VALUABLE BRICK STORE

HOUSE AND DWELLING

FOR SALE.

The Brick Store, on Fayetteville Street, in Raleigh, a few doors below the well known stand of Williams Haywood & Co., now occupied by

Mc. Bigger, is offered for sale on accommodating terms. It is well fitted for a Store and Dwelling, with all necessary out houses, is a most excellent stand; and pays a handsome rent. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as those desiring to purchase will of course call and examine the premises. SYLVESTER SMITH.

Raleigh, Feb. 8, 1847.

WILLIAM A. BROWN'S

UMBRELLA, PARASOL,

PARASOL, and Sun Shade

MANUFACTORY,

No. 26 Market Street, Philad.

William A. Brown invites Southern and Western Merchants visiting Philadelphia to examine his stock of Umbrellas, Parasols, Parasollets and Bug Shades, which will be found the largest and most complete assortment of desirable New Goods in the market embracing every variety from the lowest price to those of the finest quality.

Due to a great reduction in some materials, of which I have availed myself, I can offer instruments to purchasers that cannot be found elsewhere.

My prices will be found the lowest in the city, and the Goods warranted of the best manufacture.

Philadelphia, 1847.

W. HEN. S. CLARK, Esq., a member of Congress from the late 8th District, has published an address in the "Par-bor Press," declining to be a candidate for re-election.

The old established House over Forty

Years Standing,

EMORY & CO.,

Opposite Barnum's Hotel,

BALTIMORE, Md.

Bank Note and Specie Exchange Office. Bank notes and Foreign bills of all descriptions purchased by Emory & Co. at the lowest rates.

EMORY & CO., the oldest Lottery Firm in the United States, have, by a strict attention to business, gained a popularity that cannot be excelled —not one of the multitudes of contractors that are daily springing up, have taken good game to-morrow, and at all times to be found at their old stand, No. 3

Calvert street, happy to wait on all who favor them with a call.

CAUTION. We would most respectfully urge upon correspondents the necessity of always addressing their letters to EMORY & CO., Baltimore, and not to any individual who may, through misinformation, represent himself either as being or having been a member of our firm. A strict observance of this caution, our friends, will always secure a prompt and confidential reply to their letters.

Emory & Co. cash all prizes sold by them in GOLD.
