The Caledonia arrived at Boston 12 o'clock Monday, in 16 days from Liverpool which place she left on the 5th—one day later than her regular day in order to bring over the account of what transpired in Parliament on the 4th, on the subject of Oregon. The speech of Sir Robert Peel will be found below.

us amicable adjustment of the respective claims of the United States and this country. These efforts, conducted under the auspices of men of great ability were entirely unavailing. The proposals which we made to the United States were rejected by them, and the proposals which they made were rejected by us.

formation on that subject cannot be communicated without prejudicing the public service. It is proper that I should add that considerable progress has been made in the negotiation, which has been conducted in amicable spirit, and I have reason to hope that the negotiation will be closed in a short time.

may have been some virtue in the three ploughings, to which he subjected the soil—say, it may have been the thorough pulverization which it received that caused the large product, which was forty five bushels per acre.

From the American Farmer. LARGE CROPS OF GRAIN. At the recent meeting of the Monroe County (New York) Agricultural Society, the second premium for the best two acres of wheat there being no competition, was awarded to Mr. McGonagal. So far as manuring was concerned there was nothing very extraordinary, either in the quantity or kind; for nothing is more common with wheat-growers than to sow upon a clover ley previously plastered; but there
