PROFIT OF HENS.

The Woodsocket Patriot, a paper always trying to find something useful as well as entertaining has a letter from a brother typo now turned farmer, Mr. Todd of Smithfield who has taken pains to ascertain biddy's expenses and profit on twenty-five hens is equal to that of a good cow. He says, I used to contend that a hen would consume the "Bucks County Hens." They are more value in corn than her eggs would feach at the common market price. But in order to satisfy myself whether there was or was not any profit in keeping hens, I rave kept a pretty accurate account of what have fed out and the eggs sold in market

E amine this result;-From the 1st day of April, 1844 to April 1845 my henstwenty-five in number-have consumed 26 bushels of corn. valued at 75 cents per hushel which amounts to $19 55; during which time I have sold in Market 232 dozens of rggs averaging 15 cents per dozen, which amounts to $36 50-no account being made of those used in the family. I have also sold $4 worth of chickens amounting in all to $ :9 30. Here, then, I have left $20 75, clear prefit.

He was dressed in the costume of his nation, a checked shirt, a red blanket, ear-rings and bracelets. His features, like all Indians, were strongly marked. His expression was grave, thoughtful, and kindly-looking. In his speech he expressed himself much gratitude that he had an oppositunity of addressing his Father and Brethren. He and his nation were poor, and he was obliged to wear a blanket and he could not speak and hear ala distance like his white fathers who had books and writing. But, he was glad to see them; he was glad that they had sent Missionaries; they had done good to them. He saw many white people who talked many ways; but there were some who talked one way, and the Missionarius were true.
