On invitation, Mr. Manly was then conducted into the Hall, and was received with loud applause.

In an eloquent and beautiful address, full of the deepest confidence, and of the most cheering sentiments, he responded to, and accepted his nomination.

Having concluded, on motion of Mr. Rayner, Mr. Manly was invited to occupy a seat in this convention, as an honorary member.

Mr. Rayner, from the Committee of 23, appointed to prepare Resolutions, &c., reported the following Preambles and Resolutions: WHEREAS, As the Representatives of the Whigs of the State, in the Convention assembled, for the purpose of deliberating on the best means of promoting the public good, we deem it due to the cause of truth, and the success of our principles, that we should briefly set forth the grounds of our action in the coming political contest.

1. Therefore Resolved, That our conviction of the truth, and our devotion to the cause of the great Conservative principles of the Whig party, are not only unchanged and unimpaired, but the present alarming condition of the Country growing out of the misrule of the party in power, whilst fulfilling our predilections serves to convince us still more of the necessity of persevering perseverance, in the support and maintenance of those principles.

2. Resolved, That we look upon the course of the present Administration, in their warfare upon American Industry, in their reckless management of the public treasury, their wasteful expenditures in diverting the public land fund from its rightful purposes, their direct and open countenance and encouragement to the violation of law and order; their prostitution of public office to the acquisition of partisan support, as utterly in conflict with the Constitution, destructive of public morals, and avarice with the spirit of our free institutions, and tending ultimately to the overthrow of civil liberty.

3. Resolved, That while our opinions remain unchanged in regard to these old issues, on which we have for years, combated the party in power, yet we consider the perilous condition of the country, growing out of an unnecessary and unconstitutional war—began in a spirit of selfish ambition, and persisted in with a view to party triumph—as presenting a new issue, which, for the time being, over-adows and transcends, in importance, all the old questions, which have heretofore divided parties, momentous and important as those questions are.

4. Resolved, That we consider the ordering of the march of the Army of the United States, by the President, James K. Polk in the face of the pledge which had been given by the American Congress, in the terms of Texas annexation that the boundary betwixt Texas and Mexico should be settled by peaceful negotiation, as an unauthorized aggression upon the rights of a neighboring nation and as unbefitting that magnanimity and sense of justice, which should have marked the course of a great and powerful Government towards a weak and distracted one.

5. Resolved, That even if this country had had sufficient grounds for war against Mexico, yet, as the Constitution expressly reserves to Congress alone, the power to make war, we view the conduct of the President James K. Polk, in bringing about and causing to "exist a state of war," by ordering Gen. Taylor to invade the territory in dispute, between the United States and Mexico, as a manifest usurpation of the authority of Congress and as a palpable violation of the Constitution of his country.

6. Resolved, That this unnecessary, expensive, and unconstitutional war, ought to be terminated as soon as possible, consistently with the honor of the country; that too many of our sons have already fallen; that too much of our treasure has already been wasted; that millions of acres of conquered territory cannot compensate us for the loss of the one, and the expenditure of the other and that in negotiating a Peace, we owe it to our position among the nations of the earth, not to force harsh and oppressive terms upon a conquered and prostrated foe.

7. Resolved, That we would prefer that the negotiations for Peace should be conducted with a view to the establishment of an equitable boundary line between us and Mexico and the acquisition of a safe and convenient harbor on the Pacific but that we are entirely opposed to forcibly wresting from Mexico, by conquest any portion of her territory.

8. Resolved, That while we sympathize with a view to conquest, yet we cannot withhold the meed of our admiration and approval of the conduct of those Officers and men of our Army and Navy, who have gallantly sustained the American flag; and who have exhibited in the eminent degree, the virtue of loyalty and obedience to superior authority; whilst prosecuting a war upon a system and for purposes which many of them, in their judgment, condemn.

9. Resolved, That we view the course of the Administration, in their warfare upon Generals Taylor and Scott as evincing a spirit of jealousy and ingratitude, inconsistent with all the high impulses of justice and honor; that we will as far as in us lies, sustain those gallant commanders against the assault of malignity and oppression; and will cherish their names as identified with American prowess and glory.

10. Resolved, That the position taken by our Senators in Congress, the Hon. Whittle P. Mangum and the Hon. George E. Badger, in reference to the further prosecution of the Mexican War, meets our entire approbation and that we fully endorse the sentiments expressed by the latter, in his late able and unanswerable Speech, in the Senate on that subject.

11. Resolved, That our present Governor the Hon. William A. Graham, is entitled to our high commendation and our thanks, for the very able impartial and satisfactory manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office; and that on retiring from the Executive Chair, he will carry with him the esteem and approbation of us all.

12. Resolved, That the time has arrived when the Whigs of the Union should put forth every effort; that we think upon their success greatly depends the security of our rights, and the perpetuity of our Institutions; that, at this time, above all others, compromise and harmony should prevail in our councils; that Union is the first great pre-requisite to success, and that therefore we approve the National Whig Convention to be held in Philadelphia, on the 7th of June next; that we will abide the nomination of said Convention for the offices of President and Vice President and supporting its nominees; and that we deem it advisable that the Whigs of North Carolina should be represented in said Convention.

13. Resolved, That John M. Morehead of Guilford, and John Kerr, of Caswell, be appointed as Delegates to represent the Whigs of the State at large in the National Whig Convention, and that the Whigs of the respective Congressional districts are hereby advised to hold District Conventions with a view to the selection of one Delegate to represent the Whigs of said District in Convention, and to the forming a Whig Electoral Ticket for the State.

14. Resolved, That our Whig brethren throughout the State, be and they are hereby appealed to by every consideration that addresses itself to the heart of the Patriot to arouse themselves and make a still more vigorous and determined effort in behalf of our principles and our cause; to keep constantly in view the fact, that on the next General Assembly will devolve the election of a Senator in Congress for six years, to complete a more thorough system of Whig organization in the several Counties; and that we do hereby pledge ourselves to each other, and call on the Whigs of the State to rally the same, that we will use our most vigorous efforts to secure a Whig victory in both August and November next.

The Resolutions were read, and unanimously adopted.

THE STAR.

LIBERTAS ET NATALE SOTUM. RALEIGH, MARCH 1, 1848.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, GEN. ZACHARY TAYLOR, THE COUNTRY'S CHOICE.

DEATH OF HON. J. Q. ADAMS. It is our melancholy duty to announce that the Hon. JOHN Q. ADAMS died in Washington on Wednesday evening, the 23rd Feb., at a quarter past 7 o'clock.—He passed off quietly without a struggle; in the 81st year of his age.

GLORIOUS NEWS. The highly important and gratifying intelligence, that a treaty of peace, signed by Mr. Trist and three Mexican Commissioners, had been received at Washington; is confirmed. It was transmitted to the U. S. Senate on the 22nd February, and it is said, was accompanied by the written approval of the President and Secretary of State. The National Intelligencer says the substance of the Treaty is understood to be as follows:

First. Peace between the United States and Mexico, and an Armistice between Military Commanders of the two countries in suspension.

Secondly. Mexico agrees, in consideration, &c., that the boundary between the United States and Mexico shall hereafter be from the Sea up the middle of the Rio Grande to the boundary of New Mexico, and thence in a line which (with some digression) is to run west (or nearly west) to the Pacific Ocean, and Strike a point south of the port of San Diego.

Thirdly. In consideration of this large cession of Territory the United States are to pay to Mexico the sum of Fifteen Millions of Dollars; and to satisfy all the just claims of citizens of the United States against the Government of Mexico.

The Treaty is understood to contain many provisions of detail; but does not, as we hear, include any provision, as has been reported, for the maintenance of a Military force by the United States for a certain time in Mexico.

The Editor of this paper is necessarily absent from his post this week.

Read the admirable letter of the Hon. W. C. Rives in another part of this paper.

The poetry on our first page will not fail to amuse the reader.

FIRE! The large brick shop attached to the railroad Depot in this city, was destroyed by fire about 11 o'clock on Friday night last. Several Engines and other valuable machinery, among which was the splendid new engine just purchased at a cost of $7,000, were greatly injured. The loss is probably not less than fifteen or twenty thousand dollars. It is not known how the fire occurred. The most prompt and energetic measures were adopted to prevent any material interference with the operations of the road. An engine was ordered by Telegraphic despatch; and the cars in a few days, are expected to run as regularly as ever.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION. The proceedings of this body will be found in another part of to-day's Star. It will be seen that CHARLES MANLY, Esq., of this City, was selected as the Whig candidate for Governor. We here copy from the Register his neat and spirited response to the Convention, accepting the nomination:

It is with unaffected embarrassment, Mr. President, that I appear thus hastily before you. I come at your bidding, not with the vain design to make a display, nor in the feeble hope of saying anything that will instruct or interest the intelligent assembly, but merely to return in a few plain words, my most cordial acknowledgments, of the unexpected honor conferred upon me.

The position, to which the partiality of the Convention has assigned me, I am fully aware, no sinecure. To bear with success through a North Carolina campaign, the Flag Staff of the Whig party, requires a cool, an intrepid and a debility, which in view of the varied and distinguished attainments of my immediate predecessors, might well dismay a much stronger man.

I profess no skill in the strategy of campaigns
