SPECIFICATIONS.

 The Fence to be of stone and iron; to have a good and solid foundation of stone, laid in strong lime mortar, beneath the surface of the earth, and to come up to the level of the earth—on which is to be erected a solid, dressed, stone coping, twelve inches high, and sixteen inches wide—each panel to be eight feet wide—the balance of the fence to be of cast iron; the panels to be five and a half feet high, five inches and a half in diameter near the base, and four inches and a half in diameter near the top, as shown in the drawing, to be hollow, round, and fluted, with an ornamental top, as shown in the drawing. The trellis work resting on the stone coping to be one foot high, and the rails of the trellis work at each end let into the panel posts, and the top rail let into the panel posts also—the top rail to be 2 1/2 inches wide, by 1/2 of an inch thick—the top rail of the trellis work, on which the upright rods set, to be 2 1/2 inches wide by 1/2 of an inch thick; the lower rail of all to be 2 1/2 inches wide by 1/2 of an inch thick; the upright rods to be square, 1 1/2 inches in diameter; to pass through the top rail and rest on the upper rail of the trellis work and let into sockets, with the edge of the rod or angle to the front, with an ornamental head like that shown in the drawing. Inside of each panel post there is to be an iron rod, wrought, 1 1/2 inches square, to pass from the top of the post, and to be firmly and securely fastened in the stone coping. There are to be fifteen upright rods in each panel. There shall be four large gates, fronting the four entrances of the State House—to be twelve feet wide between the gate posts; the gates to be folding gates, the gate posts and the gates to be higher than the balance of the fence, and in proportion to the fence; and on each gate post an ornamental lamp, the frame of which is to be of cast iron, the glass to be covered with iron rollers, running on iron bars let into solid stone; the gate posts and gates to be after the same pattern as the balance of the fence; all of the iron work to be of cast iron, excepting the rods which pass inside of the posts and are socketed in the stone coping. The whole fence to be built according to the drawing to be seen in the Comptroller's Office.

THE WAY IT WAS DONE, HOW IT WAS, HOW IT IS, AND HOW IT WILL BE.
 If there be sought congratulation in the position of man, in either his social or public capacity, in which he has communion with his fellow beings, or of nations in their career which they run, and while they exist, it may be traced to a source from which all that is bright and harmonizing, all that exalts good feeling, fellowship, love and respect, from man towards man from one nation to another, and it has its basis upon doing that which is right. It is upon this broad principle, not evanescent in its nature but growing brighter and brighter each day that it exists to diffuse its rays that, SYLVESTER has conducted his business. From the commencement of his assuming charge of Freney's dispensation, he has never deviated from that path, selling Tickets only in Lotteries authorized by the States in which they are drawn, under the supervision of Commissioners appointed for the purpose, and under the management of responsible and respectable parties. At his transaction will bear the closest inspection, and he invites scrutiny. It is a double cause, therefore, of congratulation, when he receives the communication of his correspondents, their acknowledgments, if not formal for a proper purpose, but gratifying, and especially gratifying in the result he has effected in February. Two Capitals and three Second Capitals, have been sold, besides numerous Prizes of smaller denomination; and but one of these are unpaid to a person who has yet to receive the joyful tidings. He trusts with satisfaction from details that those which he has yet to perform, ONE MILLION must be distributed; shall it be to you, reader? Look at the bright and glowing SCHEMES unravelled in magnificence and splendor of detail. Be careful and address early your orders to

A PROCLAMATION,
 By His Excellency, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM,
 Governor of North Carolina.
 Whereas, by the Acts of the General Assembly, at its last Session, entitled "An Act to lay off and establish a County by the name of ALEXANDER," and an Act Supplemental thereto, it is provided, that an enumeration of the population of the County of Caldwell, within its own proper boundaries, exclusive of the inhabitants of that part of its Territory which had been added to the County of Alexander, shall be made by three Commissioners, to be appointed by the County Court of the said County of Caldwell, a majority of the sitting Justices thereof being present: And the operation of both said Acts is made to depend, as a condition precedent, upon the said County of Caldwell being found, by such an enumeration, to contain "a clear and undoubted Federal population of Five Thousand souls."
 And whereas H. Alspaugh, Charles McD. Dixon and J. N. Buon, who are certified to have been duly appointed and qualified Commissioners in that behalf, have reported to me, under their hands and seals, that upon said enumeration being made, as directed by the Acts of Assembly aforesaid, they find that the said County of Caldwell proper, contains a Federal population of Five Thousand, Nine Hundred and Three souls.
 Now, therefore, I, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, Governor of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the requirements of the aforesaid Acts of the Legislature, do hereby proclaim, and make known the fact thus ascertained, and that the operation of said Acts no longer depends on any condition, but that the said County of Alexander is absolutely established.
 In testimony whereof, I have caused the great Seal of the State of North Carolina to be affixed to these presents, and signed the same with my hand.
 Done at the City of Raleigh, this 19th day of March, A. D. 1847, and of our Independence the seventy first.
 WILL. A. GRAHAM.
