

The following year I collected from those trees 1,700 barrels of trait, some of which was sold in New York for $4, and the balance in London, at 89 per barrel. Strange as it may appear, they are literalby bending to the ground with the flacet fruit Lever saw, a specimen of which is now before you. The other trees in my orchard, not treated as above, are barren, next year being their hearing year.
ROBT. L. PEL L.

SWALLOWING OYSTERS ALIVE.

A sucker-His first Ovster-Swallowig it alive - Terrible Situation - The Rescue - disappeance.

At a late hour, the other night, the door of an oyster bouse in our city was thrust open, and in stalked a hero from the Sucker State. He was quite six leet high, spare, countenance and his hand pushed clear down to the bottom of his breeches. His nuter covering was hard to define, but after surveying it minutely, we came to the conclusion that his suit had been made inhis boyhood, of a dingy yellow hasey wolsey, and that having spranted up with avthe biralcos, and slowly ejaculated—ed when out.

"I never seed any thin' hold on sotakes at amozin site of screwin, hoss, to west of Hillsborough, is now open for the recep- get 'm out, and aint they slick and slip'pry

Two bits!"exclaimed the Sucker, "now a picayune a piece for them. I ve only realized forty-five picavone on my first ventur' to St. Louis I'il tell you what, I'll gin you two chickens for a dozen it you'll ; conclude to deal."

A wag, who was standing by indulging

" Now mind repeated the sucker, "all fair-two thickens for a dozen-your re a witness Mister, turnig to the wag-No branch of tural industry is more none of your tricks, for I've heard rejoice if the following remarks from Mr. our Sucker squared himself for the onset R. J. Pell of Ulster county, N. Y., who deliberately put of his seal skin, tucked recently received a gold medal from the up his sleeves and, fork in hand, awaited American Institute, for the best Fruit Farm. the appearance of No. 1. It came-be shall aid any of our country friends to im- saw-and queckly it was bolted ! A moments dreadful pause en-ued. The wag dropped his knife and fork with a look of Gentlemen-Bring desirous to compete mingled amazement and horror-somefor the premium to be awarded by the A thing akin to stakspere's Hamlet on secmerican Institute at its Sixteenth Annual ing daddy's ghost-while he burst into the exclamation-

" Swallowed alive as I'm a Chris-

Our sucker here had opened his mouth with pleasure a moment before, but now it For some years I have been experiment so al open. Fear-a horid dread of beling upon the apple tree, having an orchard did'nt know what-a consciousness that all

" What on earths the row ?" " Did you swallow it alive !" enquired the wag. "I swallowed it jest as he ginit to me!"

shouted the Sucker. "You're a dead man !" exclaimed his Three years ago, in April, I scraped all fairty starting from their sockets "O graout all the branches that crossed each oth- let the infernal sea toad cat me afore your hereafter mourn over the result in dismem-

"Why don't you put some of this on it ?" enquired the wag, pointing to a bot-the instant, seized the bottle, and despersquealed from its effects and gasped and blowed, and patched, and twisted, as if it were coursing through him with electric effect, while at the same time his eyes ran astream of tears. At length becoming a little composed his waggish advi ser approached almost bursting with pressed laughter, and enquired .-

" How are you now old fellow-did you

" Well, I did, hoss - ugh ugh o-o-o my inasds. If that later critter's dying agonies didn't stir a ruption in me equal to a small carthquake, then 'taint ne use sayin' it-it squirmed like a serpent, when that killin' stuff touched it ; bu'-and here with a coun enance made up of suppressed agony and present determination, be paused to give force to his words, and slowly and deliterately remarked, " If you git two chickens from me for that live animal I'm d-d !" and seizing his seal kin he vanished.

. I he shout of laughter, and the contortions if the company at this finate, would have made a specialor believe that they had all been swallowing oysters alive." times on other a St. Louis Reveille.

MR. CLAY AND THE KENTUCKY 1 mil w ELBCTORS, 14 graf if keep pace with his body. In spite of exert interview which took place on the 4th in-those who knowing longest loved you and tions, however he had fallen in acrears at stant, between the Presidential Electors of will cherish your memory and been of about a foot of the necessary length, and Kentucky and Mr. Clay, after the former your rejutation consequently, suck that far through his inexpressibles. His crop of hairwas surmoun-addresses which the occasion ellested bave ted by the funniest little seal skin cap im- since reach us and are given below. The aginable. After taking a position, he in remarks of Mr. Clay will be read with

"Ister?"

"Yes, sir responsed the attentive operator. — and fine ones they are, too."

"Well i've heard of Isters afore," saws he, but this is the fust time I've seed in preshaps, I'l know what than made of a lemm's response. We doubt not they will be read with profound interest by extention, he contends approached the plate, and scrutenized the uncased shell fish with a gravity and interest which would have done.

come that's stickin' it on rife strong, hoss. for islers. A dozen on 'cm aint nothing' chronicle such another occurrence, in life to a chicken, and there's no getting' more'n though we may live beyond the ordinary should full to express the feelings of my life of man.

> to you for each one of us, that we have object. come to offer you a homage of our personal regard and profound respect.

Theodore Frelinghaysen to till the offices irrevocable. of President and Vice President of the U.

an the pen of proscription intimidate urs see dangers and evils, which I sincerely hours and sworn allegiance to the United in speaking the truth. Under existing lieved encompassed it averted and remedied. States, they should cause to act as foreign circumstances it gratifies us to take you by the hand, and to unite, as we do most correspond to the great department of its dodially, in expressing the sentiments of mestic labor and industry, should be fixed Americans shall not rule over them, endeavour hearts and of those we represent in and stable, that all might know how to reg-regard to your personal character and pol-ulate and accommodate their conduct. And It is this isolent conduct, together with itical principles.

with the history of our country for the last forty years, that malice and envy cannot prevent succeeding generations dwelling on your name with admiration and gratitude. Your example will illuminate the paths of future statesmen, when those who ture course of the Government is altogether gression upon the rights of foreigners as seanxious friend; The creature is blive, paths of future statesmen, when those who buint the temple, iof thereolie the grate

To you the election has terminated the rough bark off a few of the apple trees clous !-what 'ill I do ?-It's got holds of without personal loss; but to the nation, in in my orchard, and washed the trunks and my innards a ready, and I'm dead as a our judgment, the injury is incalculable. limbs within reach with soft soap, trimmed chicken !-do sometin' for me do-don't God grant that the confederacy may not ion, the benefit may yet be secured of the do not like to live under their rule, they can

Whilst your enemies have not attempted to detract from your intellectual character, the of strong pepper-sauce. they have with untiring malice attacked your moral reputation and endeavored to destroy it: The verbal slanders and prinstely wrenching out the cork, awallowed ted libels employed as means to accomplish half the contents at a draught. He fairly political objects, have stained the character political objects, have stained the character of our country and its institutions more than they have injured yours. In your high personal character, in your political principles and unrivaled zeal and ability to earry them out, may be found the strong motives for our unxious efforts to secute your election. The protection of Amercan labor, a national currency connected with a fiscal agent for the Government, the Distribution among the States of the propower and patronage, and a limitation upon the eligibility of the President for a second term, were measures, which, under your administration, we hoped to mature and bring into practical operation. By your deever lost.

But we will not speculate on coming events. If things work well, we shall find consolation in the general prosperity. apprenended evils come, we are not responsible; and retaining our principles, we shall enjoy the happy reflection of having done our duty.

In the shades of Ashland may you long continue to enjoy peace, quiet and the possession of those great faculties which have rendered you the admiration of your friends and the benefactor of your country. And when at last death shall demand he victim, We published some days ago a brief no while Kennicky will contain your asles, piece it out with, all colors, in order to tice of the very interesting and affecting test assured, that old and faithful friends place by the vilest machinations and most you Sir, (Mr. Underwood) their organ on county at the Presidential election, but Upon reaching the door of Mr. Clay's and grateful acknowledgements to the other "Native American" flag. Unless the for-dwelling, Mr. Underwood, surrounded States, which have united with Kentucky by the other Electors, by the Governor in the endeavor to elect me to the Chief by recent events they eaght to see that they and the Ex-Governors, Metcalfe and Magistracy of the Union, and to the militan will place comment us in a most disagreeable A wag, who was standing by indulging in a dozen, winked to the attendant to shell out, and the people who attended, and a quarter of freemen, embracing so be position before the lapse of many years, in a dozen, winked to the attendant to shell out, and the offer was accepted.

BEN. HARDIN. J. R UNDERWOOD; R. A. PATTERSON, PHILIP TRIPLETT. W. W. SUTTHGATE, W.R. GRISBY. JOHN KINCAPO L. W. ANDREWS. GREEN ADAMS, B. MILES CRENSHAW, LESLIE COMBS. W. L. GRAVES.

RM. CLAY'S REPLY.

Letcher and the people who attended, and a quarter of freemen, embracing so much virtual intelligence and patriotism. Building themselves tegether as distinct who whatever residing, have directed strending themselves in the community (as Frenchmen, members of the Electoral College to say uous and enthusiastic exertions to the same German, Swis, Irish, &c.) and setting under > issue of the election has not corresponded the flags of their respective nations declar-In this work of the heart, many of your with their anxious hoges and confident ex- ing, in insultingly expressive mottees, that neighbors have likewise come to unite pectation. You have, Sir, assigned some of Americans shall not rule over us with us. On yesterday, at Frankfort, we the causes which you suppose have occaperformed our official duty in obedience sioned the result. I will not trust myself zens and their own naturalized brethren, who to the will of the people of Kentucky, by to speak of them. My duty is that of per-

> The machinations of your enemies, test, just terminated, but, unless I am great- which profits by, and theref ce now encourtheir frauds upon the elective franchise, by self deceived, the principal attraction to ages them in these indiscreet proceedings, and their duplicity with the people in me of the office of President of the United much longer to tolerate them. When they promulgating opposite principles in differ. States arose out of the cherished hope that become naturalized, and, under that act of tion. I may defeated your electronic formula of Providence, to accomplish public among us they cease to be Frenchment and We have no hope of preferment at your good. I desire to see the former purity lishmen and Germans. Having renounced hands; which can tempt us to flatter, not of the general Government restored, and to allegiance to the United Your past services are so interwoven lie measures, which you have enumerated, bination, they have for many years past, with the history of our country for the last. I hope to live to witness and to contribute to by casting their almost unbroken vote in the their adoption and establishment.

So far as respects any official agency of parties actually controlled our elections, that mine, it has been otherwise decreed, and I has induced the formation of Native Amer-On the contrary I carnestly desire that en- and they will ultimately break down this lightened by its own reflections, and by a offensive and injurious foreign influence. deliberate review of all the great interests. The foreigners will soon find that the Amerof the country, or prompted by public opinicans will govern themselves and if they practical execution of those principles and return whence they came. tended, that peace and honor may bepreserved, and that this young but great nation may be rendered harmonious, prosperous and powerful. We are not without consolations under the event which has happeged. The Whig exhibited to the party bas fully and fairly country the principles and measures which it believed best adapted to secure our liberties and promote the common welfare. It has made, in their support, constant and urgent appeals to the reason and judgment of the people. For myself, I have the high popular publisher, singler down with presatisfaction to know that I have escaped a paratory advertisements. Add six reams of great and fearful responsibility; and that, gilt-edged paper, grats in a thousand quills, during the whole causass. I have done notiduring the whole canvass, I have done nothing inconsistent with the dictates of backs and corners. She up with magazine ceeds of the Public Lands, further constitute purest honor. No mortal man is author. pulls, skim off sufficient for proface. Shred tutional restrictions, upon the Executive ized to say I held out to him the promise of any office or appointment whatever. What now is the duty of the Whig par-

14? I venture to express any opinion with the greatest diffidence. The future is enveloped in a veil impenetrable by human eyes. feat they have been endangered, if not for- I cannot contemplate it, without feelings of some filtered tears, half-mourning for a dead great discouragement. But I know of only one safe rule, in all the visismudes of human life, public and private, and that is con- bear "frittering." scient easily to satisfy ourselves of what is

A Sentimental Ditto—(By the same right, and firmly and undeviatingly to purform.) Take a young lady, dress har in sue it under all traits and circumstances. blue ribbons, sprinkle with innocence, spring sue it under all trais and circumstances confinding in the great Ruler of the Universe for ultimate success. The Whigs are deliberately convinced of the truly and wisthey have espoused. It seems, therefore, ford's. Work up with rustic cottage, an ato me that they should presevere in con- ged father, blind mother, and little brothers tending for them; and that, a thering to and sisters in brown Holland pinafores. Intheir separate and distinct or anization, they should treat all who have the good of their country in view wish respect, and sympa-thy, and invite their co operation in securing the patriot's objects which it has been their aim and purpose to accomplish.

whilst life remains, to look with fively intorest and deep solicitude upon the morement and operations of our free system of hurglary, honor and housebtesking, amiathe Government, and to hope that, unbility and anson, boil all gently. St w der the smiles of on all-wise Providence, ye Republimay be ever just, horriable, prosperous and great.

unreleuting persecution—surrounded in this occasion, for the feeling and elequent refused, although the judges of the elec-funeral silence and solemnity, by the cho-address which you have just done me the time were themselves Lucabicos, and the sen and most gifted men of his adopted honor to deliver. I am under the greatest same who received, without question, his tion of students. The course of instruction is as complete and theory of the South. The terms of substances of instruction for the state—by his nearest neighbors and obligations to the people of Kentucky.— vote in October! The reason assigned by complete and theory of the South. The terms of admission for the English course, embracing all the branches of an used to say short speckalation.? Standard for this extraor-pouring of their bruised learning learning of their bruised learning lear lars per session; for the Classical course, embracing the Latin and Greek, with some other ancient with two bits, and you can have a > heart if I did not also offer my profound a neutral paper in polities, has raised the Their effort has been unavailing, and the procession, not under our flag, but under themselves if they believe that even the I will not affect indifference to the person- weight of their cole will induce a majority al concern which I had in t e political con- of our citizens, even of that political party fully convinced of the wisdom of the pub- the fact before their eyes, that, by this comscale of one or the other of the contending asures for which we have bonestly con-The following invaluable literary recipes were kindly furnished to Punch by the celebrated Ude. They will be found as useful for young authors on this side the Atlantie as they have been in England:

the Well sir," was the reply, "down bits moist eye and quivering lip, and their their long and faithful strachment, exhibited Binit, specific of his time there. manly tears, excited unutterable emotions. in the vote which, in their behalf, you gave, ad been previously rejected. Blair is a But we will not dwell upon this sub- yesterday, at the sent of the State Gov. rn. | retty fellow to talk about pipe layers!

How to Cook up a Fushionable Novel.
Take a consummate puppy—M. P. a prefetable (as they are generally the softest, and don't require south pressing)—baste with self-concert, stoff with slang, season with manifin sentiment, hash up with a scraps of French and small-talk very fine.
Add "superfine coats" "salin stocks" "bouquets" "opera boxes" "a duet" an elopement-Saint George's church, Silver bridefavors, eight footmen, four postilions, the like number of horses, "dredger" of miles; uncle (the better if he has a twich in his nose), and serve with anything that will flowers and primoses. Procure a baronet, a lord if in season, if not, a depraved "your gar son") trim him with ecarte, rauge et noir, Epsom, Derby, and a slice of Jroktroduce mock abduction strong dose ofvirtue and epentance. Serve up with village church, a happy parent, a delighted daugh-ter, reformed take, blissful bruthers, siren sisters, and perfect denouement.

N. B .- Sesson with perspective christ I heartily thank you, sir, for your friendly wishes for my happiness in the retirement which, henceforward best becomes me.
Here I hope to a joy peace and tranquility seeking faithfulls to perform in the walks of private life, whatever duties may yet appertain to me. And I shall never cease, whilst life remains, to look with lively interest and deep solicitude upon the moreeral pistols, a bloody knife. Serve pp with a consie of murders, and season with a hang-