The might be doing the country a great service if I would jine in with Gineral Pillow, as The Operation of the Sub Treasury in my experience under Gineral Jackson and insight into military affairs would no doubt be very useful to that valiant officer. So I took hold for that day as one of Gineral tion'the operation of that beautiful Loco Pillow's aids.

Says he, "No d-n the ditches, I've no opiuion of em; they are nothing but a bother, and never ought to be used. The best way is to go right up into the enemy pell mell." So, on we went, and Pillow fit like a tiger till he got wounded, and the rest of us that wasn't shot down had to finish the work up the best way we could. The long and the short of it is, we fit our way into the city of Mexico and annexed it. Santa Anna cleared out the night afore with what troops he had left, night afore with what troops he had left, and is scouring about the country to get some more places ready for us to annex. When he gets another place for the cere-mony, and gets it well fortified and has an army of twenty or thirty thousand men in the forts and behind the brerst-works, we shall march down upon 'em with five or six thousand men and go through the flurry. After they have shot down about half of us the rest of us will climb in, over the mouths of the camoons, and annes that the mouths of the cannons, and annex that place; and so on, one after another,

It is pretty hard work annexin in this way; but that is the only way it can be done. It will be necessary for the Presi-dent to keep hurrying on his men this way to keep our zanks full, for we've got a great deal of ground to go over yet. What we've annexed in Mexico, so, far, ietter that I wrote on the road to the war. The letters I wrote of here wards, the guerrilles has and robbers are so thick. I think it's ten chances to one if you got 'em. Some of Gineral Scott's letters is missing just in the same way. Now we've got the city of Mexico annexed, I think the Postmaster General ought to have a more regular line of stages running here, so our letters may go safe. I wish you would touch the President and Mr. Johnson up a little about the farmers raise horses as fast as they can, for I don't think they have any idea how long the roads is this way, nor how fast we are gaining south. If we keep on an-nexin as fast as we have done a year or two past, it wouldn't take much more than two past, it wouldn't take much more than half a dozen years to get clear to t'other end of South America, clear down to two past, it wouldn't take much more than half a dozen yents to get clear to t'other end of South America, clear down to Cape Horn, which would be a very good in the ground in Mexico, and can always ed.
